'Operation Transplant' Underway

A group of city school youngsters received a short course in shrubbery-setting recently as "Operation Transplant" got underway at the new Parsons School site on Lee Ellen-dr., east of S. High-st.

In buying the seven-acre site, school officials paid for 3000 pieces of shrubbery on a one-acre plot purchased from DiGioia Nurseries.

Taking advantage of the investment, teams of youngsters from most of the city's 121 schools will visit the plot, digging up 10 or 15 bushes per crew to transplant on the grounds of their own schools.

Asks South Side Council To Take Immediate Action

By John Auble, Jr.

Albert G. Giles, Columbus Safety Director, urged members of the Council of South Side Organizations to send in petitioning letters stressing the need of sidewalks on Thurman-av, "for the protection of school children" at Thursday's meeting.

Giles also praised George Scholer and his members of the Columbus police department, and explained the urgent need of additional men for the force to "provide for the right type of law enforcement."

The safety director's office, which is currently working on a study of traffic light timing is planning to set up a rehabilitation center for alcoholics.

"At present," he said, "sixty per cent of the workhouse population is made up of people brought in on drinking charges."

In other council business, President William Neno commented on the value of the present clean-up, paint-up campaign. "I'm pleased with the city-wide committees," he said, "who are striving to make this a year-around drive."

Howard Henry, council secretary, reported on the South Side Community Night plans. According to Henry, the entertainment at the present time includes songs by the Harmony Glee Club and a trampolin act presented by the boys and girls of Schiller Park.

"At the Monday, May 9, meeting," Henry stated, "we will pass out the tickets to the various organizations for the Community Night affair."

Paul Stecker, general chairman of the stated Fourth of July celebration, received permission from the Council to sign a contract with the Columbus Fireworks Co. The $500 display will be held at Southview Field, 2-10 p.m.

The Heimandale Civic Association was taken into membership by the council, and approval of the German Village societies drive was praised in other business.

According to the Council the restoration of the village will help to prevent another slum area in the city, and will bring favorable publicity to this section of the city.

Final Phase Of Census Under Way

The 1960 Census of Population and Housing entered its final stage on Apr. 18 when a picked group of interviewers began a "mopping up" operation to complete the ten-year inventory of the nation's people and their homes.

The interviewers are primarily concerned with accounting for the "blue" household questionnaires which were left at every fourth household during the first stage of the census which started Apr. 1. A small number of persons have failed to mail this report form to the Census Bureau's district office. Also, some of the report forms which have been received have not been completely filled out.

The "clean up" interviewers will make personal visits to the households from which report forms have not been received and obtain the answers to the Census questions.

CAMPAIGN COMMENTS

DiSalle Says Heavier Penalties Are Needed

Comments on the Hartley Newspapers campaign for better television programs and motion pictures have been received from Governor Michael V. DiSalle, U. S. Representative Samuel A. Devine and Senator Frank J. Lausche.

Since the campaign to limit crime and obnoxious sex displays in these areas consisted primarily on support of this newspaper's stand by many readers, the replies from the three statesmen will be printed beginning this week.

The first will be that of Ohio Governor DiSalle. The text of his letter follows:

The allegations contained in the letters that I received are rather general. Of course, I can join in the worthiness of the objectives that were stated. However, as you know, the Supreme Court of Ohio has held censorship to be unconstitutional. I am in agreement with its views.

There are laws now which, if properly used by the proper law enforcement officials, make the use of obscene literature and obscene movies so unprofitable and so vexatious as to bring an end to their use.

However, I am going still further in suggesting that we attempt to devise a law which would provide heavy penalties and make it absolutely unprofitable for individuals to engage in this type of activity.

We are also probing the possibility of entering into reciprocal agreement with other states in which we would commit ourselves to prosecuting the printers of obscene literature originating in other states in return for similar agreements in the other states.

We will give the matter a great deal of thought, and we hope to have some interesting, novel and effective methods to submit to the next session.

—Michael V. DiSalle
Governor.

DANCE FOLLOWS CARNIVAL

Schiller Holds Fun Fair Friday

South Side boys and girls will be able to "step right up and knock down the doll baby" at Schiller Recreation Center tomorrow afternoon when the annual spring carnival or Fun Fair is held in the Gymnasium between the hours of 4 and 6 p.m.

Booths, barkers and many prizes along with all the thing that make up a carnival will be there to help the youngsters have lots of fun.

Many of the old favorites such as spill the milk bottle, ring toss, penny toss, knock down the doll baby, dart throw and other attractions will be included on the Schiller Midway.

Sponsored by the Columbus Recreation Department, the Fun Fair will have no charge for admission. Stands, concessions and entertainment will use paper money which may be purchased for pennies at a bank which will be set up in the lobby on the day of the carnival.

Climaxing the days activities will be the big spring dance in the auditorium during the hours of 8-11 p. m. Theme for the decorations of this dance will be "Tulip Time in Holland," and the stage will represent a Dutch scene complete with dike, windmill and tulips growing in a cottage yard.

Music for this part of the day's activities will be furnished by Frank Bush's Orchestra through the courtesy of the Columbus Federation of Musicians in cooperation with the Music Performance Trust Fund.

This also is free to the public, and since it is a dress-up dance, no leiv's or blue jeans will be permitted on the floor.

An attendant at Thompson's Sohio service station, 2519 S. High-st, was robbed early Friday of $116 by a bandit armed with a chrome revolver and wearing neat sport clothes, police report.

The robber entered the station about 3 a. m. and flashed his revolver at Ray Mitchell, age 48, the attendant, and the latter's friend, Thomas Murphy, 16, of 112 Kail-av, police said.

Police said the gunman took the money in the cash register and ordered Mitchell and Murphy into a storage room and fled.

Her husband received second and third-degree burns on the face when he accidentally tossed a lighted cigarette into a can of magnesium powder. It was at first feared his eyesight would be impaired, army medical authorities said.

The week will be climaxed by a box social and dance on Saturday, April 23, at 6:30 p.m. During the week the boys will be given first place in line in the cafeteria and at the lunch counter and the girls will be eating books and opening doors. STITCH IN TIME SAVES 9 (DRESSES)—Shown above are three members of South High School's home economics sewing class who have been restoring costumes from the past with the help of their teacher, Mrs. Ruth Phipps (seated at sewing machine.) They are, left to right, Vivian Beach (wearing a bustled-back 1870 dress), Janet Antle (in a 1900 bathing suit) and Patricia Harris (dressed in a Civil War era woolsey-linsey.) South High sewing classes have been working on the project for about six months.

My, My How Times Change In South Sewing Classes

By John Auble, Jr.

For nearly an hour each school day, South High School students turn back the fashion clock four or five decades and take a look at clothing their forefathers considered vogue.

The past catches up with the present in the home economics sewing course at the Bulldog school when Mrs. Ruth Phipps sits down at a sewing machine.

For over a six-week period, Mrs. Phipps and her classes have been restoring the actual garments that were worn as far back as 1849.

"Throughout the years, styles in clothing have undergone radical changes", she explained. "Take the years around 1870. Then, the bustled-back dress was high fashion. In 1849, they wore mutton-leg sleeved outfits".

The sewing teacher, sitting among patterns and bits of cloth, stated that she began her restoration project in Long Beach, Calif. While vacationing, she found some old, stained garments in an antique shop.

"We aren't copying the old styles", she said dogmatically "we're restoring the old clothing. This gives the girls a chance to compare the construction and style with present day dresses."

The Columbus born, Ohio State grad presented her fashions from the past in a style show in the South High auditorium Apr. 20. She will also show her clothing at the Third Street School Friday, Apr. 22.

Among the other articles that she's restored are a 1900 bathing suite, a Civil War period woolsey-linsey and a 1907 handmade graduation dress.

Abouts modern teen - age dress, the personable Mrs. Phipps stated, "Somehow I just can't imagine my grandmother walking around in blue jeans and a man's white shirt".

Play Equipment Is Installed At Sunshine

All swings, sliding board and teeters have been installed at Schiller Recreation Center Playground for the coming season.

In accordance with the policy of the Columbus Recreation Department, the equipment will be unlocked at all times, which means that it will be available for use on the weekends, as well as during the regular center hours.

However, the playground will be supervised by the center staff between the hours of 3:30 and dark, on week days only until the Summer Playground season opens on June 15.

Stand By—'Brigadoon' Curtain About To Rise

The word around the 1160 Ann-st district seems to be practice, practice and more practice, as the music students at the Bulldog school prepare for their musical comedy presentation, "Brigadoon."

The operetta will be given two nights, each having a separate cast, on April 28 and 29.

The members of South's Modern Dance Club have been working on the operetta, also. They are Karen Allen, Sharon Mahoney, JoAnn Mizelle, Helena Robinson, Rosemary Waddell, Billie Chapman, Dee Dee Gehl, Carol Harper and Louise Witacre.

Leads for the play include Group I, Fay Coleman, Ralph Kleinline, Connie Magnuson, Bill Bugh, Tom Pennell, Kay Chambers, Sandy Morris, Ken Yunker, Clarence Black, Bill Noel, Jerry Hart, Willard Kirby. Group II, Bea Perry, George McKnight, Barbara Pfeifer, Ralph Tischler, Linda Bennett, Shirley Lilly, Paul Teleraki, Clarence Black, Larry Carol and Heinz Birtler.

Student director is Lynn Barash. Mary Winchester is in charge of the production. Music will be furnished by the school's orchestra, Randall Near directing.

At the state solo and ensemble contest held Saturday, Apr. 9, at Lancaster, the following South High students received superior ratings:

Janet Nicholson, violin solo; Steve Kuhl, saxophone quartet; Ralph Kleinlein, Martha Rader and Alfred Wellman, trumpet trio. Sharon Roshon was accompanist for the violin and trumpet presentations.

Arnold White, violin; Nicholson, Rader, White and Sandra Lewis, violin quartet; Don Howell, John Metzger, John Westlake and Dave Thompson, French horn quartet. Mary Heery accompanied Arnold White.

Dee Dee Gehl, accompanied by Bonnie Hoelich, received a good rating in the clarinet solo class.

In sports action, South High's track team will go to Ohio State University Saturday, Apr. 23, to compete in the city and district track meet.

Two of South's coaches, Bob Duncan and Bob Fearing, attended the annual football clinics at Capital University March 28 and April 4.

They also journeyed to Upper Arlington April 2 for the Arlington clinic.

South Side YMCA Opens Gra-Y Softball League Play

The South Side Branch YMCA Gra-Y Softball League opened Tuesday, Apr. 12, in the finest spring weather to date.

The purpose of the league is to promote good sportsmanship and better sports among Gra-Y members.

Tuesday League: The Southwood Deacon Demons, led by Powell, Sturgill and Abahazie, their classmates, pounded out a 15-5 decision over Southwood Rocketeers.

A home run by Howard Henry was the big blow for the Rocketeers. Dick Roshon's home run and two singles, and Larry Gilmore's three singles led a 19-hit attack by the Heyl Buckeyes in an 18-8 win over the Heyl Eagles.

The Livingston Lions roared and the Heyl Warriors backed up and came out on the short end of a 14-3 score. Robert Brown got three hits and scored three runs for the Lions and Hoffman got two hits and scored one run for the Warriors.

Thursday League: Quickel blasted out three hits and Benner scooted home with three runs in the Siebert Scorpions 12-3 win over the Siebert Sputniks.

The Lincoln Park Scarlets downed their across the room opponents, the Lincoln Park Grays, 10-3. West, Thacker and Davy led the 13 hit Scarlet attack and Macio hit a home run for the Grays. Hicks got three hits and Vick, Sabo, and Stump scored four runs each in the Reeb Rebels 23-19 win of the seasons first slugfest over the Beck Pirates.

The Beck team was not without their own hitting stars as Jerry Reeder slammed out four hits and Jim Peitsmeyer had the biggest night of all with four hits and four runs scored and some fine fielding plays.

Suspect Flees As Patrolman Arrests Partner

Police were eluded Monday by a burglar suspect who jumped from a rolling car at Ohio-av and Fulton-st in a hail of bullets.

However, police arrested his companion. A man called police earlier and reported he had just seen two men carrying loot from the M and D Auto Parts at 509 E. Livingston-av. He described the getaway car.

Later two patrolmen spotted a car answering the description at 18th and Mound-sts, and gave chase. The driver slowed the fleeing car at Ohio-av and Fulton-st and jumped out, according to police.

The officer chased the suspect on foot, firing four shots before the latter jumped a fence and disappeared. Meanwhile the other officer reached the rolling car and arrested the second man, George H. Boyd, age 23, of 183 E. Fourth-av.

Area Man Faces Three Charges By Vice Squad

A local man has been accused of pushing a police officer down a flight of stairs in the Deshler Hilton Hotel Thursday. Vice squadmen filed three charges Friday against the man.

Joseph C. Brown, age 24, of 928 Franklin-av, was charged with procuring a girl for illicit sexual relations, resisting arrest and assault and battery on a police officer.

Police charged that Brown pushed vice squadman Pat McSweeney down the stairs when the officer attempted to arrest him. The officer suffered severe rib injuries and possible internal and leg injuries in the incident.

SCREW LOOSE?

A small wad of steel wool, pressed into an enlarged hole, will take up the slack and enable the screw to hold firmly.

Youth, Four, Hit By Cycle

A four-year old south side boy, Richard J. Lackey, was reported near death Saturday night after he was hit by a motorcycle after darting from between parked cars into Wagner-st at Sycamore-st. Tuesday, he was listed in fair condition at Children's Hospital.

The youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lackey, 720 Wagner-st, suffered a compound skull fracture, attendants said.

Gary Al Reighle, 16, of 1002 Fairwood-av, told police he was traveling south in Wagner-st and did not see the boy run into his path. Reighle was not held, police said.

Supreme Court Candidate Member of Pioneer Families

Judge Winter

Family roots of Medina Municipal Court Judge Elizabeth Bell Winter, candidate for Ohio Supreme Court, are deep in Columbus' west area. Both her parents were members of area pioneer families.

Her great-great-grandfather settled on 1000 acres in the Clime-rd vicinity, land granted to him in 1803 for revolutionary war service. Mrs. Winter still owns eight acres of that tract on Clime-rd at Georgesville-rd.

She is descended from the Mix family, for whom Mix-rd was named, and the Demorests, from whom that road got its name.

A cousin of her father, Edgar Mix, was the world-famous balloonist who won the international Gordon-Bennett Cup Race in 1908.

James Garfield Stewart, she is the first woman to seek a state

Relatives still living in the area include: Mrs. Hal Moreland and Cecelia Goldhart, both Grove City women; a cousin, Mrs. W. E. Ferguson, of 3048 Crescent-dr, and an uncle, W. E. White, of Georgesville and Clime-rds.

As a candidate at the May 3 Republican primary for the unexpired term of the late Judge Supreme Court post since Judge Florence E. Allen was elected and re-elected in the 1920s.

A native of Columbus, Mrs. Winter was graduated from North High and from Ohio State University Law School in 1929. She has practiced law since 1930.

Mrs. Winter was elected the first judge of the newly-created Municipal Court of Medina in 1957.

She has served as a member of the Ohio Taxation Department's legal staff from 1930 until 1943, when she was commissioned a Lieutenant (jg) in the USNR. She served as Legal Officer District Security Office, Navy Operating Base in Norfolk, and was the only woman to hold the post of Aide and Flag secretary to an admiral.

She now holds the permanent rank of Lieutenant Commander USNR. Her husband, also an attorney, is Ralph Winter, who served four terms in the Ohio Senate and is known as the "Father Of The Turnpike." He is a member of the Public Utilities Commission.

A belief that "women have the responsibility and obligation of public office," and that she is qualified by a comprehensive legal background and experience, are among Judge Winters' reasons in seeking the post.

Solution dyed is the term used when colors are added to the solution before filament or yarn is formed. Upholstery fabrics made of solution-dyed yarn have the color "locked in" and are usually colorfast, according to Ohio State University Extension home furnishing specialists.

Waterman Seeks 2 Nominations In May Primary

Joe Waterman will do double duty at the May Primary.

A former assistant attorney general under Mark McElroy, Waterman will be seeking nomination as a candidate for the Ohio Legislature and alternate-at-large to the Democratic National Convention.

Waterman

Now a partner in the law firm of Waterman and Jaffy, 50 E. Broad-st, he is a graduate of Ohio State University with degrees in law and business administration.

In both 1958 and 1959, he headed the Dollars for Democrats Drive for the State of Ohio.

While training to be an attorney, Waterman was president of the Ohio State University Young Democratic Club. He was then appointed Chairman of the College Democratic Clubs of America and later was selected as the outstanding college Democrat of America in 1958.

He has been endorsed by the Franklin County Democratic Executive Committee.

There are three kinds of traffic law violators . . . men, women and children. Good parental teaching can help children and adults can have no excuse at all for violating traffic laws and regulations, says the Safety Council of the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce.

Where traffic laws are rigidly enforced and obeyed, traffic deaths have gone down.

Final Phase Of Census Under Way

The 1960 Census of Population and Housing entered its final stage on Apr. 16 when a picked group of interviewers began a "mopping up" operation to complete the ten-year inventory of the nation's people and their homes.

The interviewers are primarily concerned with accounting for the "blue" household questionnaires which were left at every fourth household during the first stage of the census which started Apr. 1. A small number of persons have failed to mail this report form to the Census Bureau's district office. Also, some of the report forms which have been received have not been completely filled out.

The "clean up" interviewers will make personal visits to the households from which report forms have not been received and obtain the answers to the Census questions. They will also seek, by telephone and personal visits, the answers to questions left blank or incorrectly answered in the report forms already sent to the census office.

CITY CHARTER REVISION NEEDED NOW!

Chances are that unless a concerted effort is made to the counterwise, all the money, effort and time spent toward revising the city charter will go down the drain.

We think this would be a serious and costly mistake.

Kept from the ballot last year because some feared the effect that it might wield at a general election upon candidates seeking public office, the impetus for a revision of the charter appears to be gradually grinding to a halt.

The need for a revised charter is clear. The present charter is long, long out of date.

Months of stymied legislation coupled with political bickering pointed out the need for a better method of filling vacated council seats.

The dynamic growth of Columbus over the past 10 years, in itself, pinpoints the need for a modern streamlined form of government.

The public feeling toward district representation on city council needs some serious review and consideration.

A charter commission, appointed by the former mayor, spent much time formulating changes which it thought would strengthen the governmental structure of the city. Surely these men had some ideas worth weighty thought.

City Council appropriated a good sum for consultants to study the present charter and recommend changes. Surely council realized the need for changes before making the money available for the study.

It is common sense that the city charter should be studied and revised.

Submission of a section or two as a piecemeal attempt to patch-up the inadequaces of the present charter is not the answer. The need now is for a new charter tailored to meet the needs of an expanding Columbus in a changing time.

We believe that every effort should be made to place a new charter on the November general election ballot.

This is possible. Recommendations of the recent charter commission are already available. Council could quickly make any changes which would appear appropriate.

A revised charter as soon as possible is a vital need of Columbus. A concerted drive in that direction is urgently needed today.

BIBLE COMMENT:

Jesus Drew Young Men Around Him

When we speak of "The Twelve" it is always of the inner circle of disciples. Jesus gathered them to Himself and gave them the commission that was to transform them from fishermen and others of humble life into religious leaders and founders—among the most notable men of all time.

We call them "The Twelve" even though one of them, Judas, turned out to be a traitor, and others lapsed into comparative obscurity. But all the 11 faithful were true followers of their Master.

One aspect of the apostles not commonly known is that like Jesus, they were young men.

John the Baptist, also was a young man, though, for some reason, many think of him as a sort of patriarch.

One thing is certain, the early Christian movement was a youth movement. It was earnest and impassioned young men who rallied to Jesus.

What motivated them? The record does not make it clear. They were evidently drawn by the Master's personality and teaching; but it seems obvious that they anticipated His setting up an earthly kingdom in which they were to have a special part.

How much their zeal was of youthful patriotism against Roman dominance and how much of it was religious does not appear in the passages of the Bible.

However, the youthful Twelve soon became the leaders of the greatest revolution of all time. Their hope of an earthly kingdom became transformed into the construction of the Kingdom not of this world.

That these youthful men, through Jesus, became the greatest founders of all time is the miracle of history.

Social Security Urges Filing Of Household Help

More than 100,000 housewives throughout the country may be violating the social security laws by not reporting the wages they pay their household help, according to officials of the Social Security Administration.

Many household employes are still not being reported for social security by their employers, although their cash wages from each employer may amount to well over $50 in a three-month period.

Some employers may not understand their responsibilities under the law. As little pay as $4 a week amounts to more than $50 in a quarter. Also, some household employes may have asked their employers not to file the returns because they do not want to have their share of the social security tax taken out of their pay.

If not detected by the Internal Revenue Service through routine enforcement procedures, employers who are not filing reports may later be called for a reckoning. This could happen when a worker applies to her social security office for retirement or disability benefits, or when a survivor of a worker applies for social security benefits after the worker's death.

Wildlife Subject Of 4-H Project

Wildlife production is the subject of a new 4-H Club project just released. Its purpose is to develop suitable food and cover plantings which will promote the natural production of wildlife native to the area.

Preliminary work in developing the project has been done in Franklin County under the supervision of Jim Mills, County 4-H Club Agent, co-author of the book with R. K. Davis, Extension Wildlife Specilist.

The authors suggest that many farms have certain odd areas such as ditch banks, turnrows, woodlot edges, etc., which although not suitable for cropland could produce a wildlife crop.

Agricultural Marketing Service researchers expect both cotton and leather to continue to play a large role in the manufacture of shoes. But they also expect both products to face stiff competition from rubber and synthetics.

Consumer Report

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Protein Foods—Canned hams, frozen fish sticks, rib end loin roasts, chuck roasts, fryers, large eggs, cheese.

Vegetables—Asparagus, broccoli, cabbage, lettuce, frozen spinach.

QUICK AND EASY MEALS BEGIN AT THE MARKET

Saving time and energy on meal preparation is important to homemakers with crowded schedules. For example, if you are among the ones who will be ringing doorbells next week for the CRUSADE ON CANCER, saving energy for this job is important. You will want to start your work feeling rested and refreshed. Perhaps the secret is to do your food marketing with quick and easy meals in mind. If the meat dish is hardest for you to plan, here are some suggestions:

• CANNED BONELESS HAM—The abundant supply of all sizes keeps the price tags low. Usually fully cooked—easy to serve cold or heated. Plan on four or five servings per pound.

• FROZEN FISH STICKS—also in plentiful supply, and need only a few minutes in the oven on a piece of foil. The ones with the least amount of breading are the best buy.

GROUND BEEF — always economical and well liked. Save time by shaping into patties when you unwrap it.

• ASSORTMENT OF CHEESES on hand will fill the bill for sandwiches and snacks. Select some sliced and some for cubing. Include cottage cheese for easy salads.

• EGGS—have plenty on hand. They're good for any meal. Have some hard cooked ones in the refrigerator for snacks and quick salad making.

• MILK—with a good supply of milk in the refrigerator either hot or cold beverages are a cinch to make. Remember a box of chocolate or cocoa mix.

HAVE THE SALAD GREENS WASHED AND READY

On busy days you can rely on frozen and canned vegetables to save time. However, you need not skip salads, if you have plenty of salad greens such as lettuce, escarole, endive and spinach washed and refrigerated in plastic bags all ready to use. Combine any of these for a tossed salad, or use them with canned drained fruit topped with cottage cheese.

Fruits—Two good selections are bananas and frozen orange concentrate. Both are being featured in most stores. And remember canned fruits for easy desserts—pears, apricots, peaches and purple plums are especially good buys.

Here is a suggestion for dinner that can be prepared with little effort and you'll have only one pan to wash when dinner is over. Use foil in the oven for baking potatoes and the fish sticks. Wrap the bread in foil for heating.

Menu

Frozen fish sticks — Chili sauce
Baked Idahoes — Sour Cream with Chives
Buttered Frozen Peas
Pumperickel Bread (heated) — Peach Jam

Just How Cold Was March, this year?

Look at the record...

It was an unusually cold March this year.

But HOW COLD?

Gas Company weather records show that March, 1960, was 33 per cent colder than March, 1959.

March, 1960, was the coldest on record since 1878.

This year, March was much colder than February, which is normally the coldest month of the year.

No doubt you used much more gas to heat your home during March, 1960, than you did a year ago — or for any March you may remember.

To meet such demands, your Gas Company has developed a precisely engineered delivery system of pipelines, compressor stations, and underground storage areas, where gas is stored in summer for use in winter.

All the natural gas you wanted was available this winter, and almost half of it came from underground storage, one of the big reasons why so many people in Ohio can have gas heat for their homes — no matter when the cold weather comes.

Census Takers To Track Down 'Floaters' April 22

Squads of picked crew leaders and census takers will fan out over this area on the night of Apr. 22 in a special 1960 Census drive to count persons who do not have a fixed address, District Supervisor W. B. Marshall said today.

The census takers will visit missions, all-night theaters, and city parks in this special effort to make sure that all residents of the area are counted.

Marshall pointed out that under law, all persons 18 years old and over are required to answer official Census questions.

Warmer Water Sharpens Fish Appetites

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Crappies have been hitting at Hoover Reservoir for a couple of weeks, but it's still "early in the season" for most anglers. It is difficult though to resist the urge to limber up the old casting arm, and as the days warm, more of us will be out.

Water temperature is the thing to watch if you're prone to rush the season a little. Do not expect much bass action until the water temperature has reached the mid-50's. Bullheads and crappies, of course, start earlier, and the bluegills later.

Temperature is not the only thing to watch when fishing. You've got to understand fish a little, too. If you have a good catch when the water is 57 degrees, on a bright, windless day this spring, don't expect to duplicate it next fall when the water returns to 57. Bass are lean and hungry in the spring, and are gobbling up calories wholesale. Next fall fish will be fat and sassy, and will have a more discriminating palate.

The warm rays of spring sunshine rouse fish, especially bass, from the "sleepy" condition they have been in all winter. The part temperature plays in early fishing is to sharpen fish appetites. Expert anglers start fishing in waters that warm earliest—small ponds and streams, or shallow, protected bays of larger lakes. They often fish in 18 inches, or less, of water. Water temperature in these areas is substantially higher, and the fish soon find it.

You will sometimes locate bass in schools at this time, and it has not been explained to my complete satisfaction why this is so. Bass cannot be called "school fish," as are crappies, perch and blue gills. But when you find them cruising the shallows, look out—a rare treat is in store.

Mid-Day Fishing Best Now

The importance of water temperature in early fishing is brought out by the fact that fishing is hottest during the middle of the day. Once the season gets along, you can fish anytime. Early morning and at dusk are favorite times for many anglers, but right now high noon is best. Also, a cloudy, overcast day is fine later on, but for the next two or three weeks you can catch more on a sunny day.

If you're going to bring home the first stringer of bass in your neighborhood, you will have to work your lures slowly, or perhaps use live bait. Artificial night crawlers do a magnificent job of imitating the real thing. Whatever you use, however, must be worked at a snail's pace to entice bass to hit.

Early fishing is similar to fishing at other seasons in that it takes know-how plus some luck thrown in. The rewards of the season-jumpers are great, for after a long, hard winter they catch the first fish of the year.

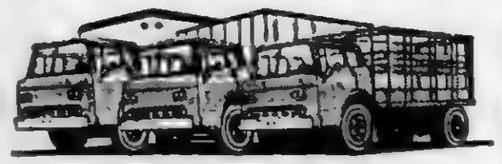
State Fair Will Honor Exhibitors

A move is underway to honor all persons who exhibited livestock at the Ohio State Fair for 25 years or more. Those selected will be honored at a special breakfast during the 1960 State Fair where they will be given gold medallions in honor of their contribution.

State Fair Manager Rowland Bishop said, "we have formed a Quarter Century Club for livestock exhibitors because we think it's time somebody did something to honor the people who have made the Ohio State Fair the world's number one livestock show. It's our way of saying thank you."



Breed associations are being contacted for the names of members who have shown livestock for a quarter century or more at the State Fair. Anyone not affiliated with a breed association but qualified for this honor, should contact E. J. Keirns, assistant Fair manager in charge of livestock at the Ohio State Fairgrounds in Columbus.

The dates for the 1960 Ohio State Fair are Aug. 26 through Sept. 2.

Parents, take a tip from the Safety Council of the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce, and keep all medicines, insecticides, and any possibly harmful substance out of the reach of children. By making your poisons child-proof you'll make your children poison-proof.

Big Canine 'League of Nations' Will Draw Crowd Next Sunday

Taking the family to a superduper dog show at Columbus Veterans Memorial, Sunday, Apr. 24, will be leisure time well spent, the Central Ohio Kennel Club promises.

It's their 17th annual All-Breed Dog Show and Obedience Trial. Every year a major part of the proceeds is directed to a charity. This year the Franklin County April Crusade for Cancer will benefit.

A veritable "Canine League of Nations" will be at their Sunday best, said Mrs. Mary Selleck, publicity director. CITY CHARTER REVISION NE

Chances are that unless a concerted effort is made to the counterwise, all the money, effort and time spent toward revising the city charter will go down the drain.

We think this would be a serious and costly mistake.

Kept from the ballot last year because some feared the effect that it might wield at a general election upon candidates seeking public office, the impetus for a revision of the charter appears to be gradually grinding to a halt.

The need for a revised charter is clear. The present charter is long, long out of date.

Months of stymied legislation coupled with political bickering pointed out the need for a better method of filling vacated council seats.

The dynamic growth of Columbus over the past 10 years, in itself, pinpoints the need for a modern streamlined form of government.

BIBLE COMMENT:

Jesus Drew Young Men Around Him

When we speak of "The Twelve" it is always of the inner circle of disciples. Jesus gathered them to Himself and gave them the commission that was to transform them from fishermen and others of humble life into religious leaders and founders—among the most notable men of all time.

We call them "The Twelve" even though one of them, Judas, turned out to be a traitor, and others lapsed into comparative obscurity. But all the 11 faithful were true followers of their Master.

One aspect of the apostles not commonly known is that like Jesus, they were young men.

John the Baptist, also was a young man, though, for some reason, many think of him as a sort of patriarch.

One thing is certain, the early Christian movement was a youth movement. It was earnest and impassioned young men who rallied to Jesus.

What motivated them? The record does not make it clear. They were evidently drawn by the Master's personality and teaching; but it seems obvious that they anticipated His setting up an earthly-of this world.

That these youthful men, through Jesus, became the greatest founders of all time is the miracle of history.

Census Takers To Track Down 'Floaters' April 22

Squads of picked crew leaders and census takers will fan out over this area on the night of Apr. 22 in a special 1960 Census drive to count persons who do not have a fixed address, District Supervisor W. B. Marshall said today.

The census takers will visit missions, all-night theaters, and city parks in this special effort to make sure that all residents of the area are counted.

Marshall pointed out that under law, all persons 18 years old and over are required to answer official Census questions.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Crappies have been hitting at Hoover Reservoir for a couple of weeks, but it's still "early in the season" for most anglers. It is difficult though to resist the urge to limber up the old casting arm, and as the days warm, more of us will be out.

Water temperature is the thing to watch if you're prone to rush the season a little. Do not expect much bass action until the water temperature has reached the mid-50's. Bullheads and crappies, of course, start earlier, and the bluegills later.

Temperature is not the only thing to watch when fishing. You've got to understand fish a little, too. If you have a good catch when the water is 57 degrees, on a bright, windless day this spring, don't expect to duplicate it next fall when the water returns to 57. Bass are lean and hungry in the spring, and are gobbling up calories wholesale. Next fall fish will be fat and sassy, and will have a more discriminating palate.

The warm rays of spring sunshine rouse fish, especially bass, from the "sleepy" condition they have been in all winter. The part temperature plays in early fishing is to sharpen fish appetites. Expert anglers start fishing in waters that warm earliest—small ponds and streams, or shallow, protected bays of larger lakes. They often fish in 18 inches, or less, of water. Water temperature in these areas is substantially higher, and the fish soon find it.

You will sometimes locate bass in schools at this time, and it has not been explained to my complete satisfaction why this is so. Bass cannot be called "school fish," as are crappies, perch and blue gills. But when you find them cruising the shallows, look out—a rare treat is in store.

Mid-Day Fishing Best Now

The importance of water temperature in early fishing is brought out by the fact that fishing is hottest during the middle of the day. Once the season gets along, you can fish anytime. Early morning and at dusk are favorite times for many anglers, but right now high noon is best. Also, a cloudy, overcast day is fine later on, but for the next two or three weeks you can catch more on a sunny day.

If you're going to bring home the first stringer of bass in your neighborhood, you will have to work your lures slowly, or perhaps use live bait. Artificial night crawlers do a magnificent job of imitating the real thing. Whatever you use, however, must be worked at a snail's pace to entice bass to hit.

Early fishing is similar to fishing at other seasons in that it takes know-how plus some luck thrown in. The rewards of the season-jumpers are great, for after a long, hard winter they catch the first fish of the year.

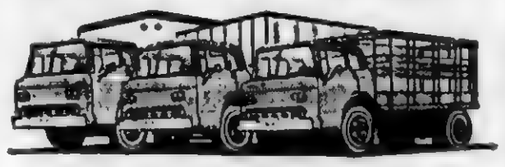
State Fair Will Honor Exhibitors

A move is underway to honor all persons who exhibited livestock at the Ohio State Fair for 25 years or more. Those selected will be honored at a special breakfast during the 1960 State Fair where they will be given gold medallions in honor of their contribution.

State Fair Manager Rowland Bishop said, "we have formed a Quarter Century Club for livestock exhibitors because we think it's time somebody did something to honor the people who have made the Ohio State Fair the world's number one livestock show. It's our way of saying thank you."



Breed associations are being contacted for the names of members who have shown livestock for a quarter century or more at the State Fair. Anyone not affiliated with a breed association but qualified for this honor, should contact E. J. Keirns, assistant Fair manager in charge of livestock at the Ohio State Fairgrounds in Columbus.

The dates for the 1960 Ohio State Fair are Aug. 26 through Sept. 2.

Parents, take a tip from the Safety Council of the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce, and keep all medicines, insecticides, and any possibly harmful substance out of the reach of children. By making your poisons child-proof you'll make your children poison-proof.

John the Baptist, also was a young man, though, for some reason, many think of him as a sort of patriarch.

One thing is certain, the early Christian movement was a youth movement. It was earnest and impassioned young men who rallied to Jesus.

What motivated them? The record does not make it clear. They were evidently drawn by the Master's personality and teaching; but it seems obvious that they anticipated His setting up an earthly kingdom in which they were to have a special part.

How much their zeal was of youthful patriotism against Roman dominance and how much of it was religious does not appear in the passages of the Bible.

However, the youthful Twelve soon became the leaders of the greatest revolution of all time. Their hope of an earthly kingdom became transformed into the construction of the Kingdom not of this world.

That these youthful men, through Jesus, became the greatest founders of all time is the miracle of history.

Some employers may not understand their responsibilities under the law. As little pay as $4 a week amounts to more than $50 in a quarter. Also, some household employes may have asked their employers not to file the returns because they do not want to have their [illegible]

Park Visitors In Evidence

Ohio's millions of park visitors start to hit the road, for the most part, about the time Easter lilies bloom, according to V. W. Flickinger, chief of the Ohio Division of Parks.

"Interest is already stirring in people to get outdoors, and except for a few roads that are too soft to use, state parks are ready for visitors," he says.

Housekeeping cabins opened April 1, and the sleeping cabins and lodge at Lake Hope State Park, Vinton County, will open May 1. A few picnic tables were left out all winter for hardy visitors, and the rest are being placed now.

109 New TB Cases Found This Season

A total of 109 new cases of tuberculosis were recorded during the first quarter of 1960, according to the Tuberculosis Controller's office. Of these 45 were active, 23 primary active, 10 questionably active, 27 inactive and four non-pulmonary.

During the same period there were 13 TB deaths, compared with seven for the first three months last year.

The new cases of TB recorded in 1960 represent an 11% increase over new cases for the first quarter of 1959.

As of March 31 the tuberculosis case register was carrying 1,546 cases, 249 of them active.

So far this year more than 64% of all active pulmonary cases are in the moderately or far advanced stages.

Of the actives, 214 are from from Columbus, 29 from county localities, two Bexley, three Grandview, and one from Upper Arlington.

Park Visitors In Evidence

Ohio's millions of park visitors start to hit the road, for the most part, about the time Easter lilies bloom, according to V. W. Flickinger, chief of the Ohio Division of Parks.

"Interest is already stirring in people to get outdoors, and except for a few roads that are too soft to use, state parks are ready for visitors," he says.

Housekeeping cabins opened April 1, and the sleeping cabins and lodge at Lake Hope State Park, Vinton County, will open May 1. A few picnic tables were left out all winter for hardy visitors, and the rest are being placed now.

FOR HEALTH'S SAKE— CLEAN-UP!

Thusrday, April 21, 1960 Columbus, Ohio Page 9

Mr. and Mrs. South Sider

You, as a citizen are urged to get behind one of the most important community projects of the year! It's the annual ambitious area-wide campaign to improve our city, to prevent fires, to promote public health and to stop neglect and deterioaration.

You are urged to clean up your home and premises, paint up, fix up, during this important week which is dedicated to making our community attractive and looking its best.

The important thing is to DO something. Don't just read this message and forget it. Plan now to undertake a program of doing a worthwhile activity each day next week. Get behind the project . . . it's an important contribution to public health . . . civic beautification and protection of the valuable things we own.

CLEAN-UP—FIX-UP—PAINT-UP - TIME

- Help Prevent Fires
- Promote Public Health
- Protect Your Property
- Beautify the Whole City
- Improve Your Own Neighborhood
- Protect Your Property Values

- You might say, "What can I do to help this Clean-up Drive in the South Side?" Here are some suggestions:
- Start by cleaning the basement, the attic, garage, sheds and any other place which might contain rubbish causing a fire hazard.
- Clear your yard and lots of all weeds and rubbish. Get it piled up ready to haul away.
- Repair and paint fences and keep your lawns neat and clean.
- In the business section keep windows and sidewalks clean. Clean up rear entrances and keep unsightly rubbish in containers.
- Get a good trash burner and keep clean to eliminate fire hazards.
- Fix up chimneys, vents, check light wiring for possible repairs. These items may cause you trouble and cost money if neglected.
- By taking an active part in this campaign you will be doing your part to improve the health of our citizens and visitors, and aid in making the South Side an attrctive spot for everyone.

Easy To Add Bathrooms In Most Houses

Every bedroom deserves a bathroom, say the home planning experts and this convenient arrangement need not wait for a "dream" house of the future.

In fact, with the latest developments in bathroom and product designs, it probably can be had quite easily in your present home. It's not out of the question even if you live in an old, one-bathroom house.

The trick lies in making full use of all available space. An area under the stairs may be perfect for an extra powder room on the first floor. A roomy, old-fashioned closet upstairs might yield the necessary footage for an extra lavatory, powder room or complete bathroom. A back hall off the kitchen could house a "mud room" for washing up after work or play in the yard. And, lavatory-dressing tables can be installed right in the bedrooms.

Space Utilization

Don't forget your present bathroom, either. Even if it measures as little as 9x12 feet, you can transform the area into a one-and-a-half bathroom arrangement or two complete bathrooms.

If your bathroom is still smaller, you may increase its usefulness by adding a fixture or two. The installation of twin lavatories or the small home dental lavatory can go a long way to solving morning and evening bottlenecks in this all-important room. And, by building partitions, you can insure complete privacy, as well as multiple use of all your bathroom fixtures.

Landscaping Is 'Showcase' Of The Home

What do neighbors think of the appearance of your home property? Is it pleasing from the street? Do people, in passing, think "I'd like to live there?"

Often the answer to this question is to be found in character of the landscaping, which in effect provides the "showcase" of the home. Sometimes the planting of a single tree or a few shrubs can change the whole aspect. A flowering tree or shrubs, well placed, or evergreens that keep their green all year add "life" to the property.

Test the "curbside" rating of your home by standing on the sidewalk and asking yourself the following questions as suggested by the American Nursery Association of Nurserymen:

1. Is the home blended naturally into the landscape, presenting a pleasing aspect from the curb, both winter and summer?
2. Is the foundation of the home bare, or well-planted?
3. Are the foundation plantings overgrown and scrawny, obscuring windows? Do they need pruning, or would it be better to replant entirely with more tasteful plants?
4. Are there color and variety from the use of shrubs or trees with different foliage and flower textures and forms?
5. Does the property as seen from the curb "hail" the various seasons of the year?

If the answers to the abvoe questions are in the negative, then it is time to call in your nurseryman for suggestions.

In come residential areas a walk along the street in the springtime is a delight to the eye with shrubs of various species aglow with different or even the same flowers on separate properties.

SAFETY BUILT IN

A safety device in an electric dishwasher automatically shuts off the flow of water and the mechanical operation if the dishwasher is opened.

This feature also allows the housewife to add such things as a forgotten plate or after-dinner coffee cups.

HEAT COLD VARNISH

Varnish flows more smoothly when warmed. If work is being done out-of-doors or in unheated rooms, place can of varnish in pan of hot water. Use hot plate to keep it warm, or replace hot water.

New Roofing Brings Color Into Remodeling Project

Workman applies colorful new roof of asphalt shingles directly over old roofing material during remodeling of older house. This process saves time and results in low application cost. Mess of removing old material is avoided, and house and contents are protected in case of bad weather during reroofing. Reroofing with asphalt shingles enables a home owner to choose from a wide variety of colors. A roof in one of the many colors available adds distinction to a house and helps correct design defects. A new roof is a sound home improvement because it increases the value of the property and gives maximum weather protection.

TIPS On Painting

You'll be better off keeping your paint brush shallow in the pail — a third of the bristle length is deep enough. Dipping too deeply fills the brush too full and makes it almost impossible to clean thoroughly. Excess paint can best be removed by gently tapping the brush against the inside of the can, rather than "wiping" it against the rim.

There are several ways for you to obtain that so-called "natural" finish on wood surfaces. When working with an unfinished wood and you wish to show the grain, first apply a coat or two of varnish, then wax. If you find it necessary to thin any varnish or paint, be certain to do so in accordance with the direction on the label.

* * *

If your painting job involves hiding cracks, rough or patched plaster, or dry wall seams, you might try using a texture paint. It's thicker than regular paint —you brush it on and then stipple with a brush or sponge. Very effective.

* * *

When you plan to paint exterior wood above masonry, ask your paint dealer for a non-chalking paint in order that the paint will not wash down on the masonry.

New latex paints, available in a wide variety of colors, are ideal for use on brick, stone, masonry and concrete as they are highly resistant to alkali. In addition, latex paints dry in less than one hour and brushes, rollers and other tools can be cleaned easily with soap and water, as can any spills and splatters.

Because of the current high cost of furniture, many folks enamel old pieces from the attic or "finds" from second hand shops. This is not a complicated job; sand the surface clean and apply a gleaming coat of enamel.

Paint rollers are exceedingly popular because they allow the amateur painter to work more quickly. Available in various sizes and different sleeve materials, you'll find one to suit every purpose.

You'll find spray paints available in aerosol spray cans for small jobs, or you can buy spray equipment, or rent the professional spray equipment for larger jobs. You can also use the attachment on your vacuum cleaner if you choose. Multi-colored paints require spraying.

Paint your kitchen a gay color — a bright cheerful color scheme makes this room, where the housewife spends so many hours each day, more pleasant. Color schemes with yellow predominating are the most popular for kitchens, but any bright colors are good.

Color is a stimulant to the appetite and conversation. Your dining room will be much more pleasant painted in gay colors. If the dining room connects with the living room, its color scheme should correlate.

Magic of remodeling changed kitchen in 150-year-old house (below) to elegant, efficient beauty above. New appliances such as the electric dishwasher not only help beautify, but cut kitchen time and labor in half.

Ask any housewife who's lived in an older home which room she'd remodel first and the answer usually will be: the kitchen!

An old-fashioned, dimly-lit kitchen with an ancient sink and few, if any, work-saving appliances drains her energy and occupies too much of her time with disagreeable chores.

A modern kitchen, on the other hand, complete with such labor saving appliances as an electric dishwasher, new refrigerator-freezer, counter-top electric range, and electric wall oven, inspires a housewife to cook better meals and gives her more free time and energy to spend with her family.

The electric dishwasher alone frees her from hours of drudgery she'd have to spend in the kitchen washing the dishes by hand. Other innovations, such as efficient range-hood exhaust fan help make her more efficient and cheerful.

Everyone Loves Flowers On Property In The Springtime

Flowers on the property during the springtime are demanded by practically every home owner, says the American Association of Nurserymen. The problem is not one of having flowers, as almost every property owner has some spring flowers, but rather: "What flowers will best serve the needs of the home owner?"

Some flowering shrubs almost could be called "prestige plants." Into this category fall azaleas, rhododendrons, camellias, roses, as well as a number of others. The star magnolia, or magnolia stellata, might be included, as well as some of the viburnums, for example, as well as many others.

Then there are the shrubs which are more common, yet have considerable color and beauty like forsythia, abelia, philladelphus, weigela and similar plants. These always will be desirable.

Or perhaps what you really need is a flowering tree to add height to the property, or to help frame the house with bloom. Spring flowering plants will look well anywhere after a drab winter season but they will be even more striking if properly placed on the property. Here your nurseryman will come in handy. Discuss with him the idea of having lovely spring flowers and ask for his suggestions. One thing you will want is a succession of bloom so you will have something in flower at all times. Your nurseryman can advise on this, too.

Nothing is quite so lovely in the springtime as a home property or a neighborhood blooming with colorful shrubs and trees. It adds "joy of living," seems to shout out the bursting of nature into a new life bountiful with all that is beautiful. Whole neighborhoods have planted spring flowering trees and shrubs to make the various individual properties especially resplendent.

This is a happy time of the year. The flowering shrubs and trees seem to join in the spirit of spring, bursting out all over with leaf and flower buds of various shades, largely of tender green, vibrant pink, vigorous red and pure white.

Remember that a repainting job does not begin with the application of the paint. It starts with the proper preparation of the surfaces to be painted. The surfaces should be sound, clean, smooth, and—if they are metal—free from rust. A little time invested in careful preparation results in a more attractive and longer lasting paint job.

Early Care Of Lawn Vital To Obtain Best Results

Just as a carpet adds a finishing touch to a well-furnished room, so a healthy lawn adds a thing of beauty to your outdoor setting. Here are some tips from lawn experts to help you start your lawn off on the right foot this season:

A spring clean-up should be number one on your list of chores, including a thorough raking to remove dead grass, leaves and other debris.

Rolling is another essential at this time of year. If your lawn seems rough or bumpy as you walk over it, there could be several reasons for this condition.

The winter "heaving" of the soil may have raised some of the individual grass plants. This can be solved by using a roller just heavy enough to press the loose grass back into the soil.

Or the bumps could be caused by night crawlers (those large earth worms that are great for fishing bait, but not so desirable for a smooth lawn). Correct this condition by applying a heavy rate of chlordane. This chemical kills off the night crawlers and also wipes out grubs of Japanese beetles and other sub-surface soil insects. Roll the lawn to level out the mounds after applying the chlordane.

It's good to apply a commercial fertilizer in the spring, too, being sure to get uniform coverage by avoiding skips or overlapping.

When these steps are finished you can do any re-seeding that is necessary. Before applying the seed loosen the top ¼ inch of soil lightly with a rake. Rake lightly again after the seeding. Then roll very lightly.

Weed control also should be included in your spring lawn care program. The best material discovered to kill broad-leaved weeds without damaging the grass is 2-4-D. One solution, the Antrol Hose-Spray Weed and Brush Killer, combines this ingredient with 2,4,5,-T—a powerful chemical lethal to poison ivy and other woody plants — and a handy hose-spray attachment.

To combat crabgrass before it riddles your lawn, use a chlordane treatment early in the season before the seeds sprout.

Garden Growers Should Know Insect Family

Every gardener should not only know how to rid his plants of insects, but he should have a working knowledge of what they look like and how they feed.

We have listed a few of these insects and their relationship to your garden.

Aphids (Plant Lice)

They have soft bodied, greenish, pinkish or reddish in color —not over ⅛" in length. They reduce plant vigor, curl or distort leaves, harden buds, cause malformation of flowers by feeding on plant juices.

Striped Cucumber Beetles

These beetles eat holes in blossom petals and discolor blossoms. They are pale yellow with three stripes on wing covers. They attack roses, asters and vegetables.

Wireworms

The wireworm is a slender larvae with round, smooth and shiny bodies. They are pale yellow to brown in color, and feed on roots of flowers and burrow into bulbs and tubers. In adult stage they develop into ½" long click beetles.

Columbus Fire Chief Gives Hints On Fire Prevention

"Clean-Up is not just a slogan, it's a vital way to prevent fire from threatening your home and loved ones," Chief Walter Strickfaden of the Columbus Fire Department said today in conjunction with the beginning of the annual Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up Campaign.

He urges all residents to check that their homes meet these standards:

Furnac and heating system checked spring and fall.

Determine if wiring system meets today's electrical demands (fuses blowing out often, flickering lights, appliances operating slowly are warning signals that wiring is out of date).

Old clothes and furniture and newspapers are removed from attic, basement and garage.

Oily rags and paint-stained cloths are disposed of or kept in closed metal containers. Oily mops should be hung up so air can circulate around them.

No leaves or grass cuttings are near building foundations.

Periodic home fire drills are held with instructions on what to do should fire start from an uncontrollable cause.

"The one sure way to successfully fight a fire is before it starts — so take advantage of the current campaign and Clean Up now," Chief Strickfaden advised.

APPLICATION OF CHALKING

Remove old and dry chalking before applying a new supply. Make sure the surface to be covered is dry. In order for the caulking to adhere, see that all dirt and dust are eliminated.

USE SPECIAL VARNISH

People "in the know" use spar varnish for their outdoor furnishings, such as wicker or rattan chairs on porch or terrace This is an exceedingly durable varnish, designed by chemists of the paint, varnish and lacquer industry for the weather-beaten masts of ships. If it is feasible in your case, use a spray gun for this job. Be careful that the finishing material does not settle in blobs at the wicker intersections.

You can make a small home or apartment appear larger if you paint any adjoining rooms in the same related color. This continuous color flow provides an illusion of spaciousness

STOP DRYWALL STAIN

Discoloration of drywalls may be prevented by setting nails deep into the surface and covering with drywall joint filled or spackle.

Matches-Smoking Is Leading Cause Of Fires In U.S.

Care can help prevent fires, the National Board of Fire Underwriters reminds. Statistics show that 25.2 percent of all fires are caused by matches-smoking and another 20.7 percent by misuse of electrical equipment.

And three-fourths of all fires are caused by human carelessness or forgetfulness.

The National Board points out that this is a good time to make a date with your service man for a furnace check. It is a good time to have an electrician repair faulty switches and replace worn appliance cords.

Make this a part of your Clean-Up Week activities.

Snack Bars Reduce Work In Serving Family Meals

The greatest thing that's happened to kitchens since all the servants took up welding is the snack bar.

This boon to the servantless home is now considered just as important in kitchen remodeling as additional storage space, ceramic tile floor and walls and new appliances. This holds true even when a dining room is available.

The ideal location for the snack bar is alongside the food serving center. Second choice is the range center. Although food can be delivered promptly, this location is undesirable if the range is in use during the meal. The debris usually littering both mix and sink centers disqualify these locations.

Size of the snack bar is dictated by space limitation. Every effort should be made, however, to accommodate two persons. Thus when a lull such as between breakfast for the breadwinner and departure of the family scholars there will be a place for the harassed homemaker to down a cup and sneak in an argument for increasing her household allowance.

The main purpose of the snack bar is to reduce work in preparing and serving meals by taking the strain off the dining room and bringing the diner to the food. To enhance this purpose the snack bar should be surfaced with a material like ceramic tile that wipes clean with one stroke of a damp cloth.

Plan To Cut Family Room Noise Level

Planning a recreation room? Don't forget about the noise problem.

This room is often called the rumpus room — an apt name, because if much use is made of the room it will probably be one of the noisiest areas in the home. This is the place for ping pong, games, record sessions, partying, etc. In addition, most recreation rooms will contain an abundance of hard surfaces off of which sound will bounce like light off a mirror.

A high decibel count (noise level) is therefore almost inevitable at times, and the need for effective noise control becomes important.

The first thing a bear in mind is to locate the room as far away as possible from those areas in the home where quiet is most desirable—bedrooms, dens, living rooms. In most cases a recreation room will find its place in the basement. For noise control purposes, this is probably the best location.

Weatherstrip Door

But whether the room is located in the basement or elsewhere, it would be a good idea to weatherstrip its door. If the door is of a thin panel construction, you might also cover one side with a sheet of insulating board and cover the board with plywood or hardboard to serve as a wearing surface.

Both of these precautions will, at little expense, lessen sound transmission between the recreation room and the rest of the house. But how about protecting the people in the recreation room from a noise build-up?

The best—and an economical—way to do this is to finish off the room with acoustical tiles. These tiles are soft, porous materials which soak up noise much as a sponge soaks up water—as much as 85% of the noise hitting them. Available in a number of different surface designs, accoustical tiles will also strikingly enhance the appearance of the room.

TAKE OUT WARP

Hold a heat lamp close to a wraped board or cabinet door until it straightens. Immediately apply sealer to edges and sides to prevent entry of moisture.

OUTDOOR FURNITURE PAINT

Paint outdoor furniture (wood and metal) with an exterior enamel. Soft indoor paints chalk off onto clothing.

Cleaning A Lot Can Provide Extra Play Space

Is your neighborhood short on play space?

The National Board of Fire Underwriters, in offering suggestions for Spring Clean-Up Week, reminds that cleaning up vacant lots will provide more play space for children, and eliminate the fire hazard that goes hand-in-hand with empty lot rubble.

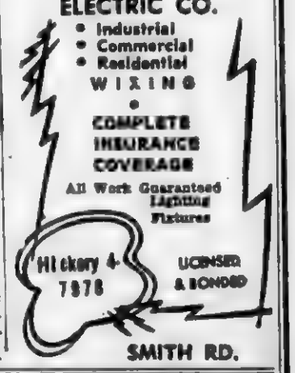
A few good men with rakes in a single Saturday morning can convert an empty lot into a place for softball batting practice.

Plan--Then Contact Your Local Painter

Expecting the painters? A work to the wise: Plan your redecorating schedule ahead of time and you will speed the job and maintain household order while the redecorating is in process.

Today's modern paints are quick-drying and odorless, and usually cover in one coat. Especially by a professional, they can be applied perfectly without unnecessary trouble or mess or danger to your bric-a-brac and room furnishings. Professional painters and decorators know how to protect your fine things with drop cloths and slight furniture shifting.

You can help by asking in advance how the painters want the furniture set up and store the bric-a-brac. Then you can have the rooms all ready for them. When the painters arrive, they can go right to work without unnecessary delay. When the painting is completed, you can easily arrange the furniture again.



Your clothes will have to be cleared out of the closets to be painted, of course, but this is a minor "moving" and you'll have them back hanging in the closet again in an hour or so, for the paint will dry quickly without odor.

If you want, you can remove light-switch plates and hardware from doors and cabinets. This is unnecessary, however, for the painters can mask these items. On the other hand, it will be necessary to take down the drapes and venetian blinds. If you're sending them out for cleaning, have them delivered after the painting is finished.

Before the actual painting is begun, make sure you and the contractor have agreed upon the amount of work to be done, how it is to be done, the type of paint to be used and how much the job will cost. Specify the use of quality paint. Remember the chief cost factor is labor—not the paint. Quality paint may cost a few cents more, but it is your assurance of a good-looking, long-lasting coating.

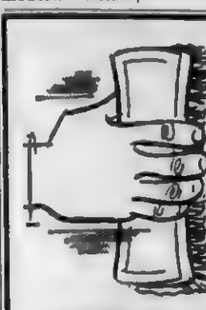
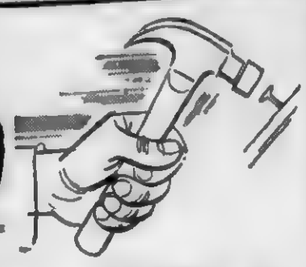
New Dishwashers Do Pots, Pans

Elbow grease and scouring pads are seldom used in today's modern kitchen.



One big reason for this is the new cleaning power being built into today's electric dishwasher — washing power that cleans pots and pans as well as it does dishes, glassware, and utensils.

Modern electric dishwashers are designed to remove even grease film and cooked-on foods from pots and pans.



This is accomplished by powerful torrents of water hotter than hands can stand, plus washings in improved detergents.

PEBS Sponsor Luncheon; Carolyn Stoner Eyes Prom

PEBS, Chapter 2, will meet Tuesday, Apr. 26, for a noon dessert luncheon in the home of Mrs. Lorraine Itskin, 1713 S. 3rd-st. Mrs. William Paulus will assist the hostess.

The group attended the South High School PTA meeting last evening, and presented money to the school, which was to be used to purchase a glass to cover the schedules in the South High office.

A young lass we wrote about in March, Carolyn Stoner, who was in University Hospital, and so in need of "morale-lifting" is once again at the hospital, room 951, this time. She is to undergo surgery, and is in hopes of being well enough to attend the prom at her high school. She has heart damage, and has had to lead an extremely quiet life. Her hospitalization has worked hardships on her widowed mother, so cheery cards would help to make two gallant ladies happier.

Chapter 2, Past Executive Board of South, will join with Chapter 1 for a May picnic.

Belated anniversary congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Westenhaver, who attained their 50th year of wedded life Apr. 12. A quiet celebration was held Apr. 10, to which close friends and relatives were invited. The Westenhavers had a pharmacy at Kossuth and High-st and were residents of Gilbert-av and Kossuth-st before moving to their present address at 65 N. Edgeville. The couple are parents of two children, Viola and Paul.

Another belated anniversary, although not quite in the 50-year class, was the Apr. 11 date of Wallace and Madeline Oakley, 333 Frebis-av

Have Open House

Siebert-st School PTA is having an innovation in Open Houses. Parents of the first three grades (plus kindergarten) met last night with the teachers. Parents of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades will meet next Wednesday, Apr. 27, with the teachers of that age group.

The final meeting of the Barrett PTA will be held tonight at 7:30 p.m. The program chairman has worked out a fine program, and word comes to us it will have some novelties in it. Theme of the meeting is "High Time to Look Ahead Through the Eyes of the Community." Four area school principals will combine forces on a panel. The panelists will be Delbert Swain, South; Merle Caskey, Southwood; Eugene Kirby, Siebert and Stewart Schools; and Howard Williams, Reeb. Also participating in the program will be these community leaders, Dr. Harry Schadler, Fred Erfurt, Jack Alton and William Fornof. Following the election of officers, Mrs. Sheldon Cox will conduct the installation.

Scouts Ready

The Golden Jubilee of the Boy Scouts of America should result in a super-duper Scout-O-Rama this year, Saturday, Apr. 23, and Sunday, Apr. 24.

A 50 cent ticket will admit one adult or two children, at the Buckeye Building at the Ohio State Fairgrounds. The Saturday session begins at 1, lasts until 9 p.m. The Sunday session is from 1:30 to 6 p.m.

Birthday cakes might seem a bit "too much" this week for these youngsters, since their "big day" follows Easter's traditional baskets so closely, but moms will be baking them nevertheless, we imagine!

The birthdays belong to Roberta Kessler, Apr. 24; Claudia Jordan, Apr. 24; Debra Renner, Apr. 22; Sandra Holley, Apr. 21; Jerry O'Connor, Apr. 26; Mary Newkirk, Apr. 21; Darrell Lambert, Apr. 23; Linda Cook, Apr. 24; Linda Camp, Apr. 25; Mike Campbell, Apr. 27; and belatedly, Linda Topia, Apr. 3.

Birthdays Ahead

These folks will have cause for celebration this week, so we hope their "day" is a happy one. Beth Edwards has a birthday today, Apr. 21; and a fellow 1959 South grad, Ruth Walston just has to wait until tomorrow, Apr. 22. Josephine Farnsworth celebrates a birthday Apr. 23, then on Apr. 26, she and hubby Leonard, will celebrate a wedding anniversary. Our practical nurse friend, Dorothy Burkland, must wait until Apr. 24 for her ice cream and cake day. Martha Montoney, active in Job's Daughters, Mother's Club, Bethel 6, is another April birthdavite.

Thanks to the speed of airplanes, Jean Thompson and Gert Lincoln should have an action-packed one and a half days in the nation's largest city this week.

They took off yesterday for New York and expected to see "Fiorella" and "Once Upon A Mattress." The story of Fiorella La Guardia features Pat Wilson, a former local TV celebrity. Today the footloose Columbusites expect to attend Radio City Music Hall, a "must" for them every time they take off on one of their quick dashes to see the latest plays. (When Jean told us they invariably bring back enough cheese-bread to last until their next flying trip, we accused her of NOT being a lover of the thespian arts, but a gal who gets hungry often!)

Sponsors Dance

The St. Mary's Dad's Club will sponsor a post-Lenten dance this Saturday, Apr. 23, from 9 p.m. to midnight at the school's gym, 700 S. Third-st. The Rhythm Jesters will play for the round and square dancing. The chairmen of the dance are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tanner.

Baked ham, candied sweet potatoes, cole slaw, pineapple and coffee will be the menu that Hospital Chairman Lucy Brown and her committee have chosen for Wednesday, Apr. 27. The hospital fund will benefit from the profits of the dinner. Cost of the meal is $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children. The Hospital Committee is one of the many groups that are part of Chapter 206, Women of the Moose, 36 W. Sycamore-st.

First Party

Roland Carter Windmiller III will be a little too young to realize what's going on, but a family dinner will mark his first birthday, Wednesday, Apr. 27, at his home, 163 E. Gates-st. Present to see the one candle on his cake will be his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Windmiller, paternal grandmother, Mary Windmiller and aunt Suzanne Windmiller, and maternal grandparents, Edward and Ivy O'Day, with his aunt Debby O'Day (and we imagine, his "adopted" grandma, Essie Butler, will be keenly interested in the important event also).

Georgia Gay, well-known dance instructor at 776 Whittier-st, is now at home after a stay in the hospital.

President Richard Mincer of the South High Alumni has asked this scribbler to help with a project, so we'll gladly oblige. It is customary to honor the 50-year class of the school at the annual reunion, by presenting members to the rest of the graduates. Mr. Mincer has asked that these graduates of 1910 contact him at CL. 8-1737, or the secretary, Julia Spurgeon, at CL. 8-9117. (Mrs. Spurgeon works during the day, so evening might be a better time to call.) Ye Gadabout will add her phone, also, if it will help to locate as many folks as possible. It's HI. 4-1051.

Hold Meeting

Pack 31, South Methodist Church, held its monthly meeting at the church, Morrill-av at S. Sixth-st, Tuesday, Apr. 26 at 7:30 p.m.

The Trudeau Guild of Benjamin Franklin Hospital will hold its annual spring card party, Tuesday, Apr. 28 at 8 p.m., in the Youth Center of the Ohio State Fairgrounds.

The occupational therapy department of the hospital will set up a display of patients' arts and crafts, including such items as oil paintings, ceramics, leathercraft, rugs and jewelry.

South Side Guild 12 is one of the participating Guilds in the project. Lillian Ryan, 816 S. 17th-st, is chairman of Guild 12. Tickets may be purchased at the door, or reservations made by calling Mrs. Nichols, 2745 River Park-dr.

Will Meet

The Fidelis Class of Southwood Church of Christ will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alton, 1377 S. Roosevelt-av, on Saturday, Apr. 23 at 6:30 p.m. for a potluck meeting. Hostesses will be Margaret and Ethel Spiker. The Mother's Club of the church will meet Tuesday, Apr. 26 at 7:30 p.m.

The Lenox clan visited Priscilla Dicke at Cincinnati Bible Seminary, stopping at Glendower House on the way down, not so long ago. This past Sunday found the nomads in Chillicothe, attending a family dinner at the home of Dale and Evelyn Clark.

We're sure that contributors to the Orient Easter project of Margie Speakmon will want a last report about it, so we'll give it at this time. One hundred and eleven cottage cheese the county.

GAL 3 GADABOUT ... rw cartons were filled to overflowing capacity and covered with saran wrap. Mrs. Speakmon made rabbit and "nest" cookies to top off each carton, and it made a colorful picture for the "Irishman's" camera lens.

Donors were Mrs. Elizabeth Colvin, Mrs. Robert Guiffre; Scout Troop 289, leader Mrs. Harry Brady; Mrs. Sylvia Stiebritz; Mrs. Lucille Capehart; Mrs. Fred Lashley; Mrs. Ed Borror; Mrs. Hugh O'Neill; Mrs. Donald Ryan; Mrs. Irene Pace; Mrs. Archer and Mrs. Slack.

The cartons were taken down to Orient on Good Friday, so they were received in good time for distribution.

The League of Women Voters will join in the Jane Addams Centennial, honoring the outstanding leader of yesteryear, by participating in the Centennial Dinner to be held at the Youth Center of the Fairgrounds, Thursday, Apr. 21 at 6:30 p.m. Conclusions of the League's Child Welfare study group have pointed up the fact there is a vital need of increased work in the social field, Miss Addams' specialty.

Part of the proceeds of the centennial dinner will be used to help finance a scholarship in dent of CARE, recently from social work.

Diocesan Men Will Assemble Apr. 24 At Bishop Hartley High

More than 800 delegates are expected to attend the Second Annual Convention of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Men, Sunday, Apr. 24, at Bishop Hartley High School, according to Patrick J. Kirwin, 284 Rhoads-av, convention general chairman.

"Registration now being received indicates a record turnout for the workshop-discussion sessions," Kirwin said.

"Workshops will treat various problems and phases of the layman's life in the community and parish," he noted, adding "We will try to have something for everyone attending the sessions. The novice as well as the veteran parish and inter-parish group worker will have discussion sessions to interest him."

Religious retreats, adult education, parish, programs, legislation, the Legion of Decency and decent literature are some of the topics.

Two sessions will be devoted to leadership training, one for the beginner and one for those who have completed the initial course.

Four workshops will be devoted to the Holy Name Society officers in each parish, the president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer.

The following area men have been named chairmen for the convention: Thomas M. Hart, 2250 Dover-rd, registration; Charles Wirth, 593 Wilson-av, program, printing; John T. Cantlon, 279 E. N. Broadway, information and hospitality; Dennis C. Finneran, Jr., 174 S. Eureka-av, publicity; Tom Williams, 1746 Bryden-rd, resolutions; John Mackin, 170 E. Weisheimer-rd, exhibits; James Charles, 922 N. Nelson-rd, special guests; Michael McGee, 2470 Middlesex-rd. Mass arrangements, and Dr. Frank Binder, 54 W. Beechwold, post-convention dinner.

FIVE AREA INSTRUCTORS RECEIVE $500 GIFTS

Anonymous Donor Gives Grants To Teachers

Five South area teachers were awarded $500 scholarship grants for their summer subject projects, thanks to an anonymous donor who has been leaving $5000 with the Columbus Board of Education for the past several years.

The board decided to divide the money into ten $500 grants and distribute them to area teachers on the basis of excellence in their performance record and promise for improved children learning opportunities.

The five teachers from the South Side area include:

Marion - Franklin's Roger Chaney, 48 Brevoort-rd. Chaney, an industrial arts instructor, plans to use his grant to prepare a unit on arc welding for use by teachers in industrial and vocational education.

Philip Courtad of Heyl-av School was awarded a grant to survey safety patrol proceedures inthe Columbus area for the purpose of discovering methods of selection, rewards and supervision of safety patrol teams. Courtad lives at 379 Crescent-dr, Hilliard.

A second grade teacher at Windsor Elementary school, Mrs Bessie Lewis, 1048 Oak-st. was also awarded a grant. Mrs. Lewis will use the money to develop a parent education program to aid parents of Windsor Terrace children.

Miss Dorothy Idarmet, 2904 E Livingston-av, an instructor in the English and journalism department at Eastmoor High School, will use her grant for a European tour.

Miss Marmet plans to take pictures and slides at Shakespear's birthplace, Burns Cottage in Scotland, the Lincoln country of Robin Hood, the Passion Play in Oberammergau, Germany and various scenes in Switzerland for use in Eastmoor English department classes.

A Champion Junior High instructor, Mrs. Frances Willis of 47 S. Douglas-st, was awarded a grant for a tour conducted by the National Education for one month which will include such areas as the Great Lakes, New England and the Canadian Maritime Provinces.

Mrs. Willis teaches the seventh grade in history and geography and is confident that such first hand experienced knowledge will be beneficial in improving her teaching techniques. She will also record her visit on slides for use by other teachers.

Kent School Contracts Awarded

Columbus School Board, in an action-packed special meeting called Tuesday to clear up important items on the agenda, approved land purchases for two Southside schools and awarded contracts for Kent Elementary.

Contracts totaled $215,940 for Kent School, to be built between Kent and Gault-st, half a block west of Kelton-av.

General and electric contract for $173,640 went to Krause and Pagura, who will sublet electric work to CTH Electric Co. Plumbing, heating and ventilating contract was awarded to J. A. Guy for $42,300.

In other action on Kent School, the board approved purchase of a two-story single stucco dwelling at 1435 Kent-st, from David R. and Ellen W. Burks.

With this purchase, the board now owns six of the seven parcels of land needed for Kent. The school is expected to be completed in time for September occupancy, and will house nine classrooms and a multi-purpose room.

A portion of the site of the new Parsons School was also acquired by the board in two separate land transactions.

Purchase of one and one-tenths acre from M. Jeannette McDowell and four acres from Christian Babbert and Iva E. Babbert, was approved.

Only one lot remains to be purchased in the tract.

Parsons School, to be built at 3231 Lee Ellen-pl, also in time for September enrollment, will include 12 classrooms and a multi-purpose room. Construction cost is $310,731.

Youth Cited After Auto Hits Officer

A South Side youth, Hugh Paugh, 19, of 1641 Evergreen-av, was charged with driving left of center after his car swerved to pass a motor scooter and hit an unmarked patrol car headed in the 1200 block of Williams-rd, police reported.

Capt. James Hanley, 54, of Westerville, commander of the Patrol Training School, was injured in the mishap and treated at Mercy Hospital for face and leg cuts and possible chest injuries.

Paugh was also treated in Mercy Hospital for back abrasions and a possible knee injury.

FUN AT SCHILLER

'Can-Sir' To Be Topic By Schiller Park Panel

"What about CAN-SIR in our Community" will be the topic to be discussed next Wednesday, May 4 by a panel of experts at Schiller Recreation Center. The Advisory Council of the recreation center invites and urges everyone in the community who is interested in this subject to attend this meeting which is set for 8 p.m.

N. J. Barack, Superintendent of Recreation for the City of Columbus will be the moderator and explain the subject "Can-Sir."

Judge Clayton Rose, of the Domestic Relations Court will speak on the subject "A judge looks at 'Can-Sir' in the home."

Dr. Everett Shimp of Ohio State University will discuss "Can-Sir" in our society.

Harry Feldman, director of the United Community Council, will explain "What the Community Agencies can do for Can-Sir."

At the close of the discussion by the panel, the audience will be given an opportunity to ask questions of the various panel members concerning the subject matter which has been covered during the evening.

Brigadoon To Open Tonight At South High

"Brigadoon", South High School operetta, will be given April 28 and 29, tonight and tomorrow night, in the school auditorium.

Tickets can be bought from a member of the cast or in the book exchange at South. A different cast will perform each night; curtain time is 8:00.

Participating in the program will be members of the vocal department, under the direction of Miss Mary Winchester, vocal teacher; members of a selected orchestra with Randal Near, instrumental teacher conducting; and students interested in dramatics and theater, advised by William Wilt, drama teacher.

The rehearsal schedule has been heavy for these pupils as they are endeavoring to make the production as professional as possible.

The scenery, sets, and musical score are the same ones used by many professional groups for the musical comedy. The songs vary from tender love ballads to gay folk songs and dances. Stella J. Becker, Columbus dancing teacher, is doing the choreography.

Ohio Avenue EUB Marks Youth Week

William H. Garrett, Youth Associate of his denomination, was the weekend guest of Ohio Avenue EUB Church, at the start of Youth Week activities.

A recent delegate to the White House Conference on Youth and Children, he met with the three Youth Groups Saturday, Apr. 23, 1 until 8 p.m. at "Y Park" retreat.

Garrett, who enters Union Theological Seminary in the fall to prepare for the ministry, spoke in both worship services Sunday.

Three Youth Fellowships united for a party Sunday evening, and for the meeting Wednesday, Apr. 27, 7:30 p.m.

Senior High and Older Youth Fellowships will conclude Youth Week activities with a banquet Saturday evening, Apr. 30.

SILVER TEA SUNDAY

Frances Kolb Link of Thurman Avenue Methodist WSCS will hold a silver tea Sunday, May 1, 2 to 4 p.m. at the parsonage, 429 Thurman-av, in support of the South Side Settlement Camp.

Fire Strikes Warehouse

A one-story, concrete-block building at 533 Wager-st, used as a warehouse by the Hoffman Container Co. was destroyed by fire Saturday, Apr. 23.

The building, stacked to the roof with thousands of plastic-lined, cardboard drums, hampered firemen. The south wall had to be pulled down before the flames could be reached.

Mrs. Richards' Galloway Home Climate of Doll House Culture

From all over the world they come—big ones, small ones, short ones, tall ones.

From India, China, the Philippines and Washington State, they come—and they all gather to settle down in odd home sites—weather-beaten trunks and travel-weary cartons—these dolls of Mrs. Robert Richards.

For when it comes to dolls of almost every shade, size and sampling, no one is in a better position for doll-talk than this vibrant lady who lives at 3625 W. Broad-st, Galloway.

Even a tint of Christmas mystery and magic has been responsible for supplying one of Mrs. Richards' possessions, a Napoleon-type doll, representing a Sicilian Army officer. "I'll have to admit," she reponded, "that it appeared to be an ironic twist of circumstances that brought the little fellow to my door."

The strange occurrence that Mrs. Richards referred to took place during World War II. "My husband, Bob, was stationed overseas. Just before the Christmas holidays, he put my Napoleon in the mail.

Christmas Eve, I received a telephone call from a friend—a package bearing my name and address had fallen from an Army truck in front of her home, she told me.

Mrs. Richards said that the friend had turned the parcel over to the post office. "I called the post office and my present was sent right out."

Her other dolls were acquired by more conventional means. "I bought most of them," Mrs. Richards said. She has been in every country for which she has dolls except the Philippines.

"I have always tried to pick dolls representative of the countries as they were at the time I was there," she explained.

She started collecting dolls while still in college, and "the end is not yet in sight."

From India, she has a snake charmer and a Buddhist monk. Each has been intricately and painstakingly made to approach as near as possible to real figures.

A doll from South Africa was bought by her husband while on a safari. Another tiny figure, that of a Polish girl, was made by a refugee. Some of her Chinese dolls were acquired before the Communists occupied the country. However, she pointed out, that a doll purchased in Chinatown in Chicago is constructed with a few subtle differences.

"The eyes are wider and the figures are not so plump as the ones made in China."

Mayor Says Charter Study Not In Vain

By Bill Rush

Time and money spent formulating a revised city charter won't go down the drain.

That was the word Monday from Mayor W. Ralston Westlake who stated that "amendments rather than a new charter" is what Columbus needs.

Terming the present city charter a "grand instrument certainly in need of revision," the mayor said he did not know of a single councilman in favor of accepting the proposed revised charter in its entirety.

The proposed revisions were drafted by a committee appointed last year by council. Consultants were also hired for several thousand dollars to make recommendations of any desirable changes.

A member of council at the time the committee was appointed, Westlake said "it wasn't the feeling at the time that a new charter was needed. The present charter has some weaknesses, but some changes could make it more workable today."

"A lot of us felt the charter revision committee went a long way in making recommendations for an entirely new charter. That wasn't what was intended at all. And it's probably why it isn't being accepted today."

The mayor emphasized that he is definitely in favor of some amendments and pointed out that he had urged council to place one change on the ballot this May.

That amendment dealt with filling vacated council seats and would give the mayor authority to cast the deciding vote if solons are deadlocked. Council was stymied in two recent instances when appointments made by former Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner were tossed aside by the Ohio Supreme Court.

Several other definite charter reforms are gaining support, including district representation which was studied at length by the charter revision committee last year.

Westlake said whether or not a new charter revision committee would be appointed was strictly a matter for council to decide.

Personally, he did not think it necessary and suggested that the proposed revisions be used as a master plan to chart changes as they are needed.

Maennerchor Will Present Free Recital

South High School will offer its annual free musical concert by the Columbus Maennerchor in the auditorium Saturday, May 7 at 8 p.m.

The May concert will be open to the public without charge and will feature the 75-voice male choir, the 60 members of the ladies chorus and the combined chorus of 135 voices.

Beside the a cappella numbers, there will be numbers accompanied by the Maennerchor symphonette orchestra of 36 members.

The orchestra is under the direction of Randall Near, a graduate of Capital University and the director of music at South High.

Prof. Alexander Melli of Dayton, a veteran of 30 years as a director of music in Europe and the United States, directs the Maennerchor singers.

The Maennerchor, composed of 1700 members and an auxiliary of 400, is in its 112th year.

Mother-Daughter Breakfast Set At St. Leo's Church

The annual Mother Daughter Communion Breakfast of the St. Leo Altar Rosary Society will be held Sunday, May 1 after the 8 a.m. Mass.

Mrs. John Rist is chairman of the affair. The guest speaker will be Father Bernard McClory, Deanery Moderator of the Council of Catholic Women.

The next meeting of the Society will be Tuesday, May 10 with a pot luck supper at 6:30 p.m. Election of officers will be held at this meeting.

COMMUNITY NIGHT CHAIRMAN AIRS PLANS FOR GALA FESTIVITIES

SOUTHSIDE NIGHT—With the month of April nearing its end, the South Side Community Night Committee is accelerating its action in the community to make this year's effort even more of a success than the initial affair in 1959. The Community Night will feature a baseball game plus other attractions with part of the proceeds being returned to the South Side for youth work. The game is scheduled for June 10 at 8 p.m. at Jet Stadium. Tickets can be purchased at the South Side Branch YMCA, 864 S. Third-st, or at Fountain's Drug Store, 1864 Parsons-av. Those participating in the 1960 South Side Community Night Committee are, left to right (front row), Howard Henry, South Side Branch YMCA; Clark Flowers, Southeast Conservation Club; Jim Leonard, South Side Eagles; Harry Solis, Community Night chairman; William Nano, president of Council of South Side Organizations; Rudy Gessner, Moose Lodge; Tony Maricevich, Olympian Club; (second row) George Brand, John Frye, Southeast Athletic Club; Howard Storch, South [illegible] Business and Industrial Association and Gilbert Van Sickle, South Side Settlement.

Local Resident Is Honored With Family Homecoming

The household at 378 Southwood-av, residence of Mr. and Mrs. Trout, echoed with youthful activities and laughter the week before Easter. Wanda Pierce, daughter of the Trouts, and her four children spent the Easter season with her folks, as the Lakewood schools had a week-long recess from school. Wanda is quite excited about the rapidly approaching 25 year class reunion of her 1935 South High School graduation class, which will occur on May 20.

Larry Pierce, son of the Lakewood resident, celebrated his seventh birthday on Easter Sunday, so the visit held double significance for the youngster.

Mae Kiser, 284 Southwood-av, had entered St. Anthony Hospital at the time this was written. She was to undergo observation, so the length of her stay could not be determined. For the card-minded, her room number is 163. Lisa Baughman, the youngster who travelled by jet from Africa to Columbus to undergo corrective treatment for a congenitally dislocated hip, has returned home from the hospital and is in fine spirits. The ironic twist is that her sister, Ruth, is probably feeling worse than Lisa at the present time, as she acquired the mumps! Judy Boros is another ailing youngster, who wears a "speckled" face these days, the speckling being done by the old-fashioned measles. Donna Marie LaRue is another mumps victim.

Ruby Gibson, 1711½ S. 3rd-st, entered Doctors Hospital last Friday. The two strokes suffered by his father in Indiana caused the minister of the Southwood Church of Christ to rearrange his schedule, so he could be with his ailing father. The minister, Ellis Wesner, is a resident of 308 Southwood-av. Mrs. Clyde Cook, 1434 S. 3rd-st, is currently a patient at University Hospital.

A thank-you note received from Richard Bowser, director of Voluntary Services of Orient State Institute, rightfully belongs to those readers who contributed so generously to Margie Speakman's Easter project, so we'll pass along the information that everyone in the institution was remembered at Easter. This was possible only because so many groups and individuals cooperated. While thinking of Orient, don't forget the PVA of the school saves commemorative postage stamps, used variety, of course. They are to be sent to PVA, Box J, Orient, O. The next meeting of the group will be Sunday, May 1, in the school library at 2 p.m. The new president, Robert C. Stewart, is a Columbus resident. The April News Letter received from Orient discloses the need for coat hangers, so if spring cleaning left the readers with a surplus, why not send a postal to Box J, and we are sure someone will collect them.

The Central Music Company, of Whittier and High, is to be commended for donating some of their records to the institution, a fact gleaned from the News Letter.

Ida Hysell, 1482 Lockbourne-av, has been home now for a short while, from Florida. Mrs. Hysell had the misfortune of breaking her ankle while in the peninsular state, an unpleasant thing at any time!

Chapter 206, Women of the Moose, has been working diligently on the annual minstrel show, which will be presented tonight and tomorrow night. The price of the ticket is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children; curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Sub-teen birthdays for the area grade school category are these: Terri Donavan, May 3; Evelyn Lewis, May 4; Diana Broyles, Apr. 29; Stephen Schneider, Apr. 29; Beverly Reed, May 1; Donna Fellure, May 4; Robert Hodge, May 3; Cynthia Myers, May 2; Janice Clark, May 2; Bob Eagon, May 4.

Adult birthdays are these: Maxine Crary, Apr. 29; Betty Rothwell, May 2, also the birthdate of Lula May O'Ryan; Joyce Hannah, May 3. Anniversaries are those of Mr. and Mrs. Claffey, May 1; Dale and Glenna Edwards, May 2, and John and Irene Brandum, May 4. Irene celebrates a natal day on May 2, two days prior to the anniversary date.

Other April birthdays are those of Frank Athearn, 1358 S. 4th-st, an Apr. 30 celebrant. Clara Wilkins, Apr. 29, and belated wishes to Christina Loos, Apr. 12.

St. Anthony Croatian Lodge of Columbus is sponsoring a polka dance at the Croatian Hall, 377 Reeb-av, on Saturday, Apr. 30, at 8 p.m. The Tamburitza Orchestra will furnish the music for dancing. The public is invited to attend. Cost of dance tickets is $1.

Schiller Park Golden Age Club will hold a meeting Tuesday, May 3 at 1 p.m.

An important reminder is due for next Tuesday, May 3. That's the day to vote in the Primary Election, polls are open from 6:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. The patients of the tuberculosis hospital are earnestly hoping that the renewal and DECREASE of the proposed tax levy is passed. The levy would be reduced from .65 mills to .6 mills. Due to more effective treatment methods, patients are able to return to active life much more quickly than was formerly possible, but tuberculosis still is with us.

Last year, in Franklin County alone, there were 341 cases of tuberculosis, 202 of them active. 26 persons died of the disease. If the dream of completely wiping out the former "killer" is to be realized, the battle must continue until no known cases exist anywhere. This is not the time to turn Benjamin Franklin Hospital into a "bed rest only" hospital. Franklin County is too heavily populated to take chances like that!

Trudeau Guild 25 will hold its May meeting on Wednesday, the 4th, at 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. D. R. Jones, 222 Frebis-av.

The annual Mother-Son Banquet of the Downtown "Y", 40 W. Long-st, will be held at 6:30 p.m. this evening, in the auditorium of the building.

Miss Marie Kegelmeyer, 1190 Champion-av, was an alternate delegate of Pilot Club of Columbus, when the Pilot International held its 21st annual convention, Apr. 22-24, in Wheeling, W. Va.

Dick Luzader, Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 31, South Methodist Church, asks that his fellow South Siders save their scrap paper and iron for the boys in his troop. The boys will conduct a drive, Saturday, May 7, from 8 a.m. on. Persons wishing to have their paper or metal removed from now to May 7, may reach Mr. Luzader at HI. 3-1798, or get in touch with Bob Franz, at HI. 4-8208. The Boy Scouts are hoping to earn enough to purchase needed camping equipment. We'll put in a reminder next edition.

The Franklin Bicycle Club sponsored the Central Ohio Pre-Olympic 25 mile race last Sunday at Franklin Park. Michael Crary, 256 Deshler-av, was the first place cyclist, and second place went to Robert Ferstel, 222 King-av. Number three in the finish was Curtis Marcum, 636 City Park-av. The 50 mile State Pre-Olympic Race will be held in May at Loudonville.

NIPPERT ELECTED

TB SOCIETY—John E. Nippert, 1615 Berkeley-rd, has been elected second vice-president of the Tuberculosis Society of Columbus and Franklin County, the Society has announced. Shown talking over the TB Society's proposed 1960-61 program with Mrs. Lovell Rohr, 291 S. Brinker-av, a fellow board member, Nippert also will serve as representative to the board of directors of the state TB association.

CHANNINGS CHOICE

SHOW SHOES—Stage star Carol Channing received the 1000th pair of shoes from B. Goodman Fashion Stores last year. Frank Crisci, left, manager of the shoe department, Miss Channing and Ben Goodman, president of the B. Goodman Fashion Stores, are shown admiring her choice. Miss Channing also selected B. Goodman Fashions as her choice of women's apparel store to help build up her spring wardrobe. She was in town at the Hartman Theater where she starred in "Show Biz."

Bedouin dolls from Syria, where the women are called druses, have tattoo marks on the faces. Mrs. Richards explained that the marks reflect the caste and family from which the druse came "and also if they are criminals."

A Hawaiian boy and girl have shirts made from pineapple cloth. "And, of course, there is the Hollywood style of Hawaiian girl—one in a grass skirt," Mrs. Richards commented.

A doll representing a nun is attired in cloth from a habit.

Age is beginning to creep up on some of the fine figurines, however. A doll from Holland has a hole in its sock.

I believe that — — Public Business requires fair and equal representation of all citizens.
— New taxes are not necessary. A proper reapportionment of existing taxes should produce sufficient funds for all departments.
— As your Senator I will promote legislation to encourage new commerce and industry to come into Ohio. A favorable climate for new industry is so very necessary for the welfare of our citizens.
— We should have properly worded legislation involving all State taxes, so that they will be deductible for Federal Tax purposes.
— Hesitancy and fear of change must be eliminated from Ohio's Legislature, in order that all problems facing this great State of Ohio can be solved for the good of all the people by mature judgement, sound reasoning, and fair discussion.

AGREES MANY PICTURES APPEAR OBSCENE

Devine Says Public Holds Own Answer

Editor's Note: This is the second letter from a public official in response to the campaign of Hartley Newspapers and their readers for better television programs and motion pictures.

In last week's newspaper, the letter of Governor DiSalle was printed. This week the comments of U.S. Representative Samuel Devine are carried. His letter follows).

You have requested my opinion on the pracitce of exhibiting suggestive-type films dealbeing shown over television.

It is my personal opinion that censorship is not the answer. As you realize, the Supreme Court has ruled on a number of cases deoling with censorship and especially as it applies to the definition of lewd and obscene material.

I would certainly agree that many of the motion pictures presently being shown in the United States appear to me to be lewd and obscene. Your paper is to be commended on the activities you are conducting to bring this matter to the attention of your readers. If it would be possible for each individual to exercise his own judgement, I believe the resultant discretion in attendance would make the presentation of such material uneconomical.

If surveys conducted on viewers' response to general programs would show that most dealing with murder, crime and questionable taste, I am certain the producers, advertisers, and sponsors would soon discontinue these programs. We have depended on various codes shown in movie and television industries to police the material they produce. Unfortunately, it has not proved effective and some other method must be adopted to clean up this material. I would prefer to see the general public, by their refusal to attend or view such programs, used as the manner of accomplishing this end. One more Government inspection agency would only raise more questions, both in the courts and in practice as to what is "acceptable" material.

In my opinion, the campaign conducted by your paper is one of the most effective means of bringing this matter to the attention of the general public, and I suggest that you urge your views to exercise discretion and judgement in what they view and what they allow their children to view.

The type of action I anticipate is similar to the action taken by various mothers of school-age children in their recent campaign to clean up comic books and to provide more wholesome entertainment for them than was available at various stores. This campaign was successful to some extent and is an example of what I suggest.

ing with violent and illegal acts, primarily in motion picture house. You have also raised the same question in regard to the taste exhibited by producers and broadcasters in material people did not view programs

Henry To Seek Dem Nomination As Commissioner

Elimination of bickering by striving to do the most good for the most people at all times was set forth this week as a campaign promise by Eugene O. Henry, Democratic candidate for County Commissioner.

A resident of 3605 Cherry Bottom-rd in Mifflin Twp. near Gahanna, Henry has served as Clerk of Mifflin Twp. for four years and was secretary of the Franklin County Association of Township Trustees and Clerks for two years.

Employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad for the past 37 years, Henry promises "never to make a decision without a complete study of the issue or problem presented."

Also included on his platform are encouragement of public attendance at board meetings, an investigation of the County Welfare Department, a study of the county employe wage scale, and to allocate tax monies in a sensible and economical manner.

BIBLE COMMENT

Personalities Of The Bible Seen Today

The greatest saints and the most wicked persons, the Marys and the Jezebels, the persecutors and the martyrs, despotic, evil kings, wise rulers, nobility in purple, peasants in the fields, warriors, men of peace—every type of man is found in the Bible.

It is profoundly the book of man, even as it is man's book of God.

The universality of the Bible is emphasized in a deeper and more important way in the life and teaching of Jesus.

The locality of the scene, the local manners or customs, may give color to an incident, but they do not affect the heart of the truth. Truth applies equally to time and place.

This is seen especially in the Parables of Jesus. The woman searching for a lost piece of silver (Luke15) might be any woman anywhere. The Samaritan helping the victim of thieves on the road to Jericho might be a driver of today stopping to aid the victim of a highway accident, while others, like the priest and the Levite, hasten past.

Jesus is for all the world, because His life and truth were for all the world. He was not a Galilean provincial, but a Teacher and Savior, with a world mission sending forth His disciples to make disciples of all nations.

Hi-Y Members Get First-Hand Look At City Government

ROLL CALL—This was the scene in Columbus City Council chambers last Friday when high school students first heard details of their Apr. 27 City Day program. They are being briefed by Robert Schmidt, Metropolitan "Y" program director. Later they learned details of city government from Mayor Ralston Westlake, his staff and other elected officials. Youths holding "key jobs" sat with their adult counterparts during Monday night's council meeting. Others watched proceedings from the balcony.

When more than 100 area high school boys and girls took over offices in the City of Columbus, Wednesday of this week, they weren't exactly green at their jobs.

The youths, marking the 35th annual Hi-Y City Day, spent last Friday afternoon and Monday night taking an intensive "short course" in city government. Wednesday they were "in office."

Each delegate was given the opportunity to meet the mayor, his cabinet and other elected officials, sat with them during Monday night's Council meeting and submitted their own bills of legislation.

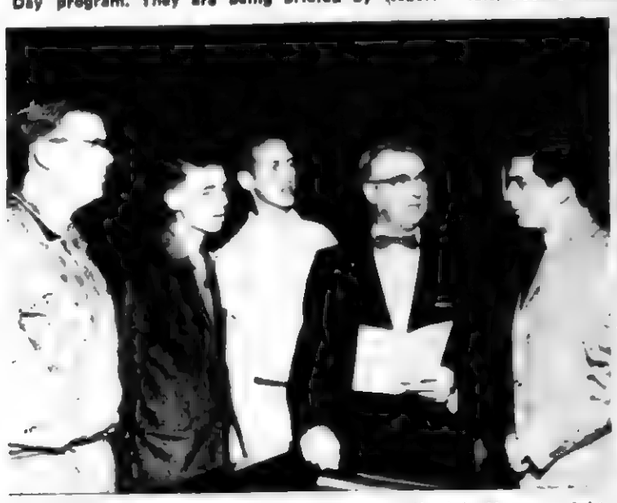
Hold Model Council

On Wednesday the Hi-Y members conducted their own "model Council" in the morning, visited their appropriate city departments, lunched at the "Y" at noon and honored the first City Day mayor (of the year 1926) Robert G. Matthews, a downtown insurance executive. They spent the afternoon enacting ordinances and resolutions. They were sworn into their offices by Judge Fred Donnally, presiding judge of the municipal court.

Most of the students were juniors and seniors elected by their own club membership in March to fill the various offices, which are rotated by schools each year.

The City Day programming represents a high degree of cooperation between city and school officials the press and the YMCA youth groups, including Hi-Y Council. Chairman of the event was Harold Eigensee; assisted by Robert Schmidt, Metropolitan "Y" program director.

Capitol Barracks, Unit Date Meet



Capitol City Barracks, 461 World War I, will meet Sunday, May 1, at Veterans Memorial Building, Room 201, at 2 p.m. Auxiliary will meet at the same time in room 203. Refreshments will be served.

Public Invited To 'Polka Hop'

Folks who enjoy lively folk dancing should find a program to interest them at the "Polka Hop," Saturday, Apr. 30, at 377 Reeb-av.

The annual spring event is sponsored by the St. Anthony Lodge of Croatians of Columbus.

"The Continentals" will start the music at 8 p.m. Adam Zubovich is chairman.

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROB COCHRAN

The Darbys are giving up good-sized catfish and rock bass, according to R. W. Recob, West Jefferson. Successful anglers reporting at Recob's store are Ralph Wilder, 301 Lilly Chapel-rd; Ted Saunders, W. Main-st, and Robert Deitsch, all of West Jefferson.

The channel catfish have ranged from three to six pounds and were caught on smelt. The fishermen reported the fish were full of crayfish—hard craws.

Big and Little Darby have long been favorite fishing waters for area anglers, and they always seem to start the season off with a bang. They have been producing good rock bass stringers for about 10 days. Nightcrawlers have been the most popular bait. A few catches of smallmouth bass are starting to come in, and the fishing for these gamesters should improve steadily for a time.

No one can predict with much certainty what the fishing will be like for the next week, because weather is always a changing condition. Just when the smallmouth fishing could be at its best, a hard rain could muddy-up waters and would stop fishing for days.

Look for the Signs

Everybody knows a little bit about the weather, and the late-at-night television weather-casts can fill you in on the next day's conditions. Being weather wise, however, will help your fishing score, and knowing that a storm is approaching may save your life someday if you like to explore around on large lakes in small craft.

The old saying, "red sky at night, sailor's delight; red sky in the morning, sailors take warning," has some truth in it. A red sunset is common in the summer and doesn't have much significance, but a hazy sunrise means humidity and often indicates rain to come.

Rising smoke indicates high barometric pressure, which means fair weather and possibly good fishing. Many anglers like to go out when the "glass" is rising (when the barometer is rising). Dew is also a sign of good weather—is condenses on the grass mornings and evenings only when the air is dry.

Most outdoorsmen know that when leaves turn over it means that rain is coming. There is a very logical explanation for this. Leaves grow bending in the direction of prevailing winds so that in normal circumstances they remain right-side-up. A change in wind direction will flop the leaves over, and such a change usually indicates rain.

If you see lightning in the West, it is a sign that you are in the path of a storm. A lowering of the cloud ceiling is also a warning of falling weather. To tell the location of a coming storm, face into the wind and the storm will be on your right—in the northern hemisphere winds circle counterclockwise.

Benjamin Franklin said it, and Dick Jennings repeats it in the Cortland's 1960 Fish Forecaster, "Some are weather-wise, some are otherwise."

LET'S SMILE WE CAN SEE!

X-Way Plans Are Nearing Completion

When expressway projects are completed this summer, motorists should have a direct path from Harrisburg in south Franklin County to Medina County, announced Expressway Coordinator, Robert F. Mott.

In his monthly report to City Council, Mott stated, " . . . drivers can utilize expressways and high capacity one-way streets in Columbus to travel a workable interim facility."

Drivers, Mott said, will be able to travel the Southwest Freeway, the west leg of the innerbelt, north leg of the innerbelt and Summit and Fourth-sts, one-way thoroughfares, to reach the North Freeway at Hudson-st.

Mott said that the expressway project cost $76 million upon completion.

State 4-H Group Suggests Public Not Be Charged Fee

Ohio's state 4-H Club Advisory Committee has recommended that the public not be charged admission to events where the official grading of 4-H projects and activities is being done.

The committee contends that such activities as 4-H livestock shows or other competitive events are educational in that grading are given. No charge should be made to 4-H educational events, the committee holds.

The recommendation, handed down at an annual committee meeting last week, would not affect 4-H shows, revues, and other activities where club members do not receive an official grade which goes on their record, committee spokesmen explain. Nor would it have any bearing on general admission or gate charges to fairs.

The committee, a 40-member group of lay people, extension agents, and junior 4-H club leaders which serves as an advisory body to the 4-H program in Ohio, also discussed new projects for older club members. Committeemen suggested the possibility of more group projects for older boys and girls —projects involving community service, studies of careers in agri-business, meat cutting, and guns and gun safety.

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Vegetables—Asparagus, broccoli, carrots, celery, green onions, escarole.

Fruits—Valencia oranges, bananas, rhubarb, frozen orange juice, canned peaches.

UNDERSTANDING THE FOOD STANDARDS HELPS FOOD SHOPPERS

Have you ever thought how dependent we are upon food standards? For example, how do we know that the product bought as strawberry preserves is really strawberry preserves and not a mixture of water, pectin, artificial coloring and grass seeds?

Just as we have legal reference standards to insure uniformity of weights and measures, we also have them to insure real food values and quality of many of our basic foods. They are fixed by order of the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, to promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of the consumers. After a standard for food goes into effect, it is misbranded under the law if it fails to comply with the specification set for it.

Three kinds of standards may be established: (a) standards of identity, (b) standards of quality, (c) standards of fill of container.

STANDARD OF IDENTITY is essentially a recipe. It specifies the ingredients that must be present in a given product, and also allows the use of specified optional ingredients that can be added if the manufacturer desires. These optional ingredients must be declared on the label, only if used.

Identity standards are developed to establish what a given food is. For example, the standard for fruit preserves requires not less than 45 parts of fruit or fruit juice to each 55 parts of sugar. Substandard or low-fruit preserves can be marketed, but must be clearly labeled "imitation."

The nutritional value of certain foods is guaranteed by identity standards. Enriched flour, rice, macaroni products, fortified oleomargarine are examples where nutrition is an important objective.

Special regulations cover certain dietary foods. Special dietary foods claiming to be low in sodium must declare on the label the amount of sodium present per 100 grams and for each average serving — one-half cup or number of wafers. If sugar is used, the measurement must be stated. If a food is reported to be low in calories, the number of calories per serving must be declared.

STANDARDS OF QUALITY — Standards of quality cover such factors as tenderness, color, and freedom from defects. If the produce does not meet the quality specifications, it must be labeled "Below Standard in Quality," followed by an explanation such as "excessively broken" or "excessive peel" and [illegible].

STANDARDS OF FILL OF CONTAINER—Standards of fill containers have been established for some canned fruits and vegetables, tomato products, shell fish and other products that shake down or settle after filling. In general they must contain the maximum quantity of food that can be sealed in the container and processed without damaging the food.

Do not confuse "Food Standards" with "U.S. Grade Labeling." The latter is optional and is a service a manufacturer may have to grade his products by paying a fee for a U.S. grader to do the job.

Hi-Y Members Get First-Hand Look At City Government

ROLL CALL—This was the scene in Columbus City Council chambers last Friday when high school students first heard details of their Apr. 27 City Day program. They are being briefed by Robert Schmidt, Metropolitan "Y" program director. Later they learned details of city government from Mayor Ralston Westlake, his staff and other elected officials. Youths holding "key jobs" sat with their adult counterparts during Monday night's council meeting. Others watched proceedings from the balcony.

When more than 100 area high school boys and girls took over offices in the City of Columbus, Wednesday of this week, they weren't exactly green at their jobs.

The youths, marking the 35th annual Hi-Y City Day, spent last Friday afternoon and Monday night taking an intensive "short course" in city government. Wednesday they were "in office."

Each delegate was given the opportunity to meet the mayor, his cabinet and other elected officials, sat with them during Monday night's Council meeting and submitted their own bills of legislation.

Hold Model Council

On Wednesday the Hi-Y members conducted their own "model Council" in the morning, visited their appropriate city departments, lunched at the "Y" at noon and honored the first City Day mayor (of the year 1926) Robert G. Matthews, a downtown insurance executive. They spent the afternoon enacting ordinances and resolutions. They were sworn into their offices by Judge Fred Donnally, presiding judge of the municipal court.

Most of the students were juniors and seniors elected by their own club membership in March to fill the various offices, which are rotated by schools each year.

The City Day programming represents a high degree of cooperation between city and school officials, the press and the YMCA youth groups, including Hi-Y Council. Chairman of the event was Harold Eigensee; assisted by Robert Schmidt, Metropolitan "Y" program director.

Capitol Barracks, Unit Date Meet

Capitol City Barracks, 461 World War I, will meet Sunday, May 1, at Veterans Memorial Building, Room 201, at 2 p.m. Auxiliary will meet at the same time in room 203. Refreshments will be served.

Public Invited To 'Polka Hop'

Folks who enjoy lively folk dancing should find a program to interest them at the "Polka Hop," Saturday, Apr. 30, at 377 Reeb-av.

The annual spring event is sponsored by the St. Anthony Lodge of Croatians of Columbus.

"The Continentals" will start the music at 8 p.m. Adam Zubovich is chairman.

County Economy Cited By Kunz As Chief Goal

D. J. Kunz

Democratic County Commissioner D. J. Kunz, who is seeking re-election this year, points to his former campaign promises of "economy in goverment and wise planning" as main reasons why he should be returned to office.

Kunz points out that when he entered office in 1956, the county's general fund was $280,893 in the red and credit was at a low ebb with bills up to three-years-old unpaid.

Since then, a budget has been set up satisfying all departments and paying off old and current bills leaving the county with a $65,000 surplus at the end of [illegible]

John Herbert

Importance to the Republican party of next January's session of the Ohio General Assembly is being stressed by John David Herbert in his campaign for nomination at the May 3 Primary as State Representative from Franklin County.

"The next legislature," Herbert points out, "will be called upon to revamp Ohio's Congressional districts in accordance with the population changes determined in the 1960 census. This will vitally affect our national representation for the next decade."

Featured in the half-hour long production will be Greer Garson and Christopher Plummer. According to the commentary this is an uproarious comedy, in which judicial punishment becomes a delightful farce . . .

WTVN-TV will participate in a special half-hour long Conelrad test from 1 to 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, May 3. About Faces will not be televised due to this special test . . .

Heading up ABC's new program series for the 1960-61 season will be an hour-long series titled "Hong Kong." The oncoming series will feature the exploits of an American magazine correspondent against the exotic, strategic backdrop and intrigue of one of the world's most colorful and exciting cities . . .

Baseball fans will have a full weekend of sports viewing this weekend when local television stations will bring two major league games to the screen. On Saturday, Apr. 30 at 1:25 p.m. WLW-C will televise the Cincinnati Redlegs and Pittsburgh Pirates game at Crosley Field in Cincinnati.

On Sunday, May 1 at 12:45 p.m. WBNS-TV will televise the New York and Baltimore game.

State 4-H Group Suggests Public Not Be Charged Fee

Ohio's state 4-H Club Advisory Committee has recommended that the public not be charged admission to events where the official grading of 4-H projects and activities is being done.

The committee contends that such activities as 4-H livestock shows or other competitive events are educational in that grading and explanations of grading are given. No charge should be made to 4-H educational events, the committee holds.

The recommendation, handed down at an annual committee meeting last week, would not affect 4-H shows, revues, and other activities where club members do not receive an official grade which goes on their record, committee spokesmen explain. Nor would it have any bearing on general admission or gate charges to fairs.

The committee, a 40-member group of lay people, extension agents, and junior 4-H club leaders which serves as an advisory body to the 4-H program in Ohio, also discussed new projects for older club members. Committeemen suggested the possibility of more group projects for older boys and girls —projects involving community service, studies of careers in agri-business, meat cutting, and guns and gun safety.

Consumer Report

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK SHOP FOR:

Vegetables—Asparagus, broccoli, carrots, celery, green onions, escarole.

Fruits—Valencia oranges, bananas, rhubarb, frozen orange juice, canned peaches.

UNDERSTANDING THE FOOD STANDARDS HELPS FOOD SHOPPERS

Have you ever thought how dependent we are upon food standards? For example, how do we know that the product bought as strawberry preserves is really strawberry preserves and not a mixture of water, pectin, artificial coloring and grass seeds?

Just as we have legal reference standards to insure uniformity of weights and measures, we also have them to insure real food values and quality of many of our basic foods. They are fixed by order of the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, to promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of the consumers. After a standard for food goes into effect, it is misbranded under the law if it fails to comply with the specification set for it.

Three kinds of standards may be established: (a) standards of identity, (b) standards of quality, (c) standards of fill of container.

STANDARD OF IDENTITY is essentially a recipe. It specifies the ingredients that must be present in a given product, and also allows the use of specified optional ingredients that can be added if the manufacturer desires. These optional ingredients must be declared on the label, only if used.

Identity standards are developed to establish what a given food is. For example, the standard for fruit preserves requires not less than 45 parts of fruit or fruit juice to each 55 parts of sugar. Substandard or low-fruit preserves can be marketed, but must be clearly labeled "imitation."

The nutritional value of certain foods is guaranteed by identity standards. Enriched flour, rice, macaroni products, fortified oleomargarine are examples where nutrition is an important objective.

Special regulations cover certain dietary foods. Special dietary foods claiming to be low in sodium must declare on the label the amount of sodium present per 100 grams and for each average serving — one-half cup or number of wafers. If sugar is used, the measurement must be stated. If a food is reported to be low in calories, the number of calories per serving must be declared.

STANDARDS OF QUALITY — Standards of quality cover such factors as tenderness, color, and freedom from defects. If the produce does not meet the quality specifications, it must be labeled "Below Standard in Quality," followed by an explanation such as "excessively broken" or "excessive peel" and so on.

STANDARDS OF FILL OF CONTAINER—Standards of fill containers have been established for some canned fruits and vegetables, tomato products, shell fish and other products that shake down or settle after filling. In general they must contain the maximum quantity of food that can be sealed in the container and processed without damaging the food.

Do not confuse "Food Standards" with "U.S. Grade Labeling." The latter is optional and is a service a manufacturer may have to grade his products by paying a fee for a U.S. grader to do the job.

Hi-Y Members Get First-Hand Look At City Government

ROLL CALL—This was the scene in Columbus City Council chambers last Friday when high school students first heard details of their Apr. 27 City Day program. They are being briefed by Robert Schmidt, Metropolitan "Y" program director. Later they learned details of city government from Mayor Ralston Westlake, his staff and other elected officials. Youths holding "key jobs" sat with their adult counterparts during Monday night's council meeting. Others watched proceedings from the balcony.

When more than 100 area high school boys and girls took over offices in the City of Columbus, Wednesday of this week, they weren't exactly green at their jobs.

The youths, marking the 35th annual Hi-Y City Day, spent last Friday afternoon and Monday night taking an intensive "short course" in city government. Wednesday they were "in office."

Each delegate was given the opportunity to meet the mayor, his cabinet and other elected officials, sat with them during Monday night's Council meeting and submitted their own bills of legislation.

Hold Model Council

On Wednesday the Hi-Y members conducted their own "model Council" in the morning, visited their appropriate city departments, lunched at the "Y" at noon and honored the first City Day mayor (of the year 1926) Robert G. Matthews, a downtown insurance executive. They spent the afternoon enacting ordinances and resolutions. They were sworn into their offices by Judge Fred Donnally, presiding judge of the municipal court.

Most of the students were juniors and seniors elected by their own club membership in March to fill the various offices, which are rotated by schools each year.

The City Day programming represents a high degree of cooperation between city and school officials, the press and the YMCA youth groups, including Hi-Y Council. Chairman of the event was Harold Eigensee; assisted by Robert Schmidt, Metropolitan "Y" program director.

Knisley To Seek Convention Seat

Former Treasurer of State Clarence H. Knisley announced this week that he would run as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention to give Franklin County voters an opportunity to select their own candidate.

By entering the race, Knisley said he is giving voters a chance to express their preference for candidates instead of them being told to vote for the "DiSalle delegate or not vote at all."

Knisley said the choice of delegate is on the question, "Do You want home rule or boss rule?" In addition, voters not in agreement with Governor DiSalle's tax program will have the opportunity to express their opposition, he added.

Want To Be A Teacher? Read This . . .

In association with National Teaching Career Month, during April, the various education associations list information concerning teacher training, teacher shortages and career advantages.

The associations urge that a teaching career should be given serious consideration by students preparing to enter or who are now attending college.

Job opportunities for approximately 165 to 175 thousand newly qualified teachers will exist each year through 1965 according to the National Commission on Teachers Education and Profesional Standards.

Many scholarships are available for students who have the ability, but not the money, for college. Many private and civic organizations offer these scholarships as well as the colleges themselves. Information concerning financial-aid program scholarships can be obtained by writing the State Department of Education.

A teachers' work is extremely varied, according to Margaret S. Myers, Hilliard High School instructor. She stated that "teaching in today's schools is an exacting job that calls for top-notch ability. The critical need for teaching is not sufficient reason for a young person to select teaching as a career."

Test Netting For Muskies Is Underway

Test netting for muskies is under way in Southern Ohio, according to Ray Riethmiller, Wildlife District Five fish management supervisor.

First netting operation was at Lake White, Pike County, where fish management personnel were after muskies for eggs and suckers as a source of fish food at the Division of Wildlife fish hatchery at Kincaid Springs.

"The water has been too cold for the muskies to be on the move and little success has resulted thus far. They are taking suckers in the nets," he stated.

Netting for muskies at Rocky Fork Lake, Highland County, started a week later. This operation will be the big effort as a large part of the eggs used in the Kincaid Hatchery come from this lake. Fishery biologists start early to net the muskies to check when the egg-bearing females, the larger of the two sexes, are ripe enough to be stripped of their eggs.

In addition to the muskies which are being netter, the biologists are taking bullheads for distribution to other public bodies of water open to fishing. This is being done to improve fishing during the coming angling season.

Evaporation caused over half the water loss from corn plots during an entire growing season in recent tests conducted by USDA scientists at the Soil and Water Conservation Research Station at Coshocton, Ohio.

County Economy Cited By Kunz As Chief Goal

D. J. Kunz

Democratic County Commissioner D. J. Kunz, who is seeking re-election this year, points to his former campaign promises of "economy in goverment and wise planning" as main reasons why he should be returned to office.

Kunz points out that when he entered office in 1958, the county's general fund was $280,893 in the red and credit was at a low ebb with bills up to three-years-old unpaid.

Since then, a budget has been set up satisfying all departments and paying off old and current bills leaving the county with a $65,000 surplus at the end of fiscal 1959.

Promises of a better welfare program, revised building code and reclassification of zoning, have all been kept, Kunz points out.

The budget of $92,000 for welfare has also been met each year and was increased to $100,000 for 1960, he added.

Kunz supports the Development Committee for Greater Columbus in its work toward providing an answer to the problem of supplying water and sewage services in areas not serviced by municipal systems.

GOP Backs Seven Men For House

The seven candidates for State Representative endorsed by the Republican Central Committee form a well balanced team with diversified backgrounds.

They are Thomas M. Herbert, son of former Lieutenant Governor, Paul M. Herbert, a life long resident of Columbus, combat war veteran and practicing attorney; Robert E. Holmes, selected as the outstanding young man of Greater Columbus in 1958, and an active civic leader; Keith McNamara, former special counsel to the City Attorney, a state-wide leader in Young Republican work and a practicing attorney; Archer E. Reilly, Jr., present incumbent State Representative; Jacob A. Shawan, mayor of Marble Cliff, past president Council of Social Agencies and a board member of United Community Council; Chalmers P. Wylie, former Columbus City Attorney, former Assistant to the Governor and Director of Workmen's Compensation; and Lytle G. Zuber, who has served four terms in the House and was Chairman of Military Affairs and Small Courts Committees of the House.

The seven-member delegation is stressing a constructive well-rounded program with particular emphasis upon finances, education, welfare and conservation.

GOP Candidate Says Next House Session Is Vital

John Herbert

Importance to the Republican party of next January's session of the Ohio General Assembly is being stressed by John David Herbert in his campaign for nomination at the May 3 Primary as State Representative from Franklin County.

"The next legislature," Herbert points out, "will be called upon to revamp Ohio's Congressional districts in accordance with the population changes determined in the 1960 census. This will vitally affect our national representation for the next decade."

Herbert also recommends a legislative program to promote a healthy business climate, to attract new industry and to encourage expansion of present business.

Herbert is a former Assistant Ohio Attorney General and son of former Governor and present State Supreme Court Judge Thomas J. Herbert. He is a practicing attorney, Korean War Veteran, is married and the father of three children.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

South Hits Long Ball But Losing Ball Games

The South High Bulldogs, playing their second City League game with North, Apr. 20, learned that it's not how far you hit the ball but which end of the score you're on that counts.

The Bulldogs lost four balls over the fences but despite the homer barrage, they lost the game to North, 11-4 on the Bulldog diamond. This game marks the fourth win for Coach Dick Hindman and his unbeaten Polar Bears.

Dick Guyer rapped two of the South blasts and Spencer Mizelle and Jim Cordell hit the others. The game's biggest blow was a bases-loaded triple by North's Steve Scott inthe sixth. Teammate Ricky Nye chipped in a homer for North.

The summaries:

North 002 005 4	11	8	2
South 301 000 0	4	8	5

Lantz, Scott (1) and Hottinger; Zimmerman, Foster (5) and Meinrod.

Undefeated Rosary's nimble shortstop, Gary Spires, stole a sixth County League victory for the Crusaders Monday, Apr. 25, with a narrow 6-5 win over visiting St. Mary's.

Y PARK BLOSSOMS FORTH

CRABAPPLE LANE—Last week the South Side YMCA Park, located on Rohr-rd, was in full blossom. The park, which offers recreation facilities for many groups and families on the South Side, is open weekends and holidays during the month of May and will be open daily once school vacations start. Individual and family membership to the park is available for a nominal fee.

Parsons-Av Merchants Seek Parking Ban End

Parsons-av merchants have been observing closely the flow of "rush hour" traffic on Parsons-av and are convinced that the one-side of the street parking is unnecessary and hazardous.

The South Side Business and Industrial Association plans to contact city officials and work for early removal of the signs designating no parking on the west side of the street from 4 to 6 p.m. and on the east side from 7 to 9 a.m.

The business men believe that the flow of traffic is at about an equal rate both towards the downtown area and in the direction of the industrial plants on the southern extremity of the business district.

They want the city to take a new traffic survey of the area to check their observation. They say that the traffic at the time of installation might have merited the parking ban, but conditions at present call for its removal.

Leo Diellin, secretary of the association, also finds the traffic arrangements hazardous. He finds that the use of the curb lane for moving traffic is a hazard to pedestrians. He fears the possibility of someone stepping or falling into the rapidly moving inside lane of traffic along the curb side.

He also pointed out that the traffic in this lane creates a splashing nuisance during slushy and rainy weather.

The association reports a 25 percent drop in business volume since the ban went into effect. They point out that this decreases business property valuations and will hurt the city's tax revenue.

An added point they mentioned was the number of police cruisers required to ticket parking violators. They believe that these cruisers could be used for more vital work once the ban is lifted.

One merchant stated that at one time there were a total of five moving and parked cars on the section of Parsons near his store and two of these were being ticketed.

School Board Approves Land Buy, House Rental

Approval of purchase for a portion of Parsons School site, and the rental of additional space to house overflow students in Clarfield School District were among actions taken by Columbus School Board Tuesday.

With the purchase of a parcel of land from John R. and Maxine Smith, the board now owns five of the six required tracts for construction of Parsons Elementary, to be built on Lee Ellen-pl.

The building will be needed in time for September classes.

Clarfield enrollment, well beyond the school's capacity for the past two years, has been renting four homes in the adjacent housing development for classroom space.

Despite the new Stockbridge School opened last September, and the planned Parsons School to be opened next September, still more classroom space is needed.

The board Tuesday approved the rental of five additional houses, to be used for classroom space.

Doors and partitions in the homes will be adjusted, as they were in the original four, to meet school standards of safety and to allow efficiency of instruction.

A total of 300 students will be housed in the nine houses.

Another new elementary school in the area is scheduled for construction in 1961 at Fairwood and Watkins-rds.

In other action, the board approved ten new textbooks. They are: sixth grade health; fifth, ninth and tenth grade choral music; senior high sales, and fifth grade English.

Junior and senior high typing, sixth and eighth grade history; and drain department on the ditches and surface water problems.

Capital City Club of East Columbus was present and John Johns, their representative, offered the council their cooperation. He suggested that a committee be appointed to meet with them. A motion made the committee appointing suggestion stand.

Recommendations for the new books were made by committees of teachers.

Heimandale Group Selects Councilmen, Defines Boundaries

The South Side Council of Organizations approved an application of membership Apr. 18 for the Heimandale Civic Association.

The Heimandale meeting, held at 8 p.m. in the St. Stephens Community House, 739 Barthman-av, saw the appointment of Aaron Johnson and Peter Mock as representatives.

The executive committee read the boundary set up for the Association as: Parson-av on the West, Buckeye Steel Casting Co. South to the old Heimandale Park, East to Lockbourne-rd and North to Parson-av.

A talk was given by Johnson from the board of health on sanitary conditions and suggested that the council appoint block captains to help in the clean-up program.

Johnson also suggested that the council write to the sewer

VICKI HESS—A VERY BUSY GIRL

Vicki Hess, Popular M-F Senior, Honored

By JOHN AUBLE, JR.

A pretty Marion-Franklin High School senior is currently searching for clues to solve a mystery which brought national recognition to both herself and her school.

Vicki Hess, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hess of 1106 Woodrow-av, was recently named the personality girl of the month of May in Seventeen magazine by a New York skin blemish concern.

"I wish I could find the person who entered by name and picture," the personable blonde stated. "I would like to thank them for one of the most pleasant surprises in my life."

She added, "I was telephoned by the New York firm some time ago and was told that I was being considered for the honor. Naturally I was quite thrilled, but I honestly didn't think much about it until I received another telephone call that I had been chosen and that a representative would be here to photograph me."

This has been quite a busy year for Vicki, besides the advertising promotion, according to her mother. "She has been chosen football homecoming queen and was recently elected to the National Honor Society."

Vicki's other activities include Y-Teens Student Council, student court and president of the Future Teachers Association. She also has a role in the school's upcoming play "A Man Called Peter."

The Columbus-born girl is thinking about a pubic relations career after college. "I want to study speech," she explained, possibly at Ohio University."

Academically speaking, Vicki ranks high in her class with a B plus average. Marion-Franklin's principal, Ed Gearhart, had this to say: "I've known Vicki for some four years now. I've found her to be an excellent student and a good mixer. She ranks in the upper fourth of her class."

Because of her outstanding study record, Vicki has been granted a four-year, $800 scho-

Water Seepage Caused By Break

Water, that seeped through the street pavement Tuesday in Southwood-av for about 50 feet east from S. 4th-st. was said to have been caused by an apparent break in an eight inch main.

The City Water Dept. said it would be possible to isolate a comparatively small area in the vicinity of that break to make necessary repairs.

Two Lockbourne Flyers Charged With Stunting

Two Lockbourne Air Force Base pilots were charged with reckless flying this week on affidavits filed by an east side resident.

Charged in Municipal Court were Capt. William A. Penland, 30, and 2nd Lt. Raymond Jolly, 24. The charges were filed by David A. Lapham, of 3504 Livingston-dr, who claimed the officers looped T-34 single-engine trainers below minimum legal altitudes near his home Saturday.

Arraignment was tentatively set for May 31. Penland and Jolly, co-pilots on a B-47 jet bomber, were piloting surplus planes loaned by the Air Force to the Strategic Air Command Aero Club at Price Field.

Southside Police Formed To Guard Area Merchants

The Southside Merchant Police, a private organization to guard stores after business hours, will start operations May 15, the Southside Business and Industrial Association learned Tuesday night.

O. R. (Ray) Starr of 2749 Dolby-dr, operator of the service, explained the service to association members. He told the South Side Leader he expects to have from 60 to 70 clients.

Hourly patrols will check client stores in the area bounded by the Scioto River, Wilson-av, Broad-st and Williams-rd.

The private police organization will work closely with both city and county law enforcement officials, said Starr, who recently finished six years service with the air police of the Air Force.

Starr was stationed at Lockbourne Air Force Base for the last 3½ years. He also has served at air bases in New York, Maine and England.

The association welcomed a new member, John Marshall, manager of the Miller-Jones Shoe Store on Parsons-av. Because of illness in the family, Marshall was unable to attend the meeting.

The association postponed setting dates for its bicycle safety program aimed at making riders safety conscious.

Tickets are now available at the South Side YMCA, at Fountain Drug Store, and from members of the group belonging to the Council of South Side Organizations. Any clubs that wish to aid in the ticket sales and receive a share in the proceeds for their youth programs are invited to join in the endeavor. Lausche States Action Is Needed

Plans Vigorous Questioning Of FFC Members In Hearing

Editor's Note: This is the third letter from a public official in response to a campaign of Hartley Newspapers and their readers for better television programs and motion pictures.

In previous issues of this newspaper, we have carried comments of Governor Michael DiSalle and U.S Representative Samuel Devine. The letter of Senator Frank J. Lausche follows:

I received your letter of March 18, together with the clippings of several of the many letters which you have received from persons protesting against the trend of television and commercial motion picture operators showing programs that incite the passions and lead to moral delinquency.

Based upon the mail which I am receiving, it is obvious that there is general concern with the people of Ohio about the type of character that is being built into our youth by the circumstances under which it is living.

I cannot be a silent spectator while the moral fabric of our youth is being disintegrated.

The officials of the Federal Communications Commission, which is in charge of the issuances of licenses and regulations of television stations, are to appear before the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee of the Senate of which I am a member.

I intend at that time to do some vigorous interrogating of the members of the commission on this vital subject affecting the character of the American people, and in all probability, the future strength of our country.

Band, Orchestra To Present Concert At Schiller May 22

South High School's band and orchestra are planning a concert at Schiller Park Sunday evening, May 22. It will take place on the band platform at 8 p.m. Randal Near, South's instrumental teacher, will conduct both groups.

The band is trying to get as many novelty numbers as possible, leaving the classical type to the orchestra. These groups will play such numbers as "One Armed Paperhanger," "Sea Portrait," "Selections from Porgy and Bess," "Serenade to a Lemonade," "Czardas," and some gay marches.

The concert is open to everyone, free of charge. The instrumental students encourage all to attend for an enjoyable "good old-fashioned Sunday, park concert."

The new store staged its grand opening last weekend. There was a cooking demonstration by the Electric Co. and refreshments, free gifts and door prizes.

President of the firm is Marvin D. Noel. His wife, Clara, is vice-president. Donna Ward is private secretary to Noel, Harry Saul is sales manager and Harold Schneider is assistant appliance division manager. The store is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays.

Working closely with the store officials are Herman Wine, local representative for RCA Whirlpool, and Morrey Smith, local representative for RCA Victor.

Noel has been in the plumbing business for four years, being located at 401 Loeffler for the last two years. He emphasized that he still is in the plumbing business.

Noel, who lives at 1430 Zollinger-rd, is an army veteran of the Korean Conflict.

The store carries a large stock of RCA Whirlpool refrigerators, freezers, washers, dryers, air conditioners, built-in ovens, garbage disposers and other items. The RCA Victor line includes black and white and color TV sets, stereo, portable TV sets and clock and transistor radios. The TV sets are in operation.

Credit for designing the store goes to Schneider.

Noel's can take care of the plumbing necessary for installing washing machines and garbage disposers.

The parent company is engaged in both residential and commercial plumbing. It can remodel entire kitchens and bathrooms.

The store has its own financing plans for appliances to suit individual needs of customers, Noel says.

R. L. Coldren and the M-F students have been busy since February, rehearsing this lovely true story of the life of beloved Peter Marshall and his wife, Catharine, and little son, Peter Marshall, who was a chaplain in World War II. I think young and old will enjoy seeing the students put on this play. Kurt Myers will play the part of Peter. Pat Smith and Norma Haley will also have leading parts.

South and Marion-Franklin play their first Central District "AA" baseball game this afternoon.

The Bulldogs, (4-2) travel to Washington C.H., (7-3) while Marion-Franklin (0-3), plays at Worthington (3-3).

Milburn Tosses No-Hit Game In Gra-Y League

John Milburn pitched the best game of the season and his battery mate, Jim Osborn, hit a home run as the Deshler Panthers measured the Southwood Rocketeers, 12-0 in the Tuesday Gra-Y League. Milburn pitched a no-hitter, with very few walks.

The Livingston Lions downed the Heyl Eagles, 18-9. Don Kauffman had four hits, two of which were home runs and Kenny Taylor had three home runs to lead the Livingston attack.

Big guns for Heyl were Mullins, Robinson and Harper, who had three hits each.

The Heyl Warriors dropped their schoolmates, the Heyl Buckeyes, 9-5, in a well played game. Bob Yantis had two hits for the Warriors and Bill Werner's triple was the big blow for the Buckeyes.

Neubeck Bowling Team Is Honored

The bowling team sponsored by the Neubeck Delicatessen recently received a trophy for finishing 139th in a field of 12,000 in the 15th annual Mailographic Tournament of the American Junior Bowling Congress.

The group, which bowls in the Schiller Park Recreation League, is composed of Wayne Rutherford, Terry Romine, Carroll Van Ryier, John Walters, and Dick Rutherford.

The team scored a total of 2839 pins in its three game series.

Meinert's Homer Brings Victory For Lincoln Park

A well balanced attack, featuring a home run by Meinert was sufficient for the Lincoln Park Gra-Y's 12-1 win over the Beck Pirates in the Thursday League. Ned Fenice scored Beck's run and he also had a hit in his only official time at bat.

It took a home run in the last half of the last inning, but the Lincoln Park Scarlets did it, and came out the victors over the Reeb Rebels, 9-7.

Roger Thorne and Charles Macio socked home runs for Lincoln with the big one being hit by Macio.

Hitting stars for Reeb were Skaggs, Lindsay and Vick.

The hitting of Halderman and Speakmon sparked the Stewart Bulldogs as they downed the Siebert Sputniks, 20-8. Cline scored two runs to lead Siebert in the hard fought, but losing cause.

Surgical, Medical Plan Offered To Over-65 Residents

A new Blue Shield plan offering surgical and medical cost protection, designed exclusively for Ohio residents age 65 and over, will shortly become available it has been announced by Charles H. Coghlan, executive vice-president of Ohio Medical Indemnity, Inc., Columbus.

This new 65-and-Over Plan will help pay for the costs of surgery, in-hospital medical care, anesthesia and radiotherapy, according to a schedule of indemnities set forth in the contract. These benefits, Coghlan said, are the same as those offered to groups through payroll deduction plans.

Enrollment in the plan will start Monday, May 16 and continue through midnight, Sunday, May 29. Ohio residents who are now age 65 or older, or who will be 65 by May 29, are eligible.

Enrollment may be made only by mail and application blanks will appear in advertisements in this newspaper during the 15-day enrollment period.

Coverage to participants will become effective July 1, 1960. Cost of the plan to each individual will be only $1.45 per month or $17.40 per year.

Actively recommended by The Ohio State Medical Association, the physicians' professional organization, this Blue Shield Plan does not require the applicant to take a physical examination or make a health statement.

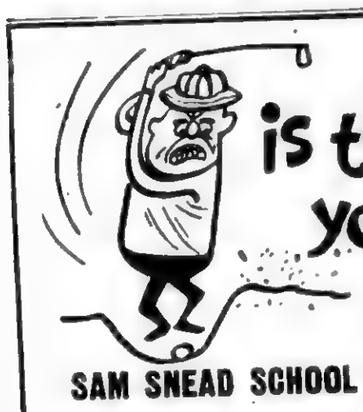
There are no exclusions because of any present or past health problems, and there are no waiting periods for pre-existing conditions. In addition, the individual does not need to be employed.

This new Blue Shield Plan, Coghlan stated, is planned to make available surgical and medical cost benefits to approximately 900,000 of the state's elder citizens who are now in the 65 or over age group.

Trailers Ready For Camping

It's Spring, and the fancy of some young men, and older ones too, is turning to thoughts of camping, says D. E. Severt, Franklin County distributor for Romany camping trailers.

Severt, president of the Suburban Heating Corp. at 1603 Frebis-av., says a new stock of trailers is on display at that address. His firm also will demonstrate the trailer at private homes.



The trailer is so light that one of the new compact cars can haul it easily, says Severt. Yet it provides more than 48 cubic feet of storage space, sleeping and living area for an entire family and has a tubular steel box frame and full nylon floor.

The trailers, available in either one or two-wheel models, can be set up in less than five minutes and provide more than 83 square feet of living area.

It's The Man Not The Fish, Who Makes Fishin' Pleasant

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Anglers seem to have been catching fish everywhere for the last few days.

Jim Mills, 1517 Truro-av, has reported a catch of 14 nice crappies from Hoover Reservoir. He used minnows for bait, and while fishing saw two anglers in a boat with a stringer full of largemouth bass.

Alan Ward, Madison County game protector, told me crappies and bass were caught over the weekend at Madison Lake. Nightcrawlers were used for the most part on the bass, and some good-sized ones were taken. Crappie fishermen were using minnows.

Little Darby Creek is still producing catfish, and smelt seems to be the most popular bait.

Pounds Not Paramount

With the height of the spring fishing rush here, it's easy to forget the real reason for going fishing. Sure, you go to catch fish! But the success of a fishing jaunt should not be gauged in number of pounds caught. You go fishing for other reasons, too. Doctors, psychologists, efficiency experts and almost everybody else you talk to nowadays insist that the pleasures of fishing are more important than the fish you bring home.

The real treasures of angling are measured in hours of soaking up spring sunshine, rolling to the gentle rock of waves, listening to the song of birds and enjoying the outdoors—and if the fish are obliging, so much the better. But the fellow who lets the catching become too important never sees these things. His basement looks like a tackle junkyard, for he has purchased every gadget he could lay his hands on that was supposed to put more fish on the stringer.

Some Lose Their Heads

When on the water, this fellow whips up a foam in his zeal to catch fish. He's been known to break rods in disgust, hurl tackle boxes or even kick his outboard motor. If he does not catch fish, he returns home in worse shape than when he left. The poor guy might as well have stayed home and taken down the storm windows, or fought crab grass all day.

It's important what a man brings home from fishing, but likely as not it won't be found in his creel. If he comes home physically tired, but mentally refreshed, sun-burned on the outside, but cool on the inside, then his trip has been a success. It is the man who makes fishin' great, not the fish.

County Fish And Game Hearing Set For May 11

The Franklin County Fish and Game Hearing will be held on Wednesday, May 11 at the Youth Center of the State Fair grounds.

Rooms 150 and 151 are reserved and the public hearing will begin at 1 p.m.

Division of Wildlife officials will be present to hear what sportsmen suggest for future hunting and fishing regulations and to answer questions that may be asked.

The session is held annually to provide sportsmen the opportunity to express opinions on fish and game laws.

At the meeting, representatives will be chosen to attend a district hearing, and ideas from that will be sent to the annual state fish and game hearing in June.

The Ambassador of Jazz and his All Stars are appearing as the final event of Ohio State's traditional May Week festivities. The show is sponsored by Ohio Staters, Inc.

Discouraging

Andre Houttekier, of Courtrai Belgium, was very pleased when a stranger in a bar offered him a cigar. It was Houttekier's own expensive brand. When he returned home, he found his house ransacked, his humidor of cigars stolen.

Off The Hook

Elwood Davis, acting as his own attorney, in Knoxville, Tenn., beat a charge that he was fishing without a license. The arresting officer could not prove the hook was baited.

State School Citizens Group Is Formed

A newly-formed Citizens' Advisory Committee for Columbus State School held its first meeting last week.

Rev. Arthur Decker, pastor of the Congregational Christian Church in Troy and former president of the Ohio Mental Health Association, is chairman of the group.

Other members of the 11-man committee are Mrs. Alexander Glockner, a member of the board of directors of the Mental Health Federation; Mrs. Hazel McIntyre, former director of special education for the State Departent of Education; William Rush, managing editor of Hartley Newspapers; Rabbi Nathan Zelizer, Broad Street Temple; Dr. Calvin Baker, former commissioner of Mental Hygiene; Robert Porter, administrator of Children's Hospital; Charles B. Kentucky Derby Field Draws TV Sports Fans This Week

The "Triple Crown of Racing," valued at $400,000-added, will again be presented on CBS-TV and WBNS-TV, Columbus, Channel 10. This racing highlight, comprising the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont Stakes, all events for three-year-olds, has been offered on CBS Television since 1948.

The $125,000-added Kentucky Derby will be televised Saturday, May 7, from 5:15 to 9:45 p.m. Last year's Derby winner was Tomy Lee, who did not run in either of the other two "Triple Crown" races.

The Preakness, richest of the three races at $150,000-added, will be presented on Saturday, May 21, from 5:30 to 6:00 p.m. The program will originate at Pimlico Race Track, Baltimore, Md. Royal Orbit was 1959 Preakness winner.

The $125,000-added Belmont Stakes, final jewel of the "Triple Crown," will be presented on Saturday, June 11, from Belmont Park, N.Y., from 4:30 to 5:00 p.m. Sword Dancer won last year's Belmont.

Citation was the last horse to win the "Triple Crown," in 1948. Only eight three-year-olds have won all three races in the same year. Tim Tam, in 1958, won the Kentucky Derby and Preakness ran second in the Belmont.

"Hong Kong," an hour-long adventure series, will be a new entry in the 1960-61 season on ABC-TV sponsored by The Kaiser Industries.

The program will be produced for ABC-TV by 20th Century-Fox Television.

YMCA's Camp Willson Offering Summer Outdoor Fun To Boys

A Scene When Fun Hits Peak At Camp Willson

Here's great news for all boys between the ages of eight and seventeen who love the excitement and thrill of boating, fishing, horseback riding, swimming, and many other fascinating, planned outdoor activities.

All these can be had for the asking at beautiful Camp Alfred L. Willson, located near Bellefontaine and hour and a half drive from Columbus.

Camp Willson is owned and operated by the Columbus YMCA and is situated in a natural wooded area of 337 acres. Its 70 acres of Lake-Mac-O-Chee provides swimming, boating and canoeing.

The YMCA is a member of the American Camping Association and provides its campers with top-flight leadership. A trained Camp Director is on duty at all times. The camp staff is composed of college graduates and undergraduates with previous YMCA or camp experience. Each counselor is an outstanding leader and is carefully selected. And a medical student is a member of the staff.

Camp Willson's program, called "Adventure through Nature," is carefully planned so that boys share with others the happy friendship of a group learning and living together. Daily activities include baseball, tennis archery, cookouts, chuck-wagon feeds and arts and crafts. Evening programs include camp fires, Indian ceremonies, talent shows and others.

Well-built cabins house 12 campers and their counselors. Food is of the best quality and served in generous amounts to satisfy all appetites.

Camp Willson is a non-profit operation. The fees, which are very reasonable, along with funds from the United Community Council, are used to provide the best facilities for the boys and to maintain the camp in tip-top condition.

Complete information on Camp Willson can be obtained by writing or calling Camp Willson Headquarters, YMCA, 40 West Long-st, CA. 4-1131.

It's The Man Not The Fish, Who Makes Fishin' Pleasant

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Anglers seem to have been catching fish everywhere for the last few days.

Jim Mills, 1317 Truro-av, has reported a catch of 14 nice crappies from Hoover Reservoir. He used minnows for bait, and while fishing saw two anglers in a boat with a stringer full of largemouth bass.

Alan Ward, Madison County game protector, told me crappies and bass were caught over the weekend at Madison Lake. Nightcrawlers were used for the most part on the bass, and some good-sized ones were taken. Crappie fishermen were using minnows.

Little Darby Creek is still producing catfish, and smelt seems to be the most popular bait.

Pounds Not Paramount

With the height of the spring fishing rush here, it's easy to forget the real reason for going fishing. Sure, you go to catch fish! But the success of a fishing jaunt should not be gauged in number of pounds caught. You go fishing for other reasons, too. Doctors, psychologists, efficiency experts and almost everybody else you talk to nowadays insist that the pleasures of fishing are more important than the fish you bring home.

The real treasures of angling are measured in hours of soaking up spring sunshine, rolling to the gentle rock of waves, listening to the song of birds and enjoying the outdoors—and if the fish are obliging, so much the better. But the fellow who lets the catching become too important never sees these things. His basement looks like a tackle junkyard, for he has purchased every gadget he could lay his hands on that was supposed to put more fish on the stringer.

Some Lose Their Heads

When on the water, this fellow whips up a foam in his zeal to catch fish. He's been known to break rods in disgust, hurl tackle boxes or even kick his outboard motor. If he does not catch fish, he returns home in worse shape than when he left. The poor guy might as well have stayed home and taken down the storm windows, or fought crab grass all day.

It's important what a man brings home from fishing, but likely as not it won't be found in his creel. If he comes home physically tired, but mentally refreshed, sun-burned on the outside, but cool on the inside, then his trip has been a success. It is the man who makes fishin' great, not the fish.

County Fish And Game Hearing Set For May 11

The session is held annually to provide sportsmen the opportunity to express opinions on fish and game laws.

At the meeting, representatives will be chosen to attend a district hearing, and ideas from that will be sent to the annual state fish and game hearing in June.

Which tire is BEST for you?

Buying the right tire is as easy as B-F-G!

B-F-G "HT" Silvertown
The Extra Smileage tire is best for drivers who pile on the mileage, can take advantage of its economy. For only 10% more than a new-car tire, it delivers 22% more mileage. Extra quiet rubber, too.

B-F-G Long Miler
Best bet for 'round town drivers who don't travel the superhighways, or don't often speed it up. Same tread design as the new-car Silvertown but the body's not quite as rugged . . . and we don't recommend it for constant high-speed driving.

B-F-G Silvertown
By far the best tire for Normal driving. Tough Tyrex cord body. Big tread puts lots of non-skid rubber on the road. Built to give more Smileage for drivers who take a few long trips each year, hundreds of short ones, and a lot of city-country, all-around driving.

New Junk Yard Regulation To Require Masonry Fence

Heimandale Group Goes Before Council

South Side residents gained another victory in their fight to make junk yards moving into their area more presentable.

Twenty five members of the Heimandale Civic Association and representatives of St. Stephen's Community House went to the Columbus City Council meeting Monday night and secured passage of amendments to restrictions on the junk yards.

The new regulations require that junk yards be enclosed by a seven foot high masonry fence. The amended ordinance also requires that the walls be maintained in a neat, substantial and safe condition and that no junk be stored above the height of the wall.

The original ordinance introduced by Councilman William Hoermle required that a fence be constructed to improve the appearance of the junk yards but did not specify the type of materials to be used.

The junk yards in the area complied by building fences of various types of new and used wood and one erected sheets of a metallic nature.

The Heimendale group, headed by Mrs. Carl Miller, was not satisfied by the appearance of the structures and took action to obtain more presentable enclosures.

Mrs. Miller, who lives on Groveport-rd, between two of the recently established junk yards, stated "the wooden fences are a fire hazard and are not neat. The owners cn put any color paint or even several different color paints on the fences."

The residents of the area which is bounded by Parsons-av, Lockbourne-rd, Heimandale Park and Buckeye Steel Casting have tried to stop junk yards moving to their section. Since they have been unable to stop their coming into the area, they decided to work for the improvement of their appearance.

City Attorney Russell Leach did not foresee an immediate change in the fences of the junk yards. He was of the opinion that the dealers could not be required to comply with the new restrictions until they ask for a renewal of their licenses or apply for new licenses.

He interpreted the regulations to require that the masonry wall completely encircle the junk yards. Most of the yards now have fences only on the sections facing the street areas.

Mrs. Miller expressed appreciation for the co-operation and immediate action the group received from the City Council. She still has hopes of getting the area rezoned to eliminate the junk yards.

Help The 'Y' Reach Goal By June 1

An extra all out effort is being made through the county by the many workers in the YM-YW Development Fund drive to round up as many pledges as possible for the big building fund drive before June 1.

Throughout the city and county many individuals and business firms that should make contributions to this worthy cause have not yet come forward and done so. It is hoped that they will give the matter their most serious attention in the next few days.

If you are asked to make a pledge remember that in doing so you will be aiding in a much needed building program that will be of importance to the youth of our communities for many years to come. If you are not personally contacted why not call the YM-YW headquarters or any of the workers in the campaign and volunteer your gift.

Now is the time. The Y is the need!

Good Old Days May Not Have Been So Good

We hear a lot about the good old days but a recent survey of grocery prices points out that in comparison with today's prices the good old days may not have been quite as good as they are painted.

The prices of today's foods are often increased by the fact that the housewife now buys ready prepared or frozen items which may cost a little more.

A look back at an old grocery list in 1868 shows that a grocery bill that amounted to $4.68 then will now come out around $4.65. Let's take a look:

	Then	Now
Sugar, lb.	$ .15	$ .11
Raisins, lb.	.30	.31
Tea, lb.	2.00	1.74
Squash, lb.	.02¼	.08

South Side Community Nighters Sponsors Student Baseball Clinic

The South Side Community Night Committee will sponsor a baseball clinic at Southview Field, Greenlawn-av, Saturday, May 28, at 10:30 a.m.

The clinic, featuring Columbus Jet players as instructors, is an advance benefit of Community Night to be held Friday, June 10, at Jet Stadium. Part of the proceeds of the advance ticket sales will be returned to the community for the youth programs of the various organization participating in sponsoring the event.

Making it a family night affair has been the goal of the Community Night Committee and the idea was given a boost early this week when the Jets' management announced that Jet badges would be honored that night.

Boys and girls having Jet badges will be allowed to sit in the special section reserved for South Side Community Night when accompanied by a holder of a Community Night ticket.

The committee believes this is a real break for Mom, who will be able to accompany Dad and the children with Jet badges for the total cost of two tickets.

Any persons who cannot attend Community Night but would like to support the event can contribute a ticket to be used by a South Side youth.

Tickets for the event can be purchased at the South Side YMCA, at Fountain Drug Store, and from members of the groups belonging to the Council of South Side Organizations.

Child Center Gets $100,000 Federal Grant

Building fund for the planned Diocesan Child Guidance Center, to be built across from Mt. Carmel Hospital, has received a $100,000 boost from a Hill-Burton grant.

Federal funds will be matched two to one with Diocesan money in building the $312,000 structure.

The out-patient clinic will be operated independently from Mt. Carmel, but will benefit from the hospital's facilities and trained staff members.

Construction on the center is expected to get under way in the near future.

Friday 13th Is Lucky For East Siders

According to Tom Green and Joe Davidson, this Friday, the 13th, will be a lucky day for small car buyers in the Columbus East End area.

The new Davidson-Green Volkswagen headquarters, 701 S. Hamilton-rd, will officially open this Friday and Saturday.

Plans for the two-day celebration include refreshments and a film, "The Birth of An Automobile," featuring scenes taken in the West Germany Volkswagen plant.

Green was previously service manager of a local auto agency and is a graduate of the University of Maryland. Davidson, a Cornell grad, is a mechanical engineer.

A staff of eight men handles the agency's service department and five members take care of sales and administration.

Many models of world renowned cars and trucks will be on display, Friday, in the showroom.

Area Pioneer Family Has Four Generations

The arrival of little Dorenda Mullins Mar. 31, on the birthday of her mother, Mrs. Rex Mullins, completed four generations for the family of South Side pioneer, Mrs. Tabitha Dodson, 493 Hinman-av.

A native of Perry County, she and her husband moved to Hinman-av in June, 1916, when the street was dirt and there were only two houses between theirs and Parsons-av.

They moved to the 493 address ten years later.

The family takes more than the usual residents' interest in the street and its growth, for they had a hand in much of its development.

Mrs. Dodson recalls her husband "personally cindered the street for the first time, hauling the materials in himself. And he persuaded City Councilman Fred Zimpfer to install the first street light on Hinman.

The firehouse on Parsons-av and vivid memories of the horses galloping past her home are among Mrs. Dodson's memories of Hinman-av as it was then.

Before his death Mr. Dodson was an employe of Buckeye Steel Castings Co.

The family roots are still deep in the South Side. Mrs. Patrick Holt lives at 508 Woodrow and another daughter, Mrs. Steve Fejes, is a resident of 289 Markison-av.

Miss Cleary Is May Queen At Mt. St. Clare

Miss Marynell Cleary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Cleary, 657 S. Front-st, has been elected by vote of the entire student body at Mt. St. Clare Academy, Clinton, Ia., to be May Queen, Sunday, May 15, 2:30 p.m. She is a senior.

She, with her six attendants, will lead a procession to the Lourdes grotto on west campus where she will crown the statue of the Virgin Mary.

Following the coronation, hymns and the Sodalists' consecration to Mary, the students and congregated guests will march in procession to the new Mt. St. Clare auditorium where relatives and friends will be entertained by the academy 62-voice chorus.

Moose Unit Names Queen

Women of the Moose, Chapter 208, will hold its chapter meeting Thursday, May 12, at the Moose Lodge, 36 W. Sycamore-st.

Irene Breakeall, membership chairman will be in charge.

Membership queen for 1960 will be crowned for having brought in the most members.

The queen selected for this year is Marilyn Young, junior regent of the chapter. Mable Gregory, senior regent, will preside.

Gar Is 'Shark' Of Fresh Water Fishes

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Tom Maggard, West Jefferson, took recently what would be a trophy gar fish if such a strange looking creature could be called a trophy. The gar came from Deer Creek, near Mt. Sterling, and Maggard gigged six others the same night while after suckers. The big gar was 48½ inches in length.

This fish was almost certainly a longnose gar, since the other three kinds of which there are records in the state are quite rare. Milton B. Trautman, 3275 Olentangy-rd, author of "The Fishes of Ohio," states in his excellent book that the largest longnose gar coming to his attention in more than 30 years of fisheries work was four feet, six inches. This is just five and one-half inches longer than the gar Tom Maggard speared the other night.

While gars are common in waters of this area, they are not as abundant as they once were. Older fishermen will tell you of seeing more of them in years past. Sightings of schools of gars basking in the Scioto River were not uncommon.

All of the gars have long, narrow snouts lined with teeth, which gives a pretty good hint of their feeding habits. They are predatory, and once they grab a fish it has little chance of escape—these fish might be called fresh water sharks. (The record for alligator gars is one taken in Louisiana that weighed 302 pounds, but there are only a few records of this species in the state in the last 50 years and all were in the Ohio River near Cincinnati.)

State Record 14 Pounds

The longnose gars seen in this vicinity are long and slender, and most of them are small. I do not believe I have ever seen one much more than 20 inches in length, and at this size they weigh about a pound. Tom estimated the one he speared to weigh about 12 pounds, and the record-holder for the state weighed 14.

It is interesting to speculate on how many fish a gar would eat in a year—and fishermen always do this. Certainly they take their share, but they may not always be game fish—in fact, their food may be rough fish more often than not. They are probably like the rest of us; they take what they can get.

Gars must not do great harm to fish populations, for game species did not noticeably increase as the gars declined. This is so true of many situations in nature—there are many factors responsible. Decreasing a single predator, or a dozen, may not have much effect. But, if everyone realized this, we wouldn't have so much to talk about, and life wouldn't be nearly so interesting.

The huge gar was the high-point of Tom's trip. It thrashed the water to a froth, and bent the gig. But Tom stuck it out, and landed the brute. I would have liked to have taken a picture of the fish, but he didn't bring it in—it weighed too much to drag back to the car. He laid it along his gig pole and notched its length to measure when he got home.

Oh yes, he got some suckers, too.

Consumer Report

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK LOOK FOR:

Vegetables—Asparagus, snap beans, spinach, greenhouse tomatoes, celery, carrots, escarole.

Fruits—Bananas, rhubarb, Valencia oranges, canned cling peaches, frozen lemonade.

THE GREENHOUSE TOMATO

The Greenhouse tomato—queen of all tomatoes—is here again. This is the tomato that really lives in a glass house. It's grown in greenhouses under controlled soil, temperature and moisture conditions. The supply of this high-quality tomato will be largest during late May and early June. And, of course, that's the time you can buy them at the lowest price.

FOOD SHOPPERS SAY greenhouse tomatoes come closer to the ideal tomato than do the vine-ripe or tube tomatoes. This fact is revealed in a study done at the Ohio State University. On flavor and texture, greenhouse medium tomatoes were rated "good" by nine out of 10 customers, compared with four out of 10 for vine-ripe, and two out of 10 for tube tomatoes. All three kinds of tomatoes are available now.

GREENHOUSE TOMATOES are Ohio's most valuable single fruit or vegetable crop. Each year's crop has a money value at 16 to 20 million dollars at the wholesale level.

Close to 600 acres of greenhouse tomatoes are grown in Ohio. Two crops are grown each year on many of the acres—one in the spring and one in the fall.

An average spring crop yields about 98,000 pounds per acre. The fall crop yield averages lower, about 56,000 pounds per acre. This is due largely to less sunshine during the fall growing period.

The Cleveland area leads in greenhouse tomato production, followed by Toledo, Cincinnati and Columbus.

WHEN YOU BUY

The green calyx (green stem) is the "trademark" of greenhouse tomatoes and one way to distinguish it from vine-ripes or tube tomatoes. However, it is no longer a sure sign of identity. Many southern field-grown ones also have the green calyx.

Other tips are to read the label, if prepackaged, or ask the grocer if there is no label, to be sure you are getting greenhouse tomatoes. The ones that are firm, plump and free from blemishes are most economical. The color may be red or pink, depending on the variety.

CARE AT HOME—Do not store greenhouse tomatoes in the refrigerator. Low temperatures hinder the development of full flavor in greenhouse tomatoes. Keep them out of direct sunlight. If you like to serve chilled tomatoes, place them in the refrigerator a short time before serving.

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE TIME NOT FAR AWAY

Growers say strawberries are in bloom throughout Ohio. Much depends on the weather, but peak of local harvest is expected the first part of June. Meanwhile, Arkansas, Alabama, South Carolina and western Tennessee are starting harvest.

Summer Swim Program Announced For YWCA Pool

Registrations are being taken now for summer swimming lessons at the YWCA.

The classes begin the week of June 13, and registration must be made in advance. Classes are scheduled for girls six through 17 years of age, boys six through eight years of age and adult women. The pool is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Lessons are scheduled according to abilities of swimmers—beginner, intermediates, advanced, synchronized swimming and diving. Special instruction is organized for junior-senior high school girls. Also there are special classes for boys and girls three to five years old. Registrations for tiny tots will be taken after May 21.

Adults will meet Tuesday and Thursday mornings and Monday through Thursday evenings. Beginners' classes start every week. The pool is also open every day for children for a free swim period and every evening for adults. Registrants should call the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Office of the YWCA. A physical examination is required of every one using the pool and enrollment in the classes will be limited.

More Mature Elvis Makes TV Appearance This Week

Elvis Presley, after returning to civilian life, will resume his place in the entertainment world with an appearance as special guest on the Frank Sinatra Show, Thursday, May 12, at 9:30 on Channel 6.

A little more mature in appearance, perhaps, Elvis demonstrates he has also matured professionally. The voice is a bit deeper, the delivery more authoritative. Elvis will be in the company of other great stars, such as Sinatra, Joey Biship, Peter Lawford, Sammy Davis Jr. and Nancy Sinatra.

Producer's Choice will present "Neighbors" Thursday, May 12, at 8:30, on Channel 4, starring Joseph Cotten, Leora Dana and Mary Murphy. A club woman discovers her selfish interests are driving her husband into the arms of a widow.

The Phil Silvers Show brings Sergeant Bilko, eager for cash, setting up a radio station, using army equipment, to replace the closed-down Roseville station. During an inspection of the camp, they must keep their microphone moving, and in moving, pick up a spat between Colonel Hall and his wife. Bilko bills it as a soap opera and the listening public appeals for it to continue.

Roughing It, a dramatization of Mark Twain's book of reminiscences of the Nevada Gold Rush days, will be presented on Channel 4, Friday, May 13, at 10 p.m. Twain will be portrayed both as a young man during the six years when he served as an unpaid aide to his brother, secretary of the Nevada Territory, and in his later years as a wry commentator on this period of his life. James Daly will play Mark Twain. Co-starring will be Andrew Prine, Frances Heflin and George Mathews.

NBC Major League Baseball will bring the Milwaukee Braves and Pittsburgh Pirates together at County Stadium in Milwaukee, Saturday, May 14, at 1:25 p.m.

Eyewitness to History will be devoted to on-the-scene coverage of the Big Four summit meeting in Paris, Tuesday, May 17, 8:30 p.m., on Channel 10. Reports will be special background material filmed in West Berlin and behind the Iron Curtain in East Germany.

Western access to West Berlin and Soviet Premier Khrushchev's demand for Western recognition of the East German satellite regime will be included in the reports. The program will also feature special reports from Geneva on the disarmament negotiations currently being conducted.

Playhouse 90 presents a special production of Rod Sterling's "In the Presence of Mine Enemies," Wednesday, May 18, at 9:30 p.m., on Channel 10. The story is of how a rabbi and other Warsaw Ghetto residents lived, suffered and fought back against their Nazi oppressors during the World War II years between 1940 and 1943.

The cast will include Charles Laughton, Arthur Kennedy, Susan Kohner, Oscar Homolka, George Macready and Sam Jaffe.

Mifflin Girl Tops County Honor Group

Ruth Higginbotham, of Mifflin, has been elected the new president of the Franklin County Honor Society.

Other officers selected at the organization's meeting last week at the Franklin County Court House were Clyde Garrett, New Albany, vice-president; Mary Jo Reinking, Reynoldsburg, secretary, and Connie Hensley, Grove City, treasurer.

Holding other offices are Waldo Walker, Dublin, scholarships; Sandra Stewart, Gahanna-Lincoln, services; Susan Johnson, Canal Winchester, leadership; Sharon Reichart, Groveport, character; Sharon Werstlein, Hamilton Township, reverence; William Geese, Hilliard, conductor; Jeanne Groene, Grove City, pianist, and James White, Mifflin, flag bearer.

MAILMAN'S HOLIDAY

Oakland, Calif.—Postman Bernard J. Connolly is on a 16-week European "tour of understanding." During the trip Connolly plans to deliver 13,000 letters written by people along his mail route to relatives and friends abroad.

FOOT HEALTH WEEK PROCLAIMED

FOR FIT FEET—Mayor Ralston Westlake (right) put his best foot forward this week and proclaimed May 8 to 15 as Foot Health Week. Here, he greets members of a local academy of the Ohio Chiropodists Association, (from left) Dr. C. R. Ellis, 1231½ S. Highland-av; Dr. Donald Plotnick, 1212 Strisbel-av, and Dr. Peter Viahos, 482 S. It was pointed out that business and industry loses millions of dollars every year because of poor foot health of workers and that 75 per cent of the U.S. population is afflicted with foot disability.

Camp Fire Girls Prepare For 'Spazz-Up' At Camp

Just a few days remain for Camp Fire Girl families to make their reservations for the "Spazz-Up" time at Camp Wyandot, on Memorial Day week-end, May 28 through May 30. A nominal fee is charged to participate in the camping and mealtime activities.

The attractions are hiking, swimming, programs, the Gold Diggers Supper, Indian Game Night, crafts, Witches Cave, Carmichaels, Windy Bluff, rowing on Lake Atagahi, Salt Peter's Cave, and the Christening of the New Egypt.

It is hoped to get the "Spazz-Up" activities done quickly, so most of the time can be spent having fun. Clearing the underbrush, painting the water towers, readying the kitchen for the summer campers are the main chores to be done at this time.

Deadline for the reservations is May 15, and may be made by calling Betty Ogle, HI. 2-9713.

Committee meetings to be held within the week at the Camp Fire Girls office, 718 S. High-st, are Group Organization, 7:30 p.m., May 12, and Leaders' Cabinet, May 16, 10 a.m. The Camp Property Committee will hold a work day at Camp Wyandot, May 14.

The Camp Fire Girls organization is one of the youth groups eligible to participate in the viewing of the Oscar-winning "Ben-Hur" at reduced prices.

Groups should be at least 20 in number. One adult will be the guest of the theatre, when accompanying 20 children.

Gar Is 'Shark' Of Fresh Water Fishes

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Tom Maggard, West Jefferson, took recently what would be a trophy gar fish if such a strange looking creature could be called a trophy. The gar came from Deer Creek, near Mt. Sterling, and Maggard gigged six others the same night while after suckers. The big gar was 48½ inches in length.

This fish was almost certainly a longnose gar, since the other three kinds of which there are records in the state are quite rare. Milton B. Trautman, 3875 Olentangy-rd, author of "The Fishes of Ohio," states in his excellent book that the largest longnose gar coming to his attention in more than 30 years of fisheries work was four feet, six inches. This is just five and one-half inches longer than the gar Tom Maggard speared the other night.

While gars are common in waters of this area, they are not as abundant as they once were. Older fishermen will tell you of seeing more of them in years past. Sightings of schools of gars basking in the Scioto River were not uncommon.

All of the gars have long, narrow snouts lined with teeth, which gives a pretty good hint of their feeding habits. They are predatory, and once they grab a fish it has little chance of escape—these fish might be called fresh water sharks. (The record for alligator gars is one taken in Louisiana that weighed 302 pounds, but there are only a few records of this species in the state in the last 50 years and all were in the Ohio River near Cincinnati.)

State Record 14 Pounds

The longnose gars seen in this vicinity are long and slender, and most of them are small. I do not believe I have ever seen one much more than 20 inches in length, and at this size they weigh about a pound. Tom estimated the one he speared to weigh about 12 pounds, and the record-holder for the state weighed 14.

It is interesting to speculate on how many fish a gar would eat in a year—and fishermen always do this. Certainly they take their share, but they may not always be game fish—in fact, their food may be rough fish more often than not. They are probably like the rest of us; they take what they can get.

Gars must not do great harm to fish populations, for game species did not noticeably increase as the gars declined. This is so true of many situations in nature—there are many factors responsible. Decreasing a single predator, or a dozen, may not have much effect. But, if everyone realized this, we wouldn't have so much to talk about, and life wouldn't be nearly so interesting.

The huge gar was the high-point of Tom's trip. It thrashed the water to a froth, and bent the gig. But Tom stuck it out, and landed the brute. I would have liked to have taken a picture of the fish, but he didn't bring it in—it weighed too much to drag back to the car. He laid it along his gig pole and notched its length to measure when he got home.

Oh yes, he got some suckers, too.

Consumer Report

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK LOOK FOR:

Vegetables—Asparagus, snap beans, spinach, greenhouse tomatoes, celery, carrots, escarole.

Fruits—Bananas, rhubarb, Valencia oranges, canned cling peaches, frozen lemonade.

Protein Foods—Pork loins, chuck roasts, Boston butts, steak "specials," fryers, large eggs.

THE GREENHOUSE TOMATO

The Greenhouse tomato—queen of all tomatoes—is here again. This is the tomato that really lives in a glass house. It's grown in greenhouses under controlled soil, temperature and moisture conditions. The supply of this high-quality tomato will be largest during late May and early June. And, of course, that's the time you can buy them at the lowest price.

FOOD SHOPPERS SAY greenhouse tomatoes come closer to the ideal tomato than do the vine-ripe or tube tomatoes. This fact is revealed in a study done at the Ohio State University. On flavor and texture, greenhouse medium tomatoes were rated "good" by nine out of 10 customers, compared with four out of 10 for vine-ripe, and two out of 10 for tube tomatoes. All three kinds of tomatoes are available now.

GREENHOUSE TOMATOES are Ohio's most valuable single fruit or vegetable crop. Each year's crop has a money value at 16 to 20 million dollars at the wholesale level.

Close to 800 acres of greenhouse tomatoes are grown in Ohio. Two crops are grown each year on many of the acres—one in the spring and one in the fall.

An average spring crop yields about 90,000 pounds per acre. The fall crop yield averages lower, about 56,000 pounds per acre. This is due largely to less sunshine during the fall growing period.

The Cleveland area leads in greenhouse tomato production, followed by Toledo, Cincinnati and Columbus.

WHEN YOU BUY

The green calyx (green stem) is the "trademark" of greenhouse tomatoes and one way to distinguish it from vine-ripes or tube tomatoes. However, it is no longer a sure sign of identity. Many southern field-grown ones also have the green calyx.

Other tips are to read the label, if prepackaged, or ask the grocer if there is no label, to be sure you are getting greenhouse tomatoes. The ones that are firm, plump and free from blemishes are most economical. The color may be red or pink, depending on the variety.

CARE AT HOME—Do not store greenhouse tomatoes in the refrigerator. Low temperatures hinder the development of full flavor in greenhouse tomatoes. Keep them out of direct sunlight. If you like to serve chilled tomatoes, place them in the refrigerator a short time before serving.

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE TIME NOT FAR AWAY

Growers say strawberries are in bloom throughout Ohio. Much depends on the weather, but peak of local harvest is expected the first part of June. Meanwhile, Arkansas, Alabama, South Carolina and western Tennessee are starting harvest.

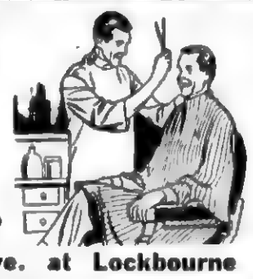
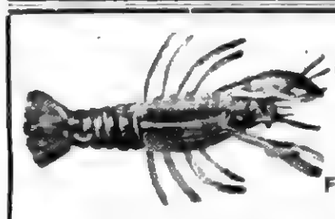
Summer Swim Program Announced For YWCA Pool

Registrations are being taken now for summer swimming lessons at the YWCA.

The classes begin the week of June 13, and registration must be made in advance. Classes are scheduled for girls six through 17 years of age, boys six through eight years of age and adult women. The pool is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.



Lessons are scheduled according to abilities of swimmers—beginner, intermediates, advanced, synchronized swimming and diving. Special instruction is organized for junior-senior high school girls. Also there are special classes for boys and girls three to five years old. Registrations for tiny tots will be taken after May 21.



Adults will meet Tuesday and Thursday mornings and Monday through Thursday evenings. Beginners' classes start every week. The pool is also open every day for children for a free swim period and every evening for adults. Registrants should call the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Office of the YWCA. A physical examination is required of every one using the pool and enrollment in the classes will be limited.

More Mature Elvis Makes TV Appearance This Week

Elvis Presley, after returning to civilian life, will resume his place in the entertainment world with an appearance as special guest on the Frank Sinatra Show, Thursday, May 12, at 9:30 on Channel 6.

A little more mature in appearance, perhaps, Elvis demonstrates he has also matured professionally. The voice is a bit deeper, the delivery more authoritative. Elvis will be in the company of other great stars, such as Sinatra, Joey Bishop, Peter Lawford, Sammy Davis Jr. and Nancy Sinatra.

Producer's Choice will present "Neighbors" Thursday, May 12, at 8:30, on Channel 4, starring Joseph Cotten, Leora Dana and Mary Murphy. A club woman discovers her selfish interests are driving her husband into the arms of a widow.

The Phil Silvers Show brings Sergeant Bilko, eager for cash, setting up a radio station, using army equipment, to replace the closed-down Roseville station. During an inspection of the camp, they must keep their microphone moving, and in moving, pick up a spat between Colonel Hall and his wife. Bilko bills it as a soap opera and the listening public appeals for it to continue.

Roughing It, a dramatization of Mark Twain's book of reminiscences of the Nevada Gold Rush days, will be presented on Channel 4, Friday, May 13, at 10 p.m. Twain will be portrayed both as a young man during the six years when he served as an unpaid aide to his brother, secretary of the Nevada Territory, and in his later years as a wry commentator on this period of his life. James Daly will play Mark Twain. Co-starring will be Andrew Prine, Frances Heflin and George Mathews.

NBC Major League Baseball will bring the Milwaukee Braves and Pittsburgh Pirates together at County Stadium in Milwaukee, Saturday, May 14, at 1:25 p.m.

Eyewitness to History will be devoted to on-the-scene coverage of the Big Four summit meeting in Paris, Tuesday, May 17, 8:30 p.m., on Channel 10. Reports will be special background material filmed in West Berlin and behind the Iron Curtain in East Germany.

Western access to West Berlin and Soviet Premier Khrushchev's demand for Western recognition of the East German satellite regime will be included in the reports. The program will also feature special reports from Geneva on the disarmament negotiations currently being conducted.

Playhouse 90 presents a special production of Rod Sterling's "In the Presence of Mine Enemies," Wednesday, May 18, at 8:30 p.m., on Channel 10. The story is of how a rabbi and other Warsaw Ghetto residents lived, suffered and fought back against their Nazi oppressors during the World War II years between 1940 and 1943.

The cast will include Charles Laughton, Arthur Kennedy, Susan Kohner, Oscar Homolka, George Macready and Sam Jaffe.

Mifflin Girl Tops County Honor Group

Ruth Higginbotham, of Mifflin, has been elected the new president of the Franklin County Honor Society.

Other officers selected at the organization's meeting last week at the Franklin County Court House were Clyde Garrett, New Albany, vice-president; Mary Jo Reinking, Reynoldsburg, secretary, and Connie Hensley, Grove City, treasurer.

Holding other offices are Waldo Walker, Dublin, scholarships; Sandra Stewart, Gahanna-Lincoln, services; Susan Johnson, Canal Winchester, leadership; Sharon Reichart, Groveport, character; Sharon Werstlein, Hamilton Township, reverence; William Geese, Hilliard, conductor; Jeanne Groene, Grove City, pianist, and James White, Mifflin, flag bearer.

MAILMAN'S HOLIDAY

Oakland, Calif.—Postman Bernard J. Connolly is on a 16-week European "tour of understanding." During the trip Connolly plans to deliver 13,000 letters written by people along his mail route to relatives and friends abroad.

Schiederer's Complaint Is Thrown Out

On Apr. 27, the Ohio Supreme Court ruled the state took no property right from Nora M. Scheiderer of 192 S. Sandusky-st, when it constructed the elevated Mound-Sandusky Expressway so as to obstruct the view from her home.

The court denied her a writ to compel State Highway Director E. S. Preston to file proceedings to set a price for the property rights.

She said the street in front of her property was reduced from 60 to 26 feet and the expressway is 18 feet high, interfering with a view of the street.

SOFTBALL LEAGUE READY TO PLAY

Y INTER-CHURCH TEAMS—Rev. Robert Long, Wagner Memorial EUB Church pastor, conducts a ceremony to start the first game of the South Side "Y" Inter-Church Softball League. Rev. Long is seen with a group of players and managers at the Southwood Field on Monday, May 2.

South, Marion-Franklin Alive In Tournament

Both of the South Side's "AA" baseball nines remained in the thick of things in the Central District Tournament last week.

South managed to keep its hopes alive by sneaking past a slick Washington C. H. crew 12 to 1 and the Red Devils remained in contention with a 7-6 win over Worthington.

Roger Powell proved the man of the hour for M-F slamming out a homer in the top of the tenth giving the Red Devils a 7-6 verdict when the chips were down.

It wasn't the first round tripper for the Devils, however, as Dick Reese, Ray Fischer and Ralph Ruh also covered the basepaths once apiece against the Cardinals.

It was the fine pitching of Jim Cordell that proved the major factor in South's win over the Blue Lions. The Bulldog moundsmen limited the opponents four hits and helped his own cause with a base-full triple in the second frame.

The two clubs continue in action this week with Eastmoor at South and Marion-Franklin at Westerville. If the two local aggregates should win, they would meet in the playoff tilt the following night.

If it's possible to get the preliminaries out of the way early this week, the finals in the division will be decided at Jet Stadium Saturday with a doubleheader.

In other action this week, Linden kept its grip on the City League race by pounding out a 10-3 win over South.

Stewart Wins League Clash In Last Frame

The Stewart Bulldogs scored a run in the last of the fifth inning to edge out the Lincoln Park Scarlets 5-4 last week in the YMCA Thursday Night League.

Danny Stone and Richard Pope were the leading hitters for Lincoln Park, while Joe Stevens and Carl Brown delivered the spark for Stewart's win.

The Reeb Rebels and Siebert Sputniks locked horns in a real slug-fest won by Reeb 12-11. Roger Houck led the Siebert team with three runs and two hits.

For Reeb, Moore and Hicks had three hits each and Vick scored three runs and Hicks, four to lead their team to victory.

The Beck Pirates seem to have found a fine pitcher in James Burton, but Stanley topped Beck 5-1.

Leading hitters for Siebert were Robinson and Trott with two hits each, while Enyart, Burton and Downs had two hits each for Beck.

Three South YMCA Loops Get Underway Last Week

With the weatherman cooperating, three South Side YMCA Inter-Church Softball Leagues got off to a flying start last week, while the Intermediate and Senior Slow Pitch circuits had their final practice sessions and will begin regular season play tonight and tomorrow night respectively.

In the Monday Junior Boys loop Gates-Fourth Methodist defeated Hungarian E&R in a real slugfest, 19-16. Bruce Trott led the Methodists with three hits, while Rich Sabo was the big man with the bat for Hungarian.

Church of God's power packed nine won over Wagner Memorial and Washington Avenue EUB, had on their hitting togs in their win over Livingston Methodist. In other wash day tilts, Rick Anderson's two homers highlighted the Washington attack.

In the Tuesday Girls League, St. Paul E&R, South Methodist, and St. John E&R had power to burn as they scored opening night victories in the distaff division while Livingston Methodist entered the select class by outlasting Thurman Methodist 20-14. Sandy Neff and Sandy Graham had four hits each for Livingston. Barb Nicholson, Bonnie Brown and Jackie Schoonover also deserve mention for their hitting.

In Wednesday Juniors play, last year's champion, Emmanuel Lutheran opened defense of its crown with a convincing win over South Methodist. Jim Ellis and Mike Crist took hitting honors while Steve Toth pitched in mid-season form.

St. Paul E&R downed St. Paul Lutheran, 11-5; Ohio Ave. EUB eked out a close one over Southwood Church of Christ, and St. Johns was awarded a victory over Oakwood.

In other games, Gary Kroft of Ohio grabbed the player of the week honors by clouting three home runs to lead his team to victory.

Barrett Batters George C. Beery

Barrett Junior High School won a baseball game from George C. Beery Junior High Tuesday. The win made Barrett 4 and 1 in the South Section League.

On Tuesday, Apr. 26, a week before the George C. Beery Game, Barrett lost to Hilltonia by a score of 7 to 1. The loss to Hilltonia tied Barrett and Hilltonia.

Barrett plays West Junior High School at Lincoln Park field on Tuesday, May 17.

Youth, 11, Burned By Explosion

Louis George Loreti, Jr., 11 389 E. Mithoff-st, was in poor condition in Children's Hospital Wednesday with burns suffered Sunday when he dropped a lighted match into a gasoline can in front of 420 E. Mithoff-st.

He had third degree burns over nearly 80 per cent of his body.

Robert Dowler, 38, 421 E. Mithoff-st, said he heard the sound of an explosion. "I rushed to the door and saw the boy was a mass of flames," he said.

"I grabbed a blanket and ran to him." Dowler was joined by two neighbors, Roy Sims and Wayne White, who helped wrap the screaming boy in a blanket and roll him on the wet ground.

Firemen said ignited fumes in a five gallon gasoline can caused the explosion, which ripped off the bottom of the can and sent a fiery spray over the youth's face and body.

Young Loreti's father, a bartender, was at home at the time, watching television with a younger son, Alfred Stephen, 10. He and the children's mother are divorced.

Roosevelt Plans Spring Music Show

Roosevelt Junior High School will hold its annual Spring Music Festival, Thursday and Friday, May 12 and 13. The program will begin at 8 p.m. and tickets may be purchased at the door.

The program will be presented by the instrumental and vocal departments of the school directed by Richard Van Meter and Mrs. Shirley Klueter respectively.

The theme is "The Showboat." A short operetta will be presented about the life of Stephen Foster. Some of its participants include: Glenna Sayler, Joanne Burnett, Pat Moeckel, Sharon Johnson and Tom Ewing.

The audience will hear such songs as "Here Comes the Showboat," "It's a Grand Night for Singing," and both nights the audience will take an imaginary trip to "Cranberry Corners."

City Attorney To Meet With Scrap Iron Men

By Chuck Griffith

The junk yard regulation requiring the owners to enclose their property with a seven foot high masonry fence had further reaching consequences than expected by city council and the backers of the bill.

City officials received inquiries from manufacturing concerns who store scrap for use and re-sale and from scrap iron dealers who process industrial scrap.

The Heimendale Civic Association which backed the amended regulation were concerned with improving the appearance of the junk yards moving into the area south of the New York Central Railroad tracks along Groveport-rd.

City Attorney Russell Leach, who has received numerous calls from concerns affected, is of the opinion that the ordinance as it stands will apply to all of the above mentioned type of business. They must obtain the same type of license for storing scrap.

The volume scrap iron dealers who process thousands of tons for industry, stack the scrap in huge piles in preparation for processing it for shipment to the steel mills.

One volume scrap dealer complained that it would cost him $100,000 to build a fence to comply with the ordinance.

Leach is scheduled to meet with the general counsel for the scrap iron men next week to discuss the law and its effect.

He said that no one has taken any action to make a change in the ordinance.

Leach believed that the only way to change the ordinance

Y Fund Drive Leader Urges South Side Citizens To Support Drive

Citizens of the South Side were urged to support YMCA-YWCA Expansion Fund Drive which ends on June 1, by Don Lund, chairman of the South Side campaign at a meeting last week at Y Park.

The South Side branches quota is $9,000, and if this goal is reached all additional contribution will be received from industry in the area to assist in building of a new Y building at Jenkins-av and Sixth-st.

Lund said, "We are proud of our total program and its value to the community. We are not begging. We are offering every citizen an opportunity to participate in a project vital to the continued well being of our community."

He continued, "Every citizen benefits from a successful character-building program for youth such as our Y's offer."

Referring to the fund drive, he said, "to date only a minor percentage of our citizenry has responded to the opportunity. To those, who have not yet done so, we offer this chance to support our Y building program to victory."

R. C. Ninde, general chairman of the joint expansion program, emphasized the current campaign as the first the Y's have made in 30 years. "It is

Selection of a possible site for a new elementary school to relieve the overcrowded Clarfield School was approved by Board members.

The tract, containing seven acres, is bounded by Watkins-rd on the south, Rhodes-av on the east, Bulen-av on the west and a line parallel to Watkins-rd.

Christian Day School Is Planned

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church plans to expand its Christian Day School to include first and second grade starting with the autumn session of this year.

The school has operated a kindergarten for the past nine years. The day school and kindergarten will be held in the new educational unit soon to be completed at the church which is located at 322 Stewart-av.

The school is tuition free and is supported by the congregation and voluntary gifts. It will not be limited to member children of St. Paul's but will be open to all pupils whose parents desire them to attend.

The teachers for the school must meet the state requirements for elementary schools and are trained in the art of integrating the various branches of learning with the Christian religion.

The school maintains a bus service at a nominal cost.

It is one of 26 such day schools operated by the American Lutheran Church, of which St. Paul's is a member.

Constitutional Right Claimed By South Sider

The constitutionality of an ordinance requiring among other things that a trash can shall not exceed 30 gallons was questioned by Ernest Rader, 201 Barthman-av, when he appeared in the Municipal Court to answer a charge of providing an improper receptable.

The case was continued until June 10, in order for the court to have time to consider the constitutionality question. Rader was represented by Attorney A. Millard Armstrong.

Rader, who was charged on Mar. 8, said that he used his own truck to empty the 50 gallon trash can he has on his premises. He stated that the Board of Health was "stepping on a man's rights when they say he can't have a 50 gallon trash can."

German Club Joins South Side Council

The Council of South Side Organizations approved the application for membership by the German Village Society at a dinner meeting at Y Park last Thursday night.

The council also voted to contribute $100 to the South Side YMCA funds drive which ends this month.

The group decided to sponsor 20 boys in a hunting safety program given by the Southeast Conservation Club.

Paul Stecker, chairman of special events, announced that he had placed an order for $500 worth of fireworks for the Fourth of July celebration. He said that letters would be mailed to businesses in the area asking them for contributions to help meet the cost of the celebration.

President William Neno noted that parking had been eliminated on both sides of the South High-st viaduct. He expressed thanks to the Safety Committee for cooperating in doing this. The Marion Franklin Citizens Association had requested that parking be banned on the north side of the viaduct as it was on the south side.

Company A of the Auxiliary Police were dinner guests of the council. They were complimented on their good work in assisting the police.

Twenty-five cents from the cost of each ticket will be returned to the south side organization that made the sale for use in its youth program. An additional 25 cents will go to the Council of South Side Organizations to be used in youth programs.

The Community Night Committee hopes all South Side families will share in this, the second Community Night, which will be held at Jet Stadium on Friday, June 10.

Any person who cannot attend Community Night, but who would like to support the event can contribute a ticket to be used by a south side youth.

Grovport Lad, Gahanna Lass Win Driving Road-E-O

Randall Higgins, 559 Main-st, Groveport, took first place in the annual Teen-Age Safe Driving Road-E-O Sunday at Veterans Memorial.

Higgins, an 18-year-old Groveport High School Senior, received $50 cash and a plaque in recognition of his driving skill and knowledge of driving regulations.

Roger Donley, 974 Lawrence-dr, 18-year-old Marion-Franklin Senior, took home $10 fourth place money in the 86 entry safe driving competition

Higgins and the girls division winner, Kathy Milless, Gahanna, will represent Columbus in the state-wide Road-E-O at Warren, June 5, where they will compete for $3400 in scholarships.

Twelve Expected To Appear For 16th Ohio Championship

Sixteenth running of the Ohio Championship comes up for decision at Beulah Park Saturday and indications are that the field will be one of the finest in the long history of the race, richest on the Beulah agenda.

Thirty-two horses were nominated for the mile and a sixteenth test which has $10,000 added money and it appears that at least a dozen of the nominees will be in action.

Several candidates will come in from other racing centers in the opinion of Racing Secretary Charles W. Smith. In this group he lists Flying Chief and Discernment, owned by P. J. Brady and Pat McIntyre; Mrs. A. McCreech's Styrunner, Crimson King Farm's Nunya, J. C. Hauer's Little Fitz, M. J. Rosenthal's Dru Away, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sundberg's Sunny Boy S. and A. H. Wood's Mighty Chief Sunny Boy S., who has been racing at Fennsylvania Park, will be seeking a second straight in the Ohio Championship having won the 1959 renewal, a race in which Mighty Chief was third.

From the colony of horses which has been racing regularly at Beulah Park, it is expected that Kadimall, Salt Lick, Jamboree Jones, Windstream, Oil Legend and Award of Merit will be entered.

Windstream, representing the Darby Dan Farm of John Galbreath of Columbus, could give that stable a third triumph in the Championship.

The South High School PTA executive board will hold its final meeting at Schiller Park today, with a picnic to follow.

The Golden Age Club of Schiller Park will hold a hobby show at the park next Wednesday, May 25, starting at 1 p.m. All persons 65 or over are invited to display their hobbies at this time, and the public is invited to attend the show. For further details, contact the president, Mrs. James Colegrove, HI. 4-4716. Golden Age members who have birthdays within the week are Lena Castle, May 22; Margaret Groezinger, May 19; Mrs. J. H. Patterson, May 21, and Edith Williams, May 23.

Congratulations to Charlotte L. Dill, 1242 E. Livingston-av, for making straight A's in the winter quarter at OSU. South High School senior George Thompson, 1750 Forest-st, merits congratulations for winning a scholarship as one of the four top awards at the Junior Achievement banquet at the Ohio Union on May 11.

On Wednesday, May 25, the Friendship Chorus of Women of the Moose, Chapter 206, will sponsor the weekly dinner at the Moose Hall, 36 W. Sycamore-st, from 5 to 7 p.m. Mary Winegar, chairman, and her committee will serve turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, salad and strawberry shortcake.

Little Lisa Baughman, mentioned frequently in this column, has a new woe to add to the discomfort of the cast she wears to straighten a dislocated hip—the mumps! While in Columbus, the wee daughter of missionaries Don and Marianne Baughman is staying with her grandparents at 1575 S. Sixth-st.

Eagles Lodge 297, of N. High-st, is sponsoring a dinner at the lodge on Sunday, May 22, from 5 to 7 p.m. Feature of the menu is steak and mushrooms. Round dancing will follow the dinner. The lodge members will use the profits of the dinner to buy new kitchen equipment.

What an intriguing name! The young son of Harold and Sylvia Jones, 398½ Carpenter-st, born earlier in the month, will answer to Jeffrey John Jones.

The picnic scheduled by the Junior C.E. group of Southwood Church of Christ for May 14 was postponed until this Saturday, May 21, because of the inclement weather. The group will go to Blacklick Woods, instead of Schiller Park.

Tomorrow night at 7:30 is the time many South High School graduates have been awaiting with expectancy, for it will be the time of the annual reunion. Registration begins at 7:30 p.m. with the variety show slated for 8:15. Dancing follows at 9:30 p.m.

The president of the Alumni Association, Dick Mincer, extends a cordial invitation to all alumni to attend this 1960 version of the reunion.

Three birthdays and an anniversary should be noted at this time, so, will do! Karen and Sharon Boquist, 1191 Whittier-st, celebrate their 17th birthdays today, May 19. Another 17th birthday celebrant is Donna Dixon, 1163 Oakwood-av, who will have the occasion marked with a party at the Fiesta Club, on May 22. John and Gay Dixon chalk up a new year of wedded life today, May 19.

If Margaret Miller," 1400 S. Sixth-st, owns a "grandma" charm bracelet, she is now eligible to add the second little charm to the jewelry as of May 14. Sally and Bob Floyd, the new parents, welcomed their second little boy on that day. The first little lad, Danny, will be two years old on June 15, so the new addition is like an early birthday present for him.

Cloverleaf meetings this week are those of Leaf 5, May 25, 8:30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Paul Theado, 806 S. 17th-st, and Leaf 15, May 24, Mrs. Lee Eberst, 612 Fairwood-av, 12:30 p.m.

Election and installation of officers of Partes Club will be part of the business agenda when the group holds its monthly meeting for a 12 noon luncheon at Balcony Hall today. Founders and charter members of Partes will be honored. Mrs. Harold Key is chairman of the program.

The 22nd anniversary of the South Side Settlement Link will be held May 20 at 12:30 p.m., at Balcony Hall. The chorus from Indianola Junior High School will present the musical program.

The 17th birthday of Columbus Chapter 8, Blue Star Mothers of America, Inc., will be highlighted with a noon luncheon in the Spanish Room of the Deshler-Hilton Hotel, Thursday, May 19. Mrs. Clarence Boyd, chapter president, will be program chairman.

Noted in last week's column was the item about the style show to be held by the St. Ladislas Altar Rosary Society in the church basement. Perhaps this will serve as a reminder that the event is at 8 o'clock tonight. Women of the parish and school children will model the fashions from Robinson's, located in the Great Southern Shopping Center.

These service and financial figures were released this week as part of UA's "Thanks to You" report on the use being made of contributed funds.

The allocations and number served by South Side agencies follows:

A critic is a person who sits back and tells people how he would do the same thing, if he (she) only knew how.

They get around: Butterflies banded in Ontario were picked up in Virginia, Florida, and Texas, less than three weeks later.

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK LOOK FOR:

Vegetables—Asparagus, carrots, greenhouse tomatoes, lettuce, snap beans.

Fruits — Bananas, Valencia oranges, rhubarb, strawberries.

Protein Foods — Fryers, large eggs, chuck roasts, picnics, cheddar cheese.

HOME FREZING OF MEATS

Can I freeze meat if I change my mind about serving it? What kinds of meat freeze best? Can I freeze meat in the wrapper in which I buy my meat?

Each time we open the freezer door we ask these questions and many more. And rightly so, for meat is an important item in the food budget. Like other frozen foods, meat must be handled properly to keep its original fresh qualities and flavor.

YOU NEED TO BE QUICK when freezing meat! Freeze as soon as possible after purchase. The fresher the meat, the better its keeping quality will be while frozen. Remember, freezing doesn't improve meat . . . it can only keep meat as good as it was before freezing.

BEFORE YOU START to freeze it's a good idea to have the meat ready for cooking . . . prepare, shape, trim just as you would if it was to be cooked right away. For stews it saves space to bone and cube the meat before freezing. For meat loaf or patties, grind and shape before freezing. You can even season the meat if you wish with salt and pepper and your favorite dry seasonings.

PACKAGED MEATS ARE NOT WRAPPED FOR FREEZING

"It's all in the wrap," is a good slogan to follow, too. For part of the secret of freezing meat successfully lies in using moisture-vapor-proof paper and securing the package tightly. Prepackaged self-service meats are not wrapped for freezing. If there are no breaks in the film covering the store-wrapped meat, it may be held in the freezeer for a few days. However, a better practice is to remove the store's wrappings as soon as you get it home, and re-wrap meat in freezer paper.

ZERO TEMPERATURE IS RECOMMENDED

Zero is the word! Freeze meats promptly at zero degrees Fahrenheit or lower. If your refrigerator or freezer is not capable of maintaining a tempeature of zero degrees Fahrenheit, it's best not to try to freeze meat in it.

Remember, there is a maximum storage life for frozen meats in your freezer. The following chart indicates the recommended storage periods for various meats as developed by the American Meat Institute:

Beef	8 to 10 months
Fresh pork and veal	3 to 5 months
Lamb	6 to 8 months
Ground beef	3 to 4 months
Sausage	1 to 2 months
Variety meats (liver, etc.)	3 to 4 months
Smoked ham	1 month
Cooked meats	2 to 3 months
Combination meat dishes (soups, stews, etc.)	1 month

Springtime driving, says the Columbus Auto Club, often can be such a pleasant experience that a driver could inadvertently overlook such dangers as increased traffic, broken pavement, and the tendency to drive just a little bit faster than the posted speed limits.

A bank account does not show who is rich or poor—only who has money. People are rich or poor from the inside, not from the outside.

Bomb Tipsters Not So Smart

Phone calling kids intent on getting a day from school with a threat of a hidden bomb are in for a surprise.

There's a fair chance they will be caught!

Take the case of two Pleasant View students who thought it would be cute to pull the gag on Prairie Township Firemen.

The conversation was tape recorded at the Fire House and school authorities were able to identify the troublemakers.

Most fire stations record telephone calls for aid in apprehending false alarmers and getting the information straight from excited phoners.

Yellowstone National Park, establishd in 1872, is the largest in the park system. According to AAA tour books, it covers 3,472 square miles in northwestern Wyoming, Montana and Idaho.

BIBLE COMMENT:

Jesus Taught With Rights Of Heaven

The statements of Matthew and Mark that Jesus taught "as one having authority, and not as the scribes" would be a strange one if it were not true.

There is irony in it, also. The scribes were supposed to be the authoritative teachers, whereas Jesus, as he appeared in Galilee and Judea, began His ministry as an individual, seeking no external authority, but relying only in the truth in His words and deeds, and the fact that He was doing the will of His father in heaven.

It is strange that this phase of the life, teaching and ministry of Jesus had little or no recognition in the religious world.

Religion almost everywhere has been based on authority. The external authority and discipline that is essentially similar to the authority in the Jewish time of Jesus, which He disregarded insofar as authority for His own mission was concerned.

The fact that Jesus acted without any such external authority brought quick challenge. Jesus was immediately asked by the chief priests and elders, "By what authority doest thou these things? And who gave thee this authority?"

That incident and the reply of Jesus ought to have warned the wise and sincere religious leaders against re-enacting it, but it has been re-enacted again and again.

How Would You Say Ohio's Gas Rates Compare?

Overall, in the United States, Residential Gas Rates are 28% Higher than in Ohio.....Residential Rates in Ohio are Lower by Far than in other Midwest States

Gas rates in Ohio are among the lowest in the nation.*

Look at how much higher residential rates are in these other nearby states:

Indiana, 38% higher; Illinois, 51% higher; Michigan, 35% higher; Wisconsin, 80% higher; Iowa, 18% higher, and Minnesota, 35% higher.

Ohio's residential rates are even comparable to those in Texas, by far the nation's largest producer of natural gas.

Why?

The key is underground storage. During summer, natural gas produced in the Southwest is piped to Ohio and pumped into huge underground storage reservoirs developed here by your gas company. In winter the gas is withdrawn from storage as needed to help meet heating demands.

Because of underground storage, natural gas is available for house heating to hundreds of thousands of Ohio families who want year-around comfort and convenience — at moderate cost.

South Side Man Is Declared Sane After Tear Gas Episode

Robert Russell, 30, 153 Dering-av, who was driven from his home by tear gas Friday, was a free man Tuesday after Probate Court declared he was sane.

Daring police to "Come and get me," Russell emerged onto the front porch of his home after police fired five tear gas bombs through the front and rear windows. He was clad only in blue trousers.

Russell's wife, Ethel, charged her husband was mentally ill. Examination at Columbus State Hospital showed Russell was sane, authorities said. Police filed no charges.

The incident erupted when Mrs. Russell, 32, notified police of an argument with her husband.

When police arrived, Mrs. Russell was at a nearby grocery store. Russell challenged from a window:

"Why don't you come in and get me?"

Officer Dale McCann said it appeared that Russell was loading a gun and he summoned aid. Five more cruisers were quickly sent to the scene. Police surrounded the home as Lt. Dwight Joseph ordered Russell from the home by public address speakers.

When he refused to respond, police sent tear gas bombs crashing through the windows.

Police said that he apparently believed the officers were sent to his home to serve divorce papers. Mrs. Russell said she had been seeking a legal separation.

Group Looking For Guitarist

"The Stringtimers," a group of hobbyists who play old time favorites to entertain in the hospitals, rest homes, and other institutions, is in need of a volunteer rhythm guitar player to complete the group.

Mrs. Mary Hougland, 806 Bellows-av, a bandicapped member of the group, can be reached at CA. 4-4508. Dwight Clark, 805 Summit-st, AX. 4-2698, is director.

Wildlife Reports First Fish Tale

Well, it happened.

The first believe-it-or-not fish story of the year is in, according to Everett Ridge, Wildlife District 4 supervisor. There is a switch to this story, however, for there were witnesses, and the fish was photographed.

It happened at Forked Run Lake, Meigs County, where Cliff Miller, Parkersburg, W. Va., was fishing for bass with artificial lures. On one cast his line became snagged in a tree, and the bait swung a few inches above the water. While he was trying to loosen his line, a bass jumped up and grabbed the bait.

South Side Man Is Declared Sane After Tear Gas Episode

Robert Russell, 30, 138 Dering-av, who was driven from his home by tear gas Friday, was a free man Tuesday after Probate Court declared he was sane.

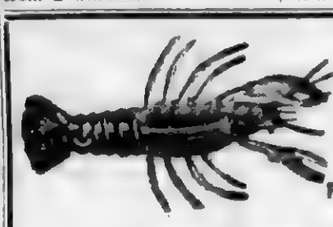
Daring police to "Come and get me," Russell emerged onto the front porch of his home after police fired five tear gas bombs through the front and rear windows. He was clad only in blue trousers.

Russell's wife, Ethel, charged her husband was mentally ill. Examination at Columbus State Hospital showed Russell was sane, authorities said. Police filed no charges.

The incident erupted when Mrs. Russell, 32, notified police of an argument with her husband.

When police arrived, Mrs Russell was at a nearby grocery store. Russell challenged from a window:

"Why don't you come in and get me?"



Officer Dale McCann said it appeared that Russell was loading a gun and he summoned aid. Five more cruisers were quickly sent to the scene. Police surrounded the home as Lt. Dwight Joseph ordered Russell from the home by public address speakers.

When he refused to respond, police sent tear gas bombs crashing through the windows.

Police said that he apparently believed the officers were sent to his home to serve divorce papers. Mrs. Russell said she had been seeking a legal separation.

PYTHIANS TO MEET

Wildlife Reports First Fish Tale

Well, it happened.

The first believe-it-or-not fish story of the year is in, according to Everett Ridge, Wildlife District 4 supervisor. There is a switch to this story, however, for there were witnesses, and the fish was photographed.

It happened at Forked Run Lake, Meigs County, where Cliff Miller, Parkersburg, W. Va., was fishing for bass with artificial lures. On one cast his line became snagged in a tree, and the bait swung a few inches above the water. While he was trying to loosen his line, a bass jumped up and grabbed the bait.

South Side Man Is Declared Sane After Tear Gas Episode

Robert Russell, 30, 133 Dering-av, who was driven from his home by tear gas Friday, was a free man Tuesday after Probate Court declared he was sane.

Daring police to "Come and get me," Russell emerged onto the front porch of his home after police fired five tear gas bombs through the front and rear windows. He was clad only in blue trousers.

Russell's wife, Ethel, charged her husband was mentally ill. Examination at Columbus State Hospital showed Russell was sane, authorities said. Police filed no charges.

The incident erupted when Mrs. Russell, 32, notified police of an argument with her husband.

When police arrived, Mrs. Russell was at a nearby grocery store. Russell challenged from a window:

"Why don't you come in and get me?"

Officer Dale McCann said it appeared that Russell was loading a gun and he summoned aid. Five more cruisers were quickly sent to the scene. Police surrounded the home as Lt. Dwight Joseph ordered Russell from the home by public address speakers.

When he refused to respond, police sent tear gas bombs crashing through the windows.

Police said that he apparently believed the officers were sent to his home to serve divorce papers. Mrs. Russell said she had been seeking a legal separation.

Hellgrammite Is Best Bass Bait

Hellgrammites are the best smallmouth and rock bass bait, according to a year study of angling in Massie Creek, Greene and Clark Counties, by Ed Brown, Jr., fish management supervisor, Ohio Division of Wildlife.

Cooperating fishermen took 804 smallmouth bass during the period of the study, 1954 through 1958. Two-thirds of the total, or 536 fish, were caught on live bait. Best live bait was hellgrammites which took one and one-half bass per hour of fishing. Crawfish were second taking one bass per hour, and worms caught one-half fish per hour.

One-third of the smallmouths were caught on artificial baits.

A total of 389 rock bass were reported caught during the study. Natural baits took almost three-fourths of all rock bass caught. Worm dunkers took one-half fish per hour and soft craws were least effective on rock bass bringing in only one-fourth fish per hour.

Spinners were the best artificial lures and brought in more than one-half fish per hour.

Plugs took less than one-half fish per hour.

Day-dreaming motorist is a danger not only to himself but to other drivers on the streets or highways, says the Columbus Auto Club. If you find yourself day dreaming behind the wheel, you'll find it a lot safer to pull off the road until you regain your alertness. As essential part of safe driving is the ability to keep your mind on the task at hand—operating an automobile.

State Extends Stream Pollution In Grove City

The State Water Pollution Board will extend Grove City's stream pollution permit until Dec. 1, announced officials and board representatives May 9.

Grove City sought the renewal of the permit beyond its May 15 expiration to place a sewage plant bond question before city voters in November.

A spokesman for the board said Grove City officials explained if voters reject the general obligation bond proposal, the council will move to finance the project with mortgage revenue bonds.

A unique tax restriction in Grove City's new charter stalled the plant plans and forces the city either to get voter approval for the project or go to the more costly mortgage revenue bonds.

Hoover Dam Is Producing Fish For Many A Skillet These Days

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Fishing reports keep rolling in—Hoover is hot. Henry Cring reporting from Paul's Marine, said that fish have been hitting all over the lake for more than a week now. The lower end of the lake, below the second bridge, is now producing in fine fashion.

Walleyes from one to three and one-half pounds are being taken by trolling. Most popular method is to use a nightcrawler harness, and drift in about 15 feet of water fishing near the bottom. This is not really trolling, but should be called drift fishing — but the Hoover anglers have named it trolling.

"Catches of up to a dozen walleyes per angler are not uncommon," Cring said.

Bass are coming from all parts of the lake, and a six pounder was weighed earlier in the season at a bait store. Shysters, silver spoons, bombers and jitterbugs are the lures most successful anglers are using. A lot of bass are being caught at Hoover in the evening.

Muskies are showing up at the lake this year. Most of these have hit plugs meant for bass. "Some reports must be taken with a grain of salt," declared Cring, "for I've seen small walleyes, grass pike, and even a gar fish brought in by proud anglers, who called them 'muskies'."

Crappies fishing has been good but somewhat spotty to date. Some fish are running large, in the 12 to 14 inch class. Minnows, as usual, are bringing in the large crappie stringers, some totaling 50 to 60 fish.

You can follow the march of spring by the fishing reports at Hoover. Early, the first fisherman success comes from the upper end at Galena. This is simple to explain, for shallow water warms up quicker than deep. As the season progresses fish are caught farther and farther down the lake. By mid-May fishing can be good all over.

Stream fishermen are still in the news. Gerald Holland, West Jefferson, caught two kingsized carp in Little Darby recently. One weighed 20¼ pounds and the other 16½. Gerald is a lad of 14 years, and doesn't have any respect for his fishing elders, or else he wouldn't embarass us this way. Soft craws were used to catch the carp.

R. W. Recob, West Jefferson, reports that a lot of carp are being caught now on soft craws. Also, he said, there are stories of mystery fish in the pool in Little Darby at the edge of town. "These are probably large catfish that would be impossible to land on the short lengths of line fishermen are using," Recob declared.

One angler had a 30-pound test line broken there the other night, but this does not mean much. If he had 200 yards or more of a lighter line that would permit the fish to run, he might well have landed it. But this would scotch the monster fish rumor, and I wouldn't have anything to write about.

Missionaries are making slow progress among the cannibals in the heart of Africa, according to my friend Dick Jennings, of the Cortland Line Company.

Wildlife Division May Buy Chicks

Authority to purchase up to 12,000 day-old pheasants, should the estimated production fall short, has been given by the Ohio Wildlife Council to the Division of Wildlife. The council was told that based on the estimated production and planned distribution, there may be a deficit of 11,635.

Hellgrammite Is Best Bass Bait

Hellgrammites are the best smallmouth and rock bass bait, according to a year study of angling in Massie Creek, Greene and Clark Counties, by Ed Brown, Jr., fish management supervisor, Ohio Division of Wildlife.

Cooperating fishermen took 804 smallmouth bass during the period of the study, 1954 through 1958. Two-thirds of the total, or 536 fish, were caught on live bait. Best live bait was hellgrammites which took one and one-half bass per hour of fishing. Crawfish were second taking one bass per hour, and worms caught one-half fish per hour.

One-third of the smallmouths were caught on artificial baits.

A total of 389 rock bass were reported caught during the study. Natural baits took almost three-fourths of all rock bass caught. Worm dunkers took one-half fish per hour and soft craws were least effective on rock bass bringing in only one-fourth fish per hour.

Spinners were the best artificial lures and brought in more than one-half fish per hour.

Plugs took less than one-half fish per hour.

Day-dreaming motorist is a danger not only to himself but to other drivers on the streets or highways, says the Columbus Auto Club. If you find yourself day dreaming behind the wheel, you'll find it a lot safer to pull off the road until you regain your alertness. As essential part of safe driving is the ability to keep your mind on the task at hand—operating an automobile.

State Extends Stream Pollution In Grove City

The State Water Pollution Board will extend Grove City's stream pollution permit until Dec. 1, announced officials and board representatives May 9.

Grove City sought the renewal of the permit beyond its May 15 expiration to place a sewage plant bond question before city voters in November.

A spokesman for the board said Grove City officials explained if voters reject the general obligation bond proposal, the council will move to finance the project with mortgage revenue bonds.

A unique tax restriction in Grove City's new charter stalled the plant plans and forces the city either to get voter approval for the project or go to the more costly mortgage revenue bonds.

Hoover Dam Is Producing Fish For Many A Skillet These Days

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROD COCHRAN

Fishing reports keep rolling in—Hoover is hot. Henry Cring reporting from Paul's Marine, said that fish have been hitting all over the lake for more than a week now. The lower end of the lake, below the second bridge, is now producing in fine fashion.

Walleyes from one to three and one-half pounds are being taken by trolling. Most popular method is to use a night-crawler harness, and drift in about 15 feet of water fishing near the bottom. This is not really trolling, but should be called drift fishing — but the Hoover anglers have named it trolling.

"Catches of up to a dozen walleyes per angler are not uncommon," Cring said.

Bass are coming from all parts of the lake, and a six pounder was weighed earlier in the season at a bait store. Shysters, silver spoons, bombers and jitterbugs are the lures most successful anglers are using. A lot of bass are being caught at Hoover in the evening.

Muskies are showing up at the lake this year. Most of these have hit plugs meant for bass. "Some reports must be taken with a grain of salt," declared Cring, "for I've seen small walleyes, grass pike, and even a gar fish brought in by proud anglers who called them 'muskies'."

Crappies fishing has been good but somewhat spotty to date. Some fish are running large, in the 12 to 14 inch class. Minnows, as usual, are bringing in the large crappie stringers, some totaling 50 to 60 fish.

You can follow the march of spring by the fishing reports at Hoover. Early, the first fisherman success comes from the upper end at Galena. This is simple to explain, for shallow water warms up quicker than deep. As the season progresses fish are caught farther and farther down the lake. By mid-May fishing can be good all over.

Stream fishermen are still in the news. Gerald Holland, West Jefferson, caught two king-sized carp in Little Darby recently. One weighed 20¼ pounds and the other 16½. Gerald is a lad of 14 years, and doesn't have any respect for his fishing elders, or else he wouldn't embarass us this way. Soft craws were used to catch the carp.

R. W. Recob, West Jefferson, reports that a lot of carp are being caught now on soft craws. Also, he said, there are stories of mystery fish in the pool in Little Darby at the edge of town. "These are probably large catfish that would be impossible to land on the short lengths of line fishermen are using," Recob declared.

One angler had a 30-pound test line broken there the other night, but this does not mean much. If he had 200 yards or more of a lighter line that would permit the fish to run, he might well have landed it. But this would scotch the monster fish rumor, and I wouldn't have anything to write about.

Missionaries are making slow progress among the cannibals in the heart of Africa, according to my friend Dick Jennings, of the Cortland Line Company.

PARSONS LIBRARY NEWS

Your Local Public Library Offers Free Entertainment

The penniless way for entertainment today can be found through only one medium—the "wonderful world of books" now available at your Columbus Public Library.

The Parsons Avenue Branch Library offers its community this priceless entertainment.

Many outstanding books are now available at Parsons. The most frequently requested books are: Taylor Caldwell's Dear and Glorious Physician which relates how Lucanus, the Greek physician, was transformed into the spiritual healer, St. Luke. The number one best seller, May This House Be Safe from Tigers, by Alexander King, is also available. King offers one thousand and one humorous reminiscences within its text. King has been described as the "one man antidote to the twentieth century blues."

Advice and Consent, by Allen Drury, has penetrated the world's stormiest political battleground — the smoke-filled committee rooms of the U. S. Senate — to reveal the bitter conflicts set in motion when the President called upon the Senate to confirm his choice for Secretary of State.

In the autobiographical field, several interesting lives are revealed. Jack Parr's book I Kid You Not, has been described as entertaining, rambling, funny, and unpredictable (like its author). It will make you laugh, sigh, angry perhaps, but never bored. Moss Hart has also written his autobiography entitled Act I. Hart tells of his own success story and how his name became linked and almost synonomous with the theater.

Another success story in a much different vein, is Dr. Tom Dooley's new book The Night They Burned the Mountain. Dr. Dooley, the famed missionary of Viet Nam, relates some more of his experiences of his individual attempt at foreign aid for the less fortunate.

Beery School Clubs Stage Outing, Party

The all-club party was held in the Beery gymnasium Friday evening, May 13. A large turnout enjoyed the fun and festivities in the gaily decorated gym The various school clubs and their sponsors cooperated to make this event a highlight of the year.

The Beery seventh and eighth grade Hi-Y Clubs, under the leadership of Mr. Heater and Mr. Trumbull, spent last weekend camping at the South Side Y Park.

James Wagner was very helpful in making the outing possible for the boys. Plenty of food, organized games, and the enthusiasm of the boys marked a weekend of fun and fellowship.

Consulting engineers disclosed last Tuesday that the East Freeway will cost $30 million, an increase of $10 million over previous plans, and will have six lanes instead of four.

Results of the 1959 origin and destination traffic survey led to the increase in lanes and resulting cost, officials said

City engineer Robert F. Werner said the report of Rackoff Associates, consulting engineers, will be reviewed by city, state and federal officials. Construction is not expected until 1964. Rackoff recommended three general locations for interchanges plus a double interchange in the expressway between Parsons-av and Alum Creek.

The freeway will extend from an interbelt interchange at Parsons-av and Fulton-st on a route north of Livingston-av, east to Alum Creek.

There it will swing southeast to a point north of Pitzinger-rd where it will continue east to Zettler-rd. It will parallel the New York Central Railroad tracks to the city limits.

The other interchange locations will be at the Alum Creek crossing between Alum Creek and Zettler-rd and at Hamilton-rd, the report said.

Werner said the report recommends only one route but has several possible variations for the interchange locations east of Alum Creek.

Seeks Refuse Solution In Annexed Area

The city looked for a new way Tuesday to keep the county from making more profit on refuse collections in old Marion Township.

Finance Director Wayne Freeman said he was notified by the city's bond counsels that his plan to restrict county collections was not workable.

Freeman said he will continue trying to find a way whereby the city can handle collections at new homes and businesses in the annexed territory.

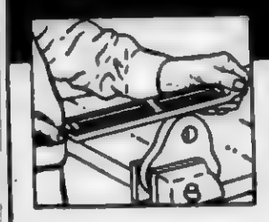
to affect only the junk yards that are adjacent to residential areas would be to set up a performance standard type of legislation.

He said this type of legislation was used in Columbus industrial zoning, in which the closer an industry is to a residential area the cleaner it must be.



Councilman William Hoermle, who introduced the ordinance, believes the bill is necessary to regulate the junk yards moving into the South Side.

He said, "If we have to have them let's keep them neat and clean." He said the junk yards moving in were "forced from one slum area" and could create another.

The Heyl Warriors locked horns with the Southwood Rocketeers in the season's first extra-inning game last week in the YMCA Tuesday Night League.

Howard Henry scampered home with the tie-breaking run in the top of the sixth inning and Dick Woods held onto the one-run lead in the last half of the sixth as the Rocketeers won over the Warriors 13-12.

The top hitter for Southwood was Lambert with four for four, while Yantis and Bugos had two hits each for Heyl. The Deshler Panthers combined two ingredients that are difficult to beat — good hitting and pitching—in downing the Heyl Buckeyes, 13-1.

John Milburn continued to pitch good ball and Osborn was top hitter with three for three. Cook hit the long ball for Deshler, getting a home run and a triple.

Mike Filbin scored two runs and Calvin Young lashed out a double for Livingston.

Gam Leads South Side Slo-Pitch

Defending champs, Old Land Mark, now under the banner of Gambrinus Breweries, defeated Three Lads, 10-5. The Three Lads, under the banner of Jerry Grady, played outstanding ball in holding the powerful Land Mark to 10 runs.

Tom Duckworth 3 for 4, Harper 3 for 4 including a home run, double and single. Manager, Buck Santanich, contributed to the cause by slamming out a triple and a double.

Kelley's, runner up to Land Mark last year, outslugged the Olympian Club, 15-2. The defensive play of Berry, Howard and Oddi was outstanding and the powerful hitting of Connelly and Berry proved too much for the Olympian Club to overcome. Schuman Meats also defeated the Olympian Club, 14-7. Don's Inn slaughtered Schuman Meats 10-2.

Carl's Ignition, in an upset tilt, went down to defeat, 20-10 by the powerful Heinmiller's Carry-Out. Manager Butch Heinmiller did an outstanding job for the under-dogs.

'Chico' Howard Called Up To Los Angeles

South Side Slugger Gets Chance To Make Big Time

By Ron Mehlman

Frank "Chico" Howard, amiable $117,000 bonus baby of the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers and graduate of South High School, who was smashing his way into the headlines at Spokane of the Pacific Coast League has joined the parent club.

The 245-pound Howard will take over for aging Carl Furillo, who was placed on the inactive list. He was hitting an impressive .317 mark while propelling four home runs, 11 doubles and 24 RBI's in 26 games for the Indians. He will play the outfield or first base for the sagging LA Club.

Howard has the power to smash the long ball as was evident at Green Bay in 1958 when he was chosen Minor League Rookie of the Year. While playing right field he walloped 37 HR's, led the Three "I" League in RBI's, total bases, and captured the Most Valuable Player award.

The parent Dodgers called him in July of 1959 from Victoria of the Texas League after he had banged 27 home runs in a two-month span. His first time at bat, the lumbering giant sent a scorching line shot over the scoreboard in St. Louis. He was the first player in Busch Stadium history to clear the deep centerfield barrier, some 445 feet from home plate.

Howard has come a long way since his days at Columbus South High School. He was a three-year man in baseball and basketball and received All-City selection on both squads. From South, he rose to stardom at Ohio State University.

Repeating his school-boy feats he was a three-year man on Coach Marty Karow's baseball crew and a top drawing card for Coach Floyd Stahl's basketball squad.

Frank was an All-American basketball performer in 1956 and such pro outfits as the Minneapolis "Lakers" and the Philadelphia "Warriors" were in pursuit of his talents.

The 23-year old power hitter was happily settled in Spokane, as he became a father for the first time last week.

Whether the dynamic "Chico" will stay in the major leagues will depend on his progress and the decisions of the Los Angeles Dodgers front office.

ROUNDING UP SPORTS

Rosary Diamond Squad Dumps Class A Ashville

In Class A Central District play, Rosary's Crusaders, the Franklin County League champs, moved into the finals by defeating Ashville, 3-0, at Wolfe Park last Monday afternoon.

The Crusaders' John Durant, junior southpaw, and Ashville's Dick Wilcox, hooked up in a mound duel which was broken up by shortstop Jerry Spires' home run with left fielder Jim Long on base.

It marked the second time in four years that Wilcox has been defeated. Wilcox fanned three, walked two and hit one batter, while Durant struck out eight and issued three walks.

Ashville's centerfielder, Jim Brown, had two hits off Durant but was caught off base both times. Spires' homer was the only base knock of the game.

How play ended:

Ashville	000 000 0	0 4 1
Rosary	000 000 x	2 4 1

Wilcox and Gregg; Durant and Grrgsby.

In other baseball action earlier in the week, Eastmoor's Doug Van Horn did the mound work for the Warriors' in a 7-5 defeat over South. Shortstop Bob Benjamin contributed much with a homer, double and a single.

How it wound-up:

Eastmoor	020 212 0	7 16 2
South	001 301 0	5 10 2

Van Horn and Poole; Cordell and Meinrod.

Rain Stops Play In Most Loops

Friday evening's Senior Slow Pitch League was the only group to play games in the South Side Branch YMCA Inter-Church Softball program last week. Rain, cold weather and wet grounds caused cancellation of all other league action.

Army PFC James P. Rhodes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philep E. Rhodes, 2545 Bulen-av, participated recently with other personnel from the 4th Armored Division in an eight-day command post exercise in southern Germany.

The exercise, conducted under realistic combat conditions, was designed to determine the effectiveness of units of the 4th Armored Division, a major element of the NATO shield of defense in Europe.

Rhodes, a driver in Headquarters Company of the division's Combat Command A in New Ulm, entered the Army in February 1959, completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky., and arrived overseas last July.

The 23-year-old soldier attended South High School and was employed by the Columbus Show Case Company, before entering the Army.

GRA-Y CLUB PRESENTS SCREEN

FUNDS FROM TAFFY SALE—Stockbridge School was the recipient of a new lenticular movie screen from the Stockbridge Gra-Y Club. Funds for the screen were raised through the annual salt water taffy sale of which an equal amount was directed to the YMCA World Service. Pictured receiving the screen on behalf of the school are Mrs. Theora Golden, school clerk, and Mrs. Ken Havens, sixth grade teacher and Gra-Y advisor. Making the presentation from left to right are Kenneth Enyart, Gra-Y president; Trudy Murray, treasurer; Eloise Young, secretary, and Mike Vanover, vice-president.

Nick Of The Jack Also Took Its Toll Back Before 1900

In this day and age of the freeway, the X-way, "inner" and "outer" belts and turnpikes, motorists are often heard complaining of the constant outlay of money, both in taxes and in toll payments.

But, back even before the turn of the century, their horse and buggy counterparts were not immune to the nick of the jack for the use of highways and by-ways.

Case in point: the Toll Sheet of the National Road as established by Board of County Commissioner of Franklin County — the same road now known as U.S. Rt. 40.

According to present information, the toll sheet was set up around 1895. W. H. Halliday was county auditor at the time.

In those days, the word Dearborn meant more than a city in in Michigan; it was, rather, a four wheel carriage with curtained sides.

A gig wasn't a demerit that one received in boot training; it was a light two-wealed one horse carriage.

An omnibus was the forerunner of our present day bus. And sulkies are still in use on local race tracks.

The schedule of toll charges along Rt. 40 ran from 12 cents for every cart or wagon drawn by one horse or other animal, to 70 cents if drawn by six horses" (cheaper by the half-dozen, it appears). For each additional horse thereafter, a charge of 12 cents per animal was levied.

The gigs, sulkies, buggies and Dearborns drawn by a single animal ran 12 cents if the vehicle contained only one seat. The cost rose to 20 cents if the carriage contained two seats. All additional animals cost six cents. Omnibuses came in for a charge of 40 cents if drawn by only two horses. But as the number of horses, or other animals to pull the vehicle increased, so did the charge—75 cents.

Even sleds and sleighs came in for a neat clip of the old pocketbook. These winter runners cost those who partook of their availability a toll of 12 cents.

Even if no vehicle was involved in the act of transportation, riders on horses and mules were hit for a six cent rate. If the four-legged creatures were not ridden, but led or driven, a person could save a penny.

Using the National Road for a score of cattle, cost a farmer 25 cents; every score of hogs and or sheep amounted to 12 cents.

Anyway you looked at it, if one used the National Road to "git from hyar to thar," it cost him a load of National shekels.

Three South Side Athletes Honored At Agonis Fete

Three South Side senior athlete-scholars were honored last Tuesday night at the 33rd annual Agonis Club banquet at the Seneca Hotel.

Jimmy Long from Rosary, Wally Gray of St. Mary, and Richard Reeves of Marion Franklin were nominated by their respective schools for the coveted Agonis award.

The eligibility requirements are an A-B average in senior high school and the athletic requirement is four or more letters in any sport. The festivities were open to the general public and a capacity audience was present.

The three young South Side products were among 19 other seniors from Columbus and the surrounding area who were feted.

The evening's activities were highlighted by a special guest speaker, Fr. Vincent Mooney, pastor of Holy Rosary.

Fr. Mooney at one time was associated with the Athletic Department at the University of Notre Dame. He is a well known figure in athletic circles around Columbus and his erudite qualities and after dinner speech making establish him as highly popular and sought after.

Long, Gray and Reeves received certificates, and their names will be placed on a bronze Agonis plaque.—Ron Mehlman

South High Commencement To Be An Outdoor Affair

Graduation exercises for South High School seniors will be held at the school Tuesday, June 7, at 7 p.m.

The ceremony will take place in the stadium, because of the large number of graduates.

The program will include a prelude played by the orchestra entitled "Danse Macabre," by Saint-Saens, followed by the processional "God of Our Fathers" by Warren.

Keneth Yunker will lead the pledge and the invocation will be given by Rev. David Boatwright.

The chorus, comprised of graduating seniors will sing a few selections. The student speakers this year are Ralph Kleinline whose topic will be "Much is Required," and Diane Lyons who will talk on "The Eternal Quest." These two pupils were chosen on the basis of high scholastic standing. A member of the Board of Education will speak to the graduating class immediately before diplomas are presented.

The seniors have planned several other activities. Many of them have already occurred, including Senior Levi Day, Senior Dress Up Day, dances and hops, parties, picnics, their prom and banquet.

City Changes To Six Lane Expressway

The south and east sections of the innerbelt expressway will have six lanes in order to handle predicted 1980 traffic demands.

Service Director Ernest H. Stork, making the announcement last week, said construction plans will be started at once for these sections. Construction work is slated for 1962-63.

The 1959 traffic survey revealed that traffic counts will greatly exceed original predictions for the area.

The innerbelt will extend east from Mound and 2nd-st to an interchange at Fulton-st and Parsons-av, then north to the Ft. Hayes interchange.

Additional interchanges will be located at 3rd-st and 4th-st. The construction plans will be prepared by Alden E. Stilson and Associates, 245 N. High-st.

Funds For Restoration

German Club Plans Tour Of Old Homes

The German Village Society is planning a tour of old German homes in the South Side Sunday, June 19 to aid in raising funds for purchase and restoration of a 100-year-old German style cottage.

The tour of ten homes will be conducted on board a horse-drawn "Tally-Ho" wagon and will be escorted by a German Band.

Frank Fetch, the society's president, said that he hoped to have an antique car parked in front of each home to designate that it was a stop on the tour.

He also is planning to have a display of antique cars and carriages in Schiller Park, the starting point of the tour.

The cottage to be restored will belong to the community and will serve as a remembrance of the heritage of the neighborhood.

Fetch hopes to get the residents to polish up the neighborhood for the occasion and to have the city send extra clean-up crews to the locale.

The homes to be included in the tour are those of Mr. and and Mrs. Louis Yumet, 576 S. Third-st; John Ferguson, 660 City Park-av; Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, 41 Sycamore-st; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Iuler, 693 City Park; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Newkirk, 44 Stimmel-st; Jorg Fasting, 790 S. High-st; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fetch, 41 W. Columbus st; Phillip Kientz, 820 S. Fifth-st; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Remmert, 216 E. Mithoff-st; and David Earley, 914 City Park-av.

The purpose of the society is the preservation, restoration, and renewal of the old German section, located in the Mohawk-Livingston area.

Fetch compared the possible historical value and appearance of the proposed German Village to Williamsburg, Georgetown, and the French Quarter of New Orleans. He said it could be a major asset to the city and avoid future slum clearance.

Board Plans Repair Work At Clarfield

A group of Clarfield School parents early this month asked the Columbus School Board for needed repairs to the Clarfield Elementary School and last week received an affirmative answer to their request.

The parents were concerned because of the condition of the school and said the toilets weren't working, windows were leaking, the heating system was inadequate, and some of the floors contained holes.

F. T. Rudy, executive assistant to the superintendent, informed the parents last week that repairs were planned for the school this summer including improvement of rest rooms, drinking fountains, ceilings and walls.

There will be a guest speaker and the senior choir will sing "Hymn to a Hero" and "Preludes to Eternity."

OWNER HAS ONE HORSE

138 Year Old Landau Needs Team

LANDAU, A TWO HORSE CARRIAGE

What can you do with a two-horse carriage when you have only one horse?

This is the problem facing Miss Alma Schumaker, manager of the Robinson Shop in Great Southern Shopping Center.

Miss Schumaker is the owner of a Landau, which was built in 1838 to carry dignitaries at official functions.

Her Landau has been put to this use on numerous occasions, when Senator Frank Lausche as governor was guest of honor at sesquicentennials throughout the state.

Miss Schumaker bought the carriage in 1950, when she was a resident of Galion and had a farm on which she bred and raised horses.

At the time, she was the owner of two champion white horses and could display the white-trimmed wine colored carriage in fine style.

Since moving to Columbus, she retired one of the horses, Cameo Eagle, and boards her white stallion, White Eagle, at a stable in the area.

She has had inquiries from Governor Michael DiSalle and ex-Governor C. William O'Neill regarding the carriage, but has been unable to use it because of lack of time and the availability of only one white horse.

Miss Schumaker began her interest in horses when a youngster on her father's farm.

She and her sister, Mrs. Virginia Payne of Galion, would ride in free-for-all running horse races competing against men and "generally win."

One of the highlights of the sisters' lives was a three month long horseback tour publicizing the Gene Autry Show. The girls rode pinto ponies from Galion to New Haven, Conn., via Cleveland, Pittsburgh, and New York.

She related another special occasion when she rode her white stallion from the State Fairgrounds down High-st into the lobby of the Deshler Hilton Hotel to commemorate the opening of the Ohio Sesquicentennial.

She was greeted by a surprised registration clerk and movie star Gene Lockhart.

Miss Schumaker, who also judges horse shows, started a new breed of show horse. She and her sister bred a high-gated American saddle horse and a western paint to produce a high-gated spotted horse.

But her horse raising days are temporarily in the past so if anyone has two white horses and is interested in a Landau, Miss Schumaker is the person to see.

PREFERS TO RIDE IN CAR—Miss Alma Schumaker is the owner of a 138-year-old Landau, which she has displayed at sesquicentennials throughout the state. At present, she doesn't have the horsepower to use the Landau and has to rely on more modern means of transportation.

Consumer Report

Food Market This Week

by ESTELLE B. FRANKS

THIS WEEK LOOK FOR:
Fruits: Strawberries, Valencia oranges, pineapple, bananas, rhubarb.
Vegetables: Asparagus, greenhouse tomatoes, carrots, celery, lettuce.
Other Foods—Fryers, ham, rib roasts, ground beef, large eggs, ice cream.

Strawberries are here in all their glory for the Memorial Day weekend. This is peak of harvest for Kentucky berries, but supplies from Arkansas, Alabama, Tennessee and California are still coming. Prices probably won't get much lower during the fresh strawberry season. Berries in the Columbus area are expected to ripen around June 15.

Another fruit that may interest you for picnics and outdoor eating is watermelon. So many melons are coming from Florida now that some stores will feature them for the holiday. Fresh lemons and frozen lemonade are other budget-prized fruits. The lemons are small but quality appears to be good.

Greenhouse tomatoes always add an extra special touch to salads or picnic baskets. You'll like their lower price this weekend. These hothouse beauties are at their peak in production from now through mid-June.

Rains and warmer weather keep asparagus growing—the quality is good. Locally grown salad items are plentiful now — radishes, green onions, new crop spinach and field-grown leaf lettuce. Shipped-in produce is also increasing—lots more snap beans and sweet corn from Florida. You'll do well to buy sweet corn in the husks wherever possible. These are the natural wrap and preserve quality best of all.

Many Meats—This is the weekend to watch for specials on meats suited to outdoor grilling or for picnics. Steaks, ground beef, ham, frankfurters are among the items to look for. Broiler-fryers, too, will be offered as featured items.

Eggs—any way you use them—give a lot of high-quality protein for your money. Supplies remain heavy and prices are expected to remain steady until July. The large sizes are still the best buys.

Be sure to stop at the frozen food counter. Sweet corn, Fordhook limas and broccoli supplies are being cleared for the new packs that will be coming along soooon.

And while you're at the frozen food cabinet it might be fun to look for new items. More are appearing every day. Since 1942 through 1957, the total production of frozen foods increased nearly 800 per cent.

Beauty seems to be determined more by the way you make up your mind than by the way you make up your face.

In 1502, on his fourth voyage to the New World, Columbus ran into a hurricane, and lost 29 out of his 30 ships.

Columbus Auto Club reminds drivers that pleasant spring weather means increased play activity in school zones. Motorists driving near schools or playgrounds should be constantly alert for the child who may have forgotten his safety lessons.

BIBLE COMMENT:

Animals Were Not Forgotten For Their Tail

An unusual sight, the heads of stone oxen, greets the visitor to the medieval cathedral in Laon, France.

Although the oxen were placed on the towers 800 years ago when the church was built, they bear a lesson for us today.

In many ways the man of the middle ages was similar to the man of today. Although he was devoted to God he had his failings.

He was capable of great cruelty as well as reaches of creativity that made it seem that he was inspired by the Divine.

The scholar, Henry Adams, has described his work on stained glass this way. Although he had little precedent for his work, he created pieces of art of high beauty — dedicated to the glory of God.

But if he was cruel and arrogant, he was humble as well. This is where the oxen on the ancient spires of Lyon cathedral become important.

To the mind of the medieval craftsman, all the creatures on earth were devoted to the service of God. The cathedral required years of toil on the part of many laborers, masons, carpenters and stonecutters of the community, for everyone gave their time to help in the construction.

Not to be forgotten were the dumb oxen that labored up the steep hill, dragging stone from the quarries to the site of the cathedral. They, too, served God. And they, too, are memorialized on the soaring testimony of the creator of all things of heaven and earth.

Town Meeting Set Next Week

Balanced Community Development is the objective of "Ohio's Town Meeting," scheduled for Columbus, June 1 and 2.

Leaders in all phases of community affairs — from the township to the city and county level — are invited to attend the two-day meeting. Reservations still may be made with the local chamber of commerce, or with the Industrial Development Department of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce.

"Ohio's Town Meeting" will give the community leader the opportunity to discuss his development problems with the experts on numerous panels.

"Cracker-barrel" sessions feature the program. They have as their chief sub-titles "Selling Your Town to the Citizens," "Community Man-Made Resources," and "Community Financing."

Kiwanis Sends Four To Camp

Four boys from the South Side will be sponsored for two weeks at the Big Brothers Camp during the month of June, by the Southern Kiwanis Club.

The boys will be chosen from three different schools in the area and one boy at large. The schools are George C. Beery Junior High, Roosevelt Junior High and Marion Franklin High School.

Monies derived from the annual Jet Ball Game ticket sale will be used to defray the camp expenses. Tickets are now on sale and available from any Kiwanian.

Air Rifle Wound May Cost Sight Of Boy's Eye

A seven-year old South Side boy may lose the sight of his right eye as a result of an air rifle wound suffered Saturday night, police reported.

Kenneth Powers, 1917½ Parsons-av, was in good condition at Children's Hospital at last report.

His mother, Mrs. Clayton Powers, said that the boy's doctor hoped to save some visibility in the eye.

Police are trying to determine how the accident occurred.

Reeves Takes Area Hopes To Track Championships

Only one local athlete qualified for the state finals for high school tracksters in the district cinder meet held last week-end at Ohio State University. The Ohio championships will be run off on the same oval this Friday and Saturday.

Richard Reeves, broad jumper, who scored all Marion-Franklin's four points, will be the lone area representative.

South also scored four points at the district to finish in a two-way tie with the Red Devils for 14th place. The Bulldog points were registered by Jim Pollard, who finished fourth in the low hurdles, and Bob Shoemaker who was fourth in the discus.

Old Timer Brown Leads Schuman Meats To Win

Shuman Meats, led by Manager Butch Schneider, took over second place in the South Side Slo-Pitch League by defeating previously undefeated Heinmiller's last week, 13 to 8.

George Brown, clean-up hitter for Schuman Meats, had 5 for 5. Brown, the oldest member of the team (40) was an inspiration to the younger members on his squad.

Don's Inn moved in to tie for first place with Gambrinus Breweries by defeating powerful Kelleys, 8 to 2. Kelleys split a double-header, losing to Don's Inn, 8 to 2, and defeating Carl's Ignition, 10 to 0.

Kelley's 10 to 0 victory over Carl's Ignition was the first shut-out in the two years of the South Side Slo-Pitch League. The hard hitting Carl's Ignition was held to only four hits in the nine-inning game.

Carl's Ignition came back in the second game of the double-header by defeating Three Lads, 13 to 8.

Gambrinus Breweries out-slugged Olympian Club, 18 to 8. Fleetfooted Ira Boling and Tony Yoli led the attack. Boling had 5 for 6 and Yoli had triple, two doubles and a single for five times at bat.

Manager Jim Maloney of the Olympian club stated that Ray Ellis, oldest member of the Gambrinus Breweries, played an outstanding game at second base.

President Butch Schneider requests that all score cards be turned in immediately after the game, to Buck Santanich.

Bulldogs Split Two Games With Irish

South Bulldogs split two games recently with the Aquinas Terriers.

On Tuesday, May 17, the Bulldogs suffered a 9-4 setback by the Terriers on the winner's field. Bob Kost took the win, while Terry Foster was loser.

On Thursday, May 19, the Terriers journeyed to South where they suffered a 4-3 loss to the Bulldogs.

South was led by Tom Sims and Dave Farson's hitting and Jim Cordell's five-hit pitching. Larry Tigyer led Aquinas with a two-run triple.

Jim Cordell took the win while Harry Smith was loser.

Eastmoor Win Keeps Barrett From First

Barrett Junior High School whipped West Junior High 1-0 at Lincoln Park Field Thursday, May 19, in a make up game which was rained out on Tuesday, May 10.

Mike Rickard struck out 11 for Barrett, walked three, and gave up three hits, in the six inning game played in an hour and 25 minutes.

Rick Coverdale singled, was advanced to third by an infield error, and scored on an outfield error.

Bob Keel pitched a good game for West, giving up one run, two hits and two walks.

On Tuesday, May 17, Barrett played Eastmoor at Eastmoor and lost 9 to 4, leaving Eastmoor in first place with Barrett in second place.

For the season Barrett's record has been 5 and 2 in the South Section League, 9 and 3 over all.

Pirates Down Siebert Sputniks

Beck Pirates came out hittin' and runnin' for their best game of the year May 19, in downing the Siebert Sputniks 13-2.

George Burton had three hits and scored three runs for Beck, while Roger Houck's two hits were tops for Siebert.

Three hits each by Heine and Skaggs, and a home run by Moore led the Reeb Rebels to a 11-3 conquest of the Siebert Scorpions.

Timely hits by Bell, Robinson, and Trott highlighted a three run uprising in the first inning by Siebert.

Two unbeatens clashed head-on Thursday evening, and the Lincoln Park Grays won over the Stewart Bulldogs, 7-1.

Bob Ellinger and Kenny Thacker had three hits each for Lincoln Park, and Thomason, Speakmon and Thompson sparked Stewart.

Kiwanis Prexy To Attend Meet

Southern Kiwanis President Donald Grant and his family will attend the annual International Kiwanis Convention to be held June 26-30 at Miami Beach.

At the conclusion of the convention, the Grants will spend the balance of their vacation touring Florida, returning home July 5.

Grant is associated with the Cussins and Fearn Co., managing the Parsons-av branch.

Jerusalem lives on the tourist dollar, and has more travel agencies than grocery stores.

Two Girls League Entries Score Second Straight Wins

Rain caused postponement of the Monday Junior and Friday Senior Slow Pitch divisions of the South Side Branch YMCA Inter-Church Softball Leagues, but sandwiched in between was plenty of action in the three other leagues last week.

In the girls' loop, St. John E&R, South Methodist and St. Paul E&R scored their second straight victories. St. John behind the twirling of Jackie Schoonover and hitting of "Liz" Laupp overpowered Thurman Methodist while South Methodist capitalized on the wildness of Southwood Church of Christ pitchers and walked to victory lane.

In the Wednesday Junior Boys play, Oakwood Methodist came from behind to knock Emmanuel Lutheran from the undefeated ranks by a 10 to 9 score. Tom Cory homered for the Methodists and Mike Crist hit a circuit clout and a triple to lead the Lutheran attack.

Five big runs in the third inning proved to be all that the Southwood Church of Christ needed in its 6 to 3 victory over St. John E&R. Jack Davis took hitting honors for the Southwood nine.

Heavy hitting by Borst and Jay Young proved to be the major factor in St. Paul E&R's win over South Methodist, while Ohio Avenue EUB continues to roll along on all nine in downing St. Paul Lutheran. Mike Coleman played well for the Saints, while Gaylord Salyer earned the "player of the week" spotlight with four safeties to run his hitting streak to seven straight.

St. Paul E&R defeated Livingston 14 to 6 in the only game played in the Intermediate League. Wally Rueckel and Jim Buel led the St. Paul hitters while Jacobs pitched effectively, although he did show signs of tiring in the late innings.

Highlight for Livingston was the fine fielding of Ray Woodward, who made several spectacular catches of balls ticketed for extra bases.

Barrett Wins South Section Track Crown

Following a successful 13-1 season against other junior high schools in the city, the Barrett Junior High track team won the first place trophy in the City South Sectional Meet.

Led by John Walters, Bill Goodwin, Lawrence Goodwin, and Don Banks, members of the winning 440 and 880 relay teams, Barrett scored 31 points.

Other team members who contributed to this total were Napoleon Hagwood, third in the shot put and fourth in the 100 yard dash; Dick Schundelmier, second in the half mile; Jim Neale, second in the low hurdles; Carl Leatherwood, third in the high jump; Rodney Wilkerson, fourth in the 440 yd. dash; and Charles Bonner and Albert Wilder, fifth in the 100 and low hurdles, respectively.

The track season ended Friday, May 20, with the running of the City Junior High meet at Central.

Barrett's track team is coached this winning season by science teacher, James Furgason.

Southwood Nine Keeps First Hold

Southwood Deacon Demons kept their spotless record in tact May 17, by downing the Heyl Warriors, 11-3.

A home run by Abahazie highlighted the Southwood attack and Davis had two hits for Heyl.

The Livingston Lions finally roared out of their slump and the bats of Taylor, Richards, Kauffman and Brown boomed out some big hits to bring in 16 runs and top the Southwood Rocketeers 16-10.

Paul George had two hits and Collins scored three runs and chipped in with a triple at bat. The Deshler Panthers, who have yet to taste defeat, showed the best balance of the night with every player in the lineup getting at least one hit in their 11-4 win over the Heyl Eagles.

That air conditioner you were sorry you didn't buy last summer, will cost you up to $30 more . . . if you wait until this summer to buy it. A new Federal Excise Tax on air conditioners that went into effect December 1, 1959 will account for the price increase.
Fortunately we ordered our 1960 Fedders Air Conditioners early . . . received a limited supply before the tax deadline. We know now how lucky we were: because of the steel strike then in effect, only a handful of tax-free air conditioners were manufactured by the entire industry. You can be lucky too, if you act quickly.
There's still time to beat Uncle Sam out of the tax—and enjoy the world's finest air conditioner—a genuine Fedders. Better move fast, though, because these tax-free Fedders are moving out fast.

Boat Trailers Can Take Fun Wherever You Go

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors
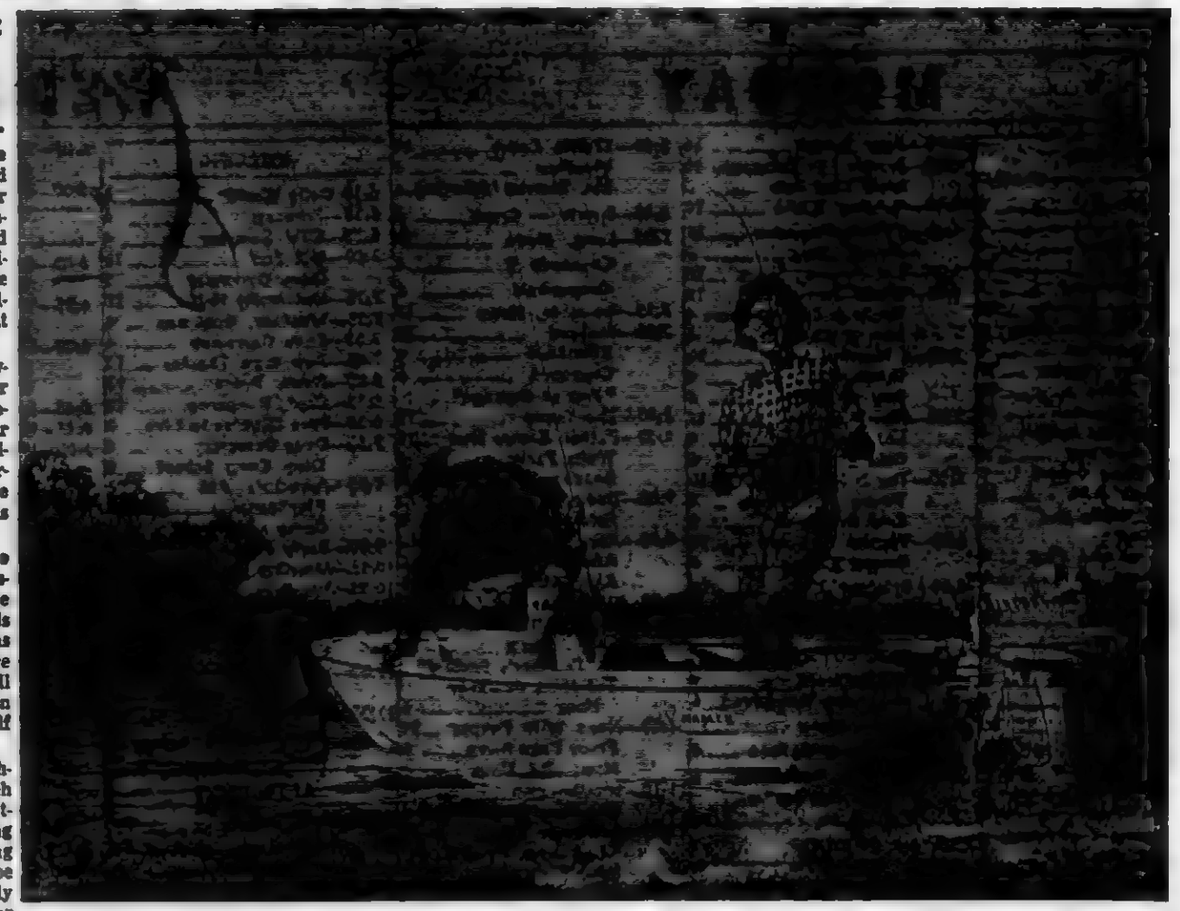
By ROB COCHRAN

Modern boat trailers have made every garage, carport and backyard a possible drydock for all types of watercraft. Launching ramps have been provided at most waters by the Ohio Division of Parks and Wildlife and other agencies, and trailers have become as important as either a boat or motor.

Take a look up around Hoover Reservoir any evening or weekend, and you will see plenty of dry-dockers launching their craft. Area boaters also form almost continuous lines of trailered boats as they head for Lake Erie and other distant points on holidays.

Your boat trailer, the key to your adventures afloat on distant waters, should get a little attention if your boating fun is to be unmarred by breakdowns or other unpleasantness. Here are some suggestions which will enable you to put your rig on the highway and enjoy yourself during the coming season.

1. Check the coupler mechanism, winch gearing and winch line, safety chain, brake actuator (if so equipped), lighting harness, light bulbs and tilting locks and mechanicsm to be sure all are working properly and not showing signs of wear or imminent breakage. Replace broken or worn parts with replacements which can be obtained from dealers. Safety chain and belts are especially important items to check — rolling down the highway at 60 mph is no time to lose a boat.



2. Check rollers for deep gauges or other signs of wear, and replace if needed. Take a look at the cradle padding for worn spots. Use nylon carpeting strips for cradle pad replacements.

3. Check the frame overall, tongue, fenders, winch mast for the inevitable rust spots. Rub out the rust to bare metal using emery paper. Retouch areas and spots using matching paint colors.

4. Lubricate coupler mechanism with 30 wt. machine or motor oil. Lubricate tilt-frame mechanisms, rollers, cradle mechanisms, winch gearing, tilt-jack track using Lubriplate No. 70 or other heavy grease.

5. Servicing of the undercarriage is not recommended for amateurs. Wheel bearings should be examined, cleaned, lubricated by a competent garage man. Depending on the number of times the wheels are dunked in water, and the distances towed, wheel bearings might need servicing several times a season. At every stop when trailering check the wheel hubs with your hand. If hubs are heating up, have them serviced at once.

Check the air pressure in trailer tires before you start on a trip, and do not bleed off excess pressure when traveling. There will be a normal increase in pressure due to the heat generated on the road.

WORTH THE TRIP—Boat trailers have made possible long trips to exotic fishing waters. These anglers are catching a monstrous tarpon in Florida. The boat used here is the new "Boston Whaler, a stable, double-V bottomed job, stocked by Les Rodifer, 1200 Parsons-av.

Harriet Nelson Receives Genii Award At Banquet

By Larry Holmes

Harriet Hilliard Nelson of ABC-TV's "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriett," was guest of honor at this year's Radio-TV Women of Southern California banquet.

The Genii Award was presented to Mrs. Nelson during the banquet which was held May 17, at the Beverly Hills Hotel.

This is an annual award presented to an outstanding female personality who not only has contributed a great deal to the entertainment field, but also in her private life engages in activities benefiting the community. Voting is done by secret mail ballot to the membership.

Past recipients of the award have been Dinah Shore, Loretta Young, Lucille Ball and Dale Evans.

A Show of Stars will be presented at the Veteran's Memorial Auditorium Thursday, May 26, at 8:15 p.m.

Bob Crosby, Carol Richards, Buddy Morene and his orchestra, along with Johnny Matson will contribute to making the two hour program enjoyable.

The show is sponsored by The Sertoma Club of Columbus. Tickets are on sale at the Central Ticket Office, Marshall's, 46 N. High-st and will be priced from $1.75 to $3.00.

Play of the Week will present John Steinbeck's "Burning Bright" on Saturday, May 26, at 11:30 p.m. The play, originally produced on Broadway by Rogers and Hammerstein, is quite different from their usual musical fare.

A middle-aged man who is physically incapable of producing an heir is played by Myron McCormick. His need for a son to carry on his name is the driving force in this tension-filled production. Author Steinbeck has chosen a circus as a setting for the drama. Television does not lessen the impact of this story.

Walter Slezak will take over as host for the "Chevy Suspense Show" beginning Sunday, May 29 at 8 p.m. on Channel 4 in place of the Dinah Shore Show.

A special project program will be telecast by "World Wide 60" on Saturday, May 26 at 9:30 p.m. on Channel 4. Pros and cons of the vital question, "How good is today's American soldier?" will be presented in "The American Fighting Man."

The program subtitled "Korea Plus 10," will include a strong picture of the American fighting man by Hanson Baldwin, military columnist for The New York Times.

Beverage cases must be strong in order to hold up in all types of weather and traveling conditions. A laquer coating is used on these cases. It is abrasion and moisture resistant, attractive and easy to apply.

Big Demand In Central Ohio To Purchase Florida Land

Marvin C. Yerke, president of Marvin C. Yerke and Associates, says his organization is starting a sales campaign in connection with Florida properties developed by the General Development Corp. and Mackle Bros.

"Due to an unprecedented demand for new homes in Port Charlotte, Fla.," said Yerke, "General Development Corp. has accelerated its home building program. The Yerke organization is cooperating in making these homes available to Central Ohio residents."

Ralph Trachsel, 5303 Trabue-rd, is Florida Sales Director for Yerke.

Three salesman - associates with the Yerke organization recently completed a one-week orientation program in all of the General Development Corp. Florida developments and will devote their time to the exclusive sale of homes in Port Charlotte, Port St. Lucie, Port Malabar and Sebastian Highlands.

"Interest in Central Ohio in these Florida developments is very high and sales are brisk," Yerke reported.

The salesmen are Arnold Colabrese of 3407 Brandon-rd, Walter Wilk of 4685 E. Livingston-av and Robert Counter of 246 S. Dawson.

Women are like baseball umpires—they make quick decisions, never reverse them and they don't think you're safe when you're out.

Franklin Village Children Stage Art Exhibit Show

Children of Franklin Village presented an art exhibit on May 21st and 22nd in the Franklin Village Gym. No admission was charged and the public was invited.

Jack Dennis, Director of Art Education in the village, worked with the children and helped in presenting the show.

The purpose of the exhibit was to aquaint parents of children, who are fellow students of Franklin Village boys and girls in the Southwestern School District, with Franklin Village and its residents.

One of the Village cottages was open to visitors with children acting as guides. Staff members were also available to answer any questions pertaining to the village and exhibit.

The show is sponsored by The Sertoma Club of Columbus. Tickets are on sale at the Central Ticket Office, Marshall's, 46 N. High-st and will be priced from $1.75 to $3.00.

Play of the Week will present John Steinbeck's "Burning Bright" on Saturday, May 26, at 11:30 p.m. The play, originally produced on Broadway by Rogers and Hammerstein, is quite different from their usual musical fare.

A middle-aged man who is physically incapable of producing an heir is played by Myron McCormick. His need for a son to carry on his name is the driving force in this tension-filled production. Author Steinbeck has chosen a circus as a setting for the drama. Television does not lessen the impact of this story.

Walter Slezak will take over as host for the "Chevy Suspense Show" beginning Sunday, May 29 at 8 p.m. on Channel 4 in place of the Dinah Shore Show.

A special project program will be telecast by "World Wide 60" on Saturday, May 28 at 9:30 p.m. on Channel 4. Pros and cons of the vital question, "How good is today's American soldier?" will be presented in "The American Fighting Man."

The program subtitled "Korea Plus 10," will include a strong picture of the American fighting man by Hanson Baldwin, military columnist for The New York Times.

Beverage cases must be strong in order to hold up in all types of weather and traveling conditions. A laquer coating is used on these cases. It is abrasion and moisture resistant, attractive and easy to apply.

Big Demand In Central Ohio To Purchase Florida Land

Marvin C. Yerke, president of Marvin C. Yerke and Associates, says his organization is starting a sales campaign in connection with Florida properties developed by the General Development Corp. and Mackle Bros.

"Due to an unprecedented demand for new homes in Port Charlotte, Fla.," said Yerke, "General Development Corp. has accelerated its home building program. The Yerke organization is cooperating in making these homes available to Central Ohio residents."

Ralph Trachsel, 5303 Trabue-rd, is Florida Sales Director for Yerke.

Three salesman - associates with the Yerke organization recently completed a one-week orientation program in all of the General Development Corp. Florida developments and will devote their time to the exclusive sale of homes in Port Charlotte, Port St. Lucie, Port Malabar and Sebastian Highlands.

"Interest in Central Ohio in these Florida developments is very high and sales are brisk," Yerke reported.

The salesmen are Arnold Colabrese of 3407 Brandon-rd, Walter Wilk of 4685 E. Livingston-av and Robert Counter of 246 S. Dawson.

Franklin Village Children Stage Art Exhibit Show

Children of Franklin Village presented an art exhibit on May 21st and 22nd in the Franklin Village Gym. No admission was charged and the public was invited.

Jack Dennis, Director of Art Education in the village, worked with the children and helped in presenting the show.

The purpose of the exhibit was to aquaint parents of children, who are fellow students of Franklin Village boys and girls in the Southwestern School District, with Franklin Village and its residents.

One of the Village cottages was open to visitors with children acting as guides. Staff members were also available to answer any questions pertaining to the village and exhibit.

Reeves Takes Area Hopes To Track Championships

Only one local athlete qualified for the state finals for high school tracksters in the district cinder meet held last week-end at Ohio State University. The Ohio championships will be run off on the same oval this Friday and Saturday.

Richard Reeves, broad jumper, who scored all Marion-Franklin's four points, will be the lone area representative.

South also scored four points at the district to finish in a two-way tie with the Red Devils for 14th place. The Bulldog points were registered by Jim Pollard, who finished fourth in the low hurdles, and Bob Shoemaker who was fourth in the discus.

Old Timer Brown Leads Schuman Meats To Win

Shuman Meats, led by Manager Butch Schneider, took over second place in the South Side Slo-Pitch League by defeating previously undefeated Heinmiller's last week, 13 to 8.

George Brown, clean-up hitter for Schuman Meats, had 5 for 5. Brown, the oldest member of the team (40) was an inspiration to the younger members on his squad.

Don's Inn moved in to tie for first place with Gambrinus Breweries by defeating powerful Kelleys, 8 to 2. Kelleys split a double-header, losing to Don's Inn, 8 to 2, and defeating Carl's Ignition, 10 to 0.

Kelley's 10 to 0 victory over Carl's Ignition was the first shut-out in the two years of the South Side Slo-Pitch League. The hard hitting Carl's Ignition was held to only four hits in the nine-inning game.

Carl's Ignition came back in the second game of the double-header by defeating Three Lads, 13 to 8.

Two Girls League Entries Score Second Straight Wins

Rain caused postponement of the Monday Junior and Friday Senior Slow Pitch divisions of the South Side Branch YMCA Inter-Church Softball Leagues, but sandwiched in between was plenty of action in the three other leagues last week.

In the girls' loop, St. John E&R, South Methodist and St. Paul E&R scored their second straight victories. St. John behind the twirling of Jackie Schoonover and hitting of "Liz" Leupp overpowered Thurman Methodist while South Methodist capitalized on the wildness of Southwood Church of Christ pitchers and walked to victory lane.

In the Wednesday Junior Boys play, Oakwood Methodist came from behind to knock Emmanuel Lutheran from the undefeated ranks by a 10 to 9 score. Tom Cory homered for the Methodists and Mike Crist hit a circuit clout and a triple to lead the Lutheran attack.

Five big runs in the third inning proved to be all that the Southwood Church of Christ needed in its 6 to 3 victory over St. John E&R. Jack Davis took hitting honors for the Southwood nine.

Heavy hitting by Borst and Jay Young proved to be the major factor in St. Paul E&R's win over South Methodist, while Ohio Avenue EUB continues to roll along on all nine in downing St. Paul Lutheran. Mike Coleman played well for the Saints, while Gaylord Salyer earned the "player of the week" spotlight with four safeties to run his hitting streak to seven straight.

Barrett Wins South Section Track Crown

Following a successful 12-1 season against other junior high schools in the city, the Barrett Junior High track team won the first place trophy in the City South Sectional Meet.

Led by John Walters, Bill Goodwin, Lawrence Goodwin, and Don Banks, members of the winning 440 and 880 relay teams, Barrett scored 31 points.

Other team members who contributed to this total were Napoleon Hagwood, third in the shot put and fourth in the 100 yard dash; Dick Schundelmier, second in the half mile; Jim Neale, second in the low hurdles; Carl Leatherwood, third in the high jump; Rodney Wilkerson, fourth in the 440 yd. dash; and Charles Bonner and Albert Wilder, fifth in the 100 and low hurdles, respectively.

The track season ended Friday, May 20, with the running of the City Junior High [illegible]

while Jacobs pitched effectively, although he did show signs of tiring in the late innings.

Highlight for Livingston was the fine fielding of Ray Woodward, who made several spectacular catches of balls ticketed for extra bases.

Boat Trailers Can Take Fun Where

INSIDE ON THE Outdoors By ROB COCHRAN

Modern boat trailers have made every garage, carport and backyard a possible drydock for all types of watercraft. Launching ramps have been provided at most waters by the Ohio Division of Parks and Wildlife and other agencies, and trailers have become as important as either a boat or motor.

Take a look up around Hoover Reservoir any evening or weekend, and you will see plenty of dry-dockers launching their craft. Area boaters also form almost continuous lines of trailered boats as they head for Lake Erie and other distant points on holidays.

Your boat trailer, the key to your adventures afloat on distant waters, should get a little attention if your boating fun is to be unmarred by breakdowns or other unpleasantness. Here are some suggestions which will enable you to put your rig on the highway and enjoy yourself during the coming season.

1. Check the coupler mechanism, winch gearing and winch line, safety chain, brake actuator (if so equipped), lighting harness, light bulbs and tilting locks and mechanism to be sure all are working properly and not showing signs of wear or imminent breakage. Replace broken or worn parts with replacements which can be obtained from dealers. Safety chain and belts are especially important items to check — rolling down the highway at 60 mph is no time to lose a boat.

2. Check rollers for deep gauges or other signs of wear, and replace if needed. Take a look at the cradle padding for worn spots. Use nylon carpeting strips for cradle pad replacements.

3. Check the frame overall, tongue, fenders, winch mast for the inevitable rust spots. Rub out the rust to bare metal using emery paper. Retouch areas and spots using matching paint colors.

4. Lubricate coupler mechanism with 30 wt. machine or motor oil. Lubricate tilt-frame mechanisms, rollers, cradle mechanisms, winch gearing, tilt-jack track using Lubriplate No. 70 or other heavy grease.

5. Servicing of the undercarriage is not recommended for amateurs. Wheel bearings should be examined, cleaned, lubricated by a competent garage man. Depending on the number of times the wheels are dunked in water, and the distances towed, wheel bearings might need servicing several times a season. At every stop when trailering check the wheel hubs with your hand. If hubs are heating up, have them serviced at once.

Check the air pressure in trailer tires before you start on a trip, and do not bleed off excess pressure when traveling. There will be a normal increase in pressure due to the heat generated on the road.

WORTH THE TRIP—Boat trailers have made possible long trips to exotic fishing waters. These anglers are catching a monstrous tarpon in Florida. The boat used here is the new "Boston Whaler, a stab[illegible] Las Redifer, 1200 Parse[illegible]

Harriet Nelson Receives Genii Award At Banquet

By Larry Holmes

Harriet Hilliard Nelson of ABC-TV's "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriett," was guest of honor at this year's Radio-TV Women of Southern California banquet.

The Genii Award was presented to Mrs. Nelson during the banquet which was held May 17, at the Beverly Hills Hotel.

This is an annual award presented to an outstanding female personality who not only has contributed a great deal to the entertainment field, but also in her private life engages in activities benefiting the community. Voting is done by secret mail ballot to the membership.

Past recipients of the award have been Dinah Shore, Loretta Young, Lucille Ball and Dale Evans.

A Show of Stars will be presented at the Veteran's Memorial Auditorium Thursday, May 26, at 8:15 p.m.

Bob Crosby, Carol Richards, Buddy Moreno and his orchestra, along with Johnny Matson will contribute to making the two hour program enjoyable.

The show is sponsored by The Sertoma Club of Columbus. Tickets are on sale at the Central Ticket Office, Marshall's, 46 N. High-st and will be priced from $1.75 to $3.00.

Play of the Week will present John Steinbeck's "Burning Bright" on Saturday, May 28, at 11:30 p.m. The play, originally produced on Broadway by Rogers and Hammerstein, is quite different from their usual musical fare.

A middle-aged man who is physically incapable of producing an heir is played by Myron McCormick. His need for a son to carry on his name is the driving force in this tension-filled production. Author Steinbeck has chosen a circus as a setting for the drama. Television does not lessen the impact of this story.

Walter Slezak will take over as host for the "Chevy Suspense Show" beginning Sunday, May 29 at 9 p.m. on Channel 4 in place of the Dinah Shore Show.

A special project program will be telecast by "World Wide 60" on Saturday, May 28 at 9:30 p.m. on Channel 4. Pros and cons of the vital question, "How good is today's American soldier?" will be presented in "The American Fighting Man."

The program subtitled "Korea Plus 10," will include a strong picture of the American fighting man by Hanson Baldwin, military columnist for The New York Times.

Beverage cases must be strong in order to hold up in all types of weather and traveling conditions. A laquer coating is used on these cases. It is abrasion and moisture resistant, attractive and easy to apply.

Big Demand In Central Ohio To Purchase Florida Land

Marvin G. Yerke, president of Marvin C. Yerke and Associates, says his organization is starting a sales campaign in connection with Florida properties developed by the General Development Corp. and Mackle Bros.

"Due to an unprecedented demand for new homes in Port Charlotte, Fla.," said Yerke, "General Development Corp. has accelerated its home building program. The Yerke organization is cooperating in making these homes available to Central Ohio residents."

Ralph Trachsel, 5303 Trabuerd, is Florida Sales Director for Yerke.

Three salesman - associates with the Yerke organization recently completed a one-week orientation program in all of the General Development Corp. Florida developments and will devote their time to the exclusive sale of homes in Port Charlotte. Port St. Lucie, Port Malabar and Sebastian Highlands.

"Interest in Central Ohio in these Florida developments is very high and sales are brisk," Yerke reported.

The salesmen are Arnold Colabrese of 2407 Brandon-rd, Walter Wilk of 4685 E. Livingston-av and Robert Counter of 248 S. Dawson.

Women are like baseball umpires—they make quick decisions, never reverse them and they don't think you're safe when you're out.

Rain Postpones 'Y' Leagues

Reeves Takes Area Hopes To Track Championships

Only one local athlete qualified for the state finals for high school tracksters in the district cinder meet held last week-end at Ohio State University. The Ohio championships will be run off on the same oval this Friday and Saturday.

Richard Reeves, broad jumper, who scored all Marion-Franklin's four points, will be the lone area representative.

South also scored four points at the district to finish in a two-way tie with the Red Devils for 14th place. The Bulldog points were registered by Jim Pollard, who finished fourth in the low hurdles, and Bob Shoemaker who was fourth in the discus.

Old Timer Brown Leads Schuman Meats To Win

Shuman Meats, led by Manager Butch Schneider, took over second place in the South Side Slo-Pitch League by defeating previously undefeated Heinmiller's last week, 13 to 8.

George Brown, clean-up hitter for Schuman Meats, had 5 for 5. Brown, the oldest member of the team (40) was an inspiration to the younger members on his squad.

Don's Inn moved in to tie for first place with Gambrinus Breweries by defeating powerful Kelleys, 8 to 2. Kelleys split a double-header, losing to Don's Inn, 8 to 2, and defeating Carl's Ignition, 10 to 0.

Kelley's 10 to 0 victory over Carl's Ignition was the first shut-out in the two years of the South Side Slo-Pitch League. The hard hitting Carl's Ignition was held to only four hits in the nine-inning game.

Carl's Ignition came back in the second game of the double-

Two Girls League Entries Score Second Straight Wins

Rain caused postponement of the Monday Junior and Friday Senior Slow Pitch divisions of the South Side Branch YMCA Inter-Church Softball Leagues, but sandwiched in between was plenty of action in the three other leagues last week.

In the girls' loop, St. John E&R, South Methodist and St. Paul E&R scored their second straight victories. St. John behind the twirling of Jackie Schoonover and hitting of "Liz" Leupp overpowered Thurman Methodist while South Methodist capitalized on the wildness of Southwood Church of Christ pitchers and walked to victory lane.

In the Wednesday Junior Boys play, Oakwood Methodist came from behind to knock Emmanuel Lutheran from the undefeated ranks by a 10 to 9 score. Tom Cory homered for the Methodists and Mike Crist hit a circuit clout and a triple to lead the Lutheran attack.

Five big runs in the third inning proved to be all that the Southwood Church of Christ needed in its 6 to 3 victory over St. John E&R. Jack Davis took hitting honors for the Southwood nine.

Heavy hitting by Borst and Jay Young proved to be the major factor in St. Paul E&R's win over South Methodist, while Ohio Avenue EUB continues to roll along on all nine in downing St. Paul Lutheran. Mike Coleman played well for the Saints, while Gaylord Salyer earned the "player of the week" spotlight with four safeties to run his hitting streak to seven straight.

Barrett Wins South Section Track Crown

Following a successful 12-1 season against other junior high schools in the city, the Barrett Junior High track team won the first place trophy in the City South Sectional Meet.

Led by John Walters, Bill Goodwin, Lawrence Goodwin, and Don Banks, members of the winning 440 and 880 relay teams, Barrett scored 31 points.

Other team members who contributed to this total were Napoleon Hagwood, third in the shot put and fourth in the 100 yard dash; Dick Schundelmier, second in the half mile; Jim Neale, second in the low hurdles; Carl Leatherwood, third in the high jump; Rodney Wilkerson, fourth in the 440 yd. dash; and Charles Bonner and Albert Wilder, fifth in the 100 and low hurdles, respectively.

while Jacobs pitched effectively, although he did show signs of tiring in the late innings.

Highlight for Livingston was the fine fielding of Ray Woodward, who made several spectacular catches of balls ticketed for extra bases.

Board Asks For Building Funds

County commissioners were asked by the members of the Child Welfare Board to appropriate funds for a new office building at Franklin Village.

James W. Grant, executive secretary of CWB, said the office building would be a one-story, $80,000 structure. He said $50,000 would be needed this year to construct the building and the remainder of 1961.

County commissioners said, however, they understood the building would be two stories and cost $150,000. They said they would ask the county prosecutor to determine if money from delinquent non-support payments could be earmarked for this purpose.

Carl Dellenbaugh has been hired as an investigator to collect the delinquent payments. Commissioners said approximately $260,000 is outstanding in non-support payments.

Airman Bushby is a graduate of St. Mary's High School.

Upon completion of special technical training at an Air Force Technical Training Center, airmen are assigned to operational units of the USAF Aerospace Force.

The petty-coat was originally an article of clothing worn by men, and was something like an overgrown vest. The ladies came along, changed its spelling and purpose, and left the men vestless.
